Six Nations Urge Reds To Cancel Big Blast

Demand UN Make Appeal To Soviets

Many Peoples Fear Fall-Out From Huge Bomb

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Six nations close to the Soviet nuclear test area demanded Friday that the United Nations confront Premier Khrushchev immediately with an appeal to call off plans for a 50-megaton monster bomb blast.

Per Haekkerup of Denmark, one of the six, charged before the U.N. main Political Committee that Khrushchev had only one purpose: "to enhance the fears and concern of our already harassed peoples."

"Can any statesman take the responsibility for carrying out such a test explosion with the risk it involves to mankind—only in order to offer unnecessary proof of his country's strength?" he asked.

The committee adjourned at 5 p.m. EDT until Monday without taking any vote.

Pakistan Joins

Pakistan's Javed Iqbal announced his country had joined the list of sponsors of the resolution. Delegates from some Asian-African countries said they would offer an amendment which would widen the resolution to appeal to all countires to refrain from tests.

Haekkerup proposed that the committee delay its debate on how to stop further nuclear testing by all the major powers and give priority to a resolution sponsored by Denmark, Sweden Japan, Iceland, Norway and Canada.

The resolution called upon the General assembly to note with deep concern Khrushchev's statement that he intended to test the huge bomb at the end of the month.

Cite Health Hazard

It solemnly appealed to Khrushchev to cancel the test in view of the "immensely increased adverse effect of such an explosion on the health and welfare of the world population."

There appeared little doubt that the resolution would win overwhelming support.

The Danish delegate said Soviet fears of Western aggression "could never justify the explosion of this monster bomb. That would serve no scientific or defensive purposes."

Haekkerup made his plea at an afternoon session of the Committee. The entire morning session was taken up with a speech by Indian Defense minister V. K. Krishna Menon, who advocated a voluntary moratorium on tests pending agreement on a treaty.

Hope For Talks

British delegate Sir Michael Wright told the committee that a voluntary moratorium "is like Don Quixote's helmet. It looks impressive but it gives no protection."

"We shall not stop bombs and fallout by pious phrases," he said. "Do not let us be like the Bourbon kings, who, it is said, forgot nothing and learned nothing. Let us admit the hard lesson of experience and act accordingly."

Speaking on behalf of a U.S.-British resolution proposing that the United Nations call for an immediate test ban treaty providing effective controls, Wright invited the Soviet Union to come once more to the negotiating table.

Smiling Camel Driver Is Touring New York

NEW YORK (UPI)—Pakistani camel driver Bashmir Ahmad, still grinning but a little pale, met New York in its many moods Friday—from a $45-a-day suite at the Waldorf to a ride in a crowded subway and a shopping trip in a department store jammed with women.

"I know you are doing all this for me," Ahmad said after squeezing his way out of the subway. "But I hope no one gets hurt."

Ahmad, visiting this country on the personal invitation of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, arrived in New York Friday from Washington after touring the White House and meeting with President Kennedy.

Ahmad admitted he was beginning to get a little homesick for his family. But he said it was going to break his heart when he left America.

The first thing he did when he arrived here was to invite the American people to come to Pakistan.

Waving his arms like a politician, he stepped from his plane at nearby Newark, N.J. airport and said "this is just the beginning of my friendship with America. But before I come back here, I want you to come to see me."

Ahmad checked into the Waldorf-Astoria—where his neighbors include Herbert Hoover, Douglas MacArthur and Adlai Stevenson—and set out on a sightseeing tour of New York.

In Times Square a crowd cheered him as he got out of his limousine.

In the Seventh Avenue subway he was stared at and shouted to by teen-agers, on their way home from school, who jammed into the subway car with him and even stood on seats to get a better look.

On the 69th floor of the RCA Building in Rockefeller Center, Ahmad gazed out on the city, glancing from the Empire State

Red Raiders Hit Area Of Taylor's Visit

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Reports of a Communist raid on a vital highway reached here Friday as Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor prepared for a flying visit to guerrilla-ridden territory.

The communists struck near Pleiku, about 150 miles north of Saigon. The town originally was scheduled for the tour of Taylor, President Kennedy's military adviser, but later was dropped.

Fragmentary information indicated strong forces of Communist Viet Cong troops attacked a heavily defended mountain outpost on the highway Tuesday, the day before Taylor arrived.

Informants said the Vite Cong sought without success to lure bigger government units from Pleiku, 30 miles west of the outpost. Casualties were reported light.

Tropical storm Anita forced a day's delay in the general's tour. He will leave Saturday for a two-day swing, with the itinerary somewhat aletred.

Miss Michelmore Takes Blame In Post Card Flurry

NEW YORK (UPI) — Margery Michelmore, trying to decide whether to resign from the Peace Corps, said Friday that if she could rewrite her controversial Nigerian postcard she would say only: "Having a wonderful time, wish you were here."

The attractive 23-year-old Peace Corps member, whose postcard describing Nigeria as primitive sparked a protest demonstration by students at Ibadan University, stopped over in New York on a flight from London to San Juan, Puerto Rico. She has been reassigned to the Peace Corps training center in Puerto Rico.

"I want to have a little time to consider what I should do after this," she said. "I'm going to consider everything." She said she particularly would consider whether her continued membership in the Peace Corps might harm the organization.

Miss Michelmore said that during her training no one had told her what to write or not write on postcards.

"I wrote this postcard, which I dropped," she said. "It was picked up and mimeographed and distributed to the students. It was carelessness on my part"

She said, however, she felt the incident had been "pretty much blown up."

Peace Corps Director R. Sargent Shriver has intimated that Communists were behind the distribution of the postcard, but Miss Michelmore said she did not know whether this was a fact.

President's Top Advisers Voice Danger

Claim Advances Can Halt Trend Of U.S. Recovery

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (UPI)—Two of President Kennedy's top economic advisers appealed to business and labor Friday to forego unjustified wage and price increases lest they help spark a new wave of inflation next year.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon and Chairman Walter W. Heller of the President's Council of Economic Advisers cautioned that an inflationary spiral could halt the current upward movement of the economy.

Addressing the autumn meeting of the business council, composed of heads of some of the nation's biggest firms, Dillon said sound economic growth and full employment would not be achieved without the cooperation of business and labor.

He said the "test" in 1962 would be "whether the surge of recovery will continue toward full employment or whether a revival of creeping inflation will hamper our efforts to use the full potential of the economy."

Heller urged big business to hold the price line and said any wage boosts—and fringe benefits—sought by unions should be tied to productivity.

Heller also said it was encouraging that big steel had not raised prices since the President appealed to them to hold the line despite a wage increase for their workers. But he declined to say

Bones Of Five Babies Found In Basement

GREENCASTLE, Ind. (AP) — The bones of five babies were discovered Thursday night and Friday in the basement of a shabby home.

Police, unable to give any immediate explanation of the grisly find, planned to dig further in the refuse and dirt under the single-story unpainted dwelling.

Authorities started to trace several families who had lived in the house in recent years. Remains of the infants were sent to the state police laboratory in Indianapolis for detailed examination.

Jack Lewallen, a construction worker who moved into the house seven months ago, reported finding the first skeleton Thursday night while cleaning up the dirt floor cellar.

The bones, wrapped in soiled rags, had been thrust into a small opening between the building foundation and the floor above.

Police conducted a further search Friday and turned up four more skeletons--one in a metal box, another in suitcase and two more in piles of trash. Two other skeletons turned out to be bones of a dog and a cat.

Coroner John Whitaker said it appeared the remains were several years old, but they were too decomposed to determine immediately the cause of death.

Police Chief Roy Newgent said the skeletons looked to him like the remains of full-term infants and not the results of abortions.

The house, some of its windows broken, is situated near the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks south of the DePauw University campus.

It is owned by Mary Moore, a spinster in her 90s who is now an invalid in a nursing home near Greencastle.

Miss Moore moved into the house in 1917, and the dwelling was occupied in the early 1930s by her brother, Joe Moore, and his family of three daughters and a son.

Earthquakes Jolt So. California

French Police Halt Algerians In Attempt To March On Paris

PARIS (UPI) — French police in bullet-proof vests arrested hundreds of Moslem Algerian woman and children Friday to block a huge demonstration in which Moslem men planned to use them as living shields.

Police mobilized 11,000 men to guard Paris against the threatened demonstrations. It was the biggest turnout since Moslem Algerians living in the Paris area began a series of after dark riots and demonstrations Tuesday.

Police said that by late Friday they had detained 513 women and 118 children and prevented their massing in the heart of the capital. They were taken to social centers and other reception halls and cared for by the Red Cross.

Paris Police Prefect Maurice Paupon said he had received word the Moslems planned to turn out in force Friday night behind a protective wall of women and children—a favorite tactic of the rebel National Liberation Front (FLN) in Algeria.

On top of the Algerian demonstrations, police faced a new outbreak of night bomb attacks by right - wing supporters of the "French Algeria" cause. Three plastic charges exploded in the early hours, damaging the home of a lawyer and two shoe stores.

Diplomatic quarters feared the bitterness caused by Algerian-police clashes in Paris had shoved the prospect of renewed peace talks with the rebels farther into the background.

(The Algerian rebel government-in-exile charged in Tunis Friday that more than 50 Algerians were killed and hundreds injured in Paris rioting this week. An official communique said several of the dead were women. French police put the death toll at five Algerians and one French onlooker.

(The FLN also said "several hundred have disappeared" and said police suppressed the Paris demonstrations with "savage brutality." The communique ended by appealing for the resumption of peace negotiations between France and the Algerian rebels.)

23 Inches Snow Snarls Traffic In W. Virginia

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Unexpected, moisture-laden snow in depths of up to 23 inches snarled highway and air traffic, closed schools and disrupted telephone and power services in West Virginia Friday.

State Police said at Beckley that snow reached depths of 23 inches at Richwood in the central West Virginia mountains; and that it would be Saturday before power service there and at Summerville could be restored.

Most highways were blocked and—as in dozens of Southeastern West Virginia communities—trees were down in great numbers. Some of them fell across highways, Company D headquarters of the State Police said.

Nine inches of snow were reported at Flat Top in Mercer County's mountains and other measurements included eight inches at Bluefield, in the state's southeastern corner; four at Beckley and two at Charleston.

Both Richwood (pop. 4,100) and Summerville (2,000) were without water Friday night. Municipal authorities shut off domestic supplies to protect against the possible outbreak of fire.

Both of those Nicholas County communities also had locally-declared states of emergency and curfews in effect. The Summersville curfew was effective about 5 p. m., with volunteer firemen helping police enforce it.

Mayor William Bryant said that the Summersville water system was shut down when the supply on hand reached 100,000 gallons. He unofficially estimated the snow's depth at 18 inches in town and up to two feet outside.

Mayor Merle White said at

Rayburn's Condition Remains Same

Seventeen Paratroopers Hospitalized

FT. JACKSON, S.C. (AP) — A practice airborne assault into the rugged range country of the Ft. Jackson military reservation sent 17 paratroopers to a hospital Friday.

Five troopers received broken bones, two suffered concussions and 10 were hospitalized with various sprains, bruises and lacerations. Army spokesmen said none was seriously hurt.

Military authorities said 1,200 troopers jumped and that the casualty list was rather high, based on the normal airborne expectation of less than one per cent injured.

The parachute assault, dubbed Operation Apache, was made by the 2nd Battle Group, 501st Infantry, 82nd Airborne Division, stationed at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Bloody Riots Break Out In Ciudad Trujillo

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Police using semiautomatic rifles, water hoses and tear gas attacked rioting youths Friday in the bloodiest street fighting here since the assassination of Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo May 30.

Steel-helmeted police moved into a downtown section of this capital to disperse youths roaming the streets armed with rocks and pieces of metal.

Several policemen were hurt in the area Thursday night when youths rained down a shower of sticks and stones on them from rooftops.

It could not be immediately determined how many casualties occurred in the latest clash but police led away eight persons streaming blood from what appeared to be head wounds.

Among the wounded was a woman with a child in her arms. Both were bleeding from head injuries.

Irate British Pub Keeper Tells Mr. K He's A Charlie

LONDON (AP)—An irate British pub keeper got through to Moscow by telephone Friday and told Soviet Premier Khrushchev he's a Charlie.

At least, he gave the message to a man claiming to be the Soviet premier's personal interpreter — and the publican, Tim Healey, trusts that Khrushchev got the word.

Charlie is British slang for fool.

Tim decided to straighten out Khrushchev after listening for hours Thursday night to doleful talk in the bar about the Soviet Union's 50-megaton H-bomb. Things like, what is all that fallout going to do to the children's milk, not to mention a man's beer?

"Someone ought to tell that bloke Khrushchev what's what," Healey said. And then, thoughtfully, "Well, why not me?"

So after closing the bar and sweeping up and washing he glasses and such, Tim reached for the blower and put in a personal call to Moscow. Blower is British slang for telephone.

It was then 1 a.m. and it took Tim 5 hours and 40 minutes to reach Khrushchev's residence.

"Could I speak to Mr. Khrushchev, please?" asked Tim.

"I am the Soviet premier's personal interpreter," said the voice at the other end.

"I want to speak to Nikita."

"Comrade Nikita does not speak English."

"Well, after all the trouble I've had getting his house on the phone the least he can do is say good morning!" said Tim.

"That is not possible."

"All right, then, my compliments to Comrade Khrushchev and tell him if he lets that bomb off, he's a Charlie."

There was a shocked silence.

"We must terminate this conversation," said the Moscow voice and bang went the phone.

Commies May Expel Four Old Leaders

Albania Target For Indicating National Stand

East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht also got in some shots at his favorite target, West Germany, assailing it as "the main seat of war danger" and reiterating Communist demands for an all-German peace treaty.

Major targets of the session's parade of speakers were the top conspirators in the 1957 plot to unseat Premier Khrushchev--former Premier and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, former Premier Georgi M. Malenkov, ex-Deputy Premier Lazar M. Kaganovich and former President Klementi Y. Voroshilov.

The old Bolsheviks have been forced into relative obscurity but the tone of the denunciations suggested worse times may be ahead for them.

Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan declared that "during the (Stalinist) period of the cult of personality, those people would have been liquidated by means they well know."

"We liquidated their ideology," Mikoyan said. "We did not liquidate them physically. This was in conformity with Leninist principles."

Rift Appears

Mikoyan and other speakers also lashed out at Albanian party leader Enver Hoxha--accused by Khrushchev as practicing Stalinist repressions, but defended by Red China's Chou En-lai as a brother, in an ideological rift opened up at the congress.

Chou and Khrushchev indicated to congress delegates that the dispute had not affected their personal relations. Following an intermission the two strolled together to the rostrum and witnesses said they were talking amiably.

(In Belgrade, Yugoslavia) the official Yugoslav news agency Tanjug charged that Chou used "inventions and fabrications" in an attack on Yugoslavia. The agency quoted part of Chou's address to the Soviet party congress Thursday in which he reportedly said public, one-sided denunciations of any fraternal party (Albania) "do not help unity and do not contribute to settlement of the problem." Tanjug said "such an attitude on the one-sided denunciations did not prevent Chou En-lai from speaking most slanderously against the Yugoslav union of Communists."

(Tanjug also reported the Albanian Communist party Central

Gerda Touches New England

BOSTON (AP) —Tropical Storm Gerda boiled along off New England and headed toward Nova Scotia Friday night, leaving only minor coastal damage in her wake.

The Weather Bureau said the storm was centered about 200 miles off Provincetown at mid-afternoon, taking a more north-easterly course.

The storm swept close to Texas tower Bravo, 150 miles east of Cape Cod, where wind gusts of 75 miles per hour--hurricane force--were reported.

The Weather Bureau said highest winds near the center of the storm were 65 m.p.h. with gusts to 70 m.p.h.

The winds drove high tides above normal marks along New England and in some areas heavy surf smashed the shores.

Damage was reported minor. In Plymouth, Mass., three small boats were sunk and two others damaged when the waves drove them on the rocky shore.

The storm brought rain and high winds to most of New England.

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—Unexpected, moisture-laden snow in depths of up to 23 inches snarled highway and air traffic, closed schools and disrupted telephone and power services in West Virginia Friday.

State Police said at Beckley that snow reached depths of 23 inches at Richwood in the central West Virginia mountains; and that it would be Saturday before power service there and at Summerville could be restored.

Most highways were blocked and—as in dozens of Southeastern West Virginia communities—trees were down in great numbers. Some of them fell across highways, Company D headquarters of the State Police said.

Nine inches of snow were reported at Flat Top in Mercer County's mountains and other measurements included eight inches at Bluefield, in the state's southeastern corner; four at Beckley and two at Charleston.

Both Richwood (pop. 4,100) and Summerville (2,000) were without water Friday night. Municipal authorities shut off domestic supplies to protect against the possible outbreak of fire.

Both of those Nicholas County communities also had locally-declared states of emergency and curfews in effect. The Summersville curfew was effective about 5 p. m., with volunteer firemen helping police enforce it.

Mayor William Bryant said that the Summersville water system was shut down when the supply on hand reached 100,000 gallons. He unofficially estimated the snow's depth at 18 inches in town and up to two feet outside.

Rayburn's Condition Remains Same

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—The condition of House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 79, remained unchanged Friday, his doctors said. They reported he is comfortable.

Seventeen Paratroopers Hospitalized

FT. JACKSON, S.C. (AP) — A practice airborne assault into the rugged range country of the Ft. Jackson military reservation sent 17 paratroopers to a hospital Friday.

Five troopers received broken bones, two suffered concussions and 10 were hospitalized with various sprains, bruises and lacerations. Army spokesmen said none was seriously hurt.

Military authorities said 1,200 troopers jumped and that the casualty list was rather high, based on the normal airborne expectation of less than one per cent injured.

The parachute assault, dubbed Operation Apache, was made by the 2nd Battle Group, 501st Infantry, 82nd Airborne Division, stationed at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

Irate British Pub Keeper Tells Mr. K He's A Charlie

LONDON (AP)—An irate British pub keeper got through to Moscow by telephone Friday and told Soviet Premier Khrushchev he's a Charlie.

At least, he gave the message to a man claiming to be the Soviet premier's personal interpreter — and the publican, Tim Healey, trusts that Khrushchev got the word.

Charlie is British slang for fool.

Tim decided to straighten out Khrushchev after listening for hours Thursday night to doleful talk in the bar about the Soviet Union's 50-megaton H-bomb. Things like, what is all that fallout going to do to the children's milk, not to mention a man's beer?

"Someone ought to tell that bloke Khrushchev what's what," Healey said. And then, thoughtfully, "Well, why not me?"

So after closing the bar and sweeping up and washing he glasses and such, Tim reached for the blower and put in a personal call to Moscow. Blower is British slang for telephone.

It was then 1 a.m. and it took Tim 5 hours and 40 minutes to reach Khrushchev's residence.

"Could I speak to Mr. Khrushchev, please?" asked Tim.

"I am the Soviet premier's personal interpreter," said the voice at the other end.

"I want to speak to Nikita."

"Comrade Nikita does not speak English."

"Well, after all the trouble I've had getting his house on the phone the least he can do is say good morning!" said Tim.

"That is not possible."

"All right, then, my compliments to Comrade Khrushchev and tell him if he lets that bomb off, he's a Charlie."

There was a shocked silence.

"We must terminate this conversation," said the Moscow voice and bang went the phone.

Bloody Riots Break Out In Ciudad Trujillo

CIUDAD TRUJILLO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Police using semiautomatic rifles, water hoses and tear gas attacked rioting youths Friday in the bloodiest street fighting here since the assassination of Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo May 30.

Steel-helmeted police moved into a downtown section of this capital to disperse youths roaming the streets armed with rocks and pieces of metal.

Several policemen were hurt in the area Thursday night when youths rained down a shower of sticks and stones on them from rooftops.

It could not be immediately determined how many casualties occurred in the latest clash but police led away eight persons streaming blood from what appeared to be head wounds.

Among the wounded was a woman with a child in her arms. Both were bleeding from head injuries.

Commies May Expel Four Old Leaders

Albania Target For Indicating National Stand

East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht also got in some shots at his favorite target, West Germany, assailing it as "the main seat of war danger" and reiterating Communist demands for an all-German peace treaty.

Major targets of the session's parade of speakers were the top conspirators in the 1957 plot to unseat Premier Khrushchev--former Premier and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, former Premier Georgi M. Malenkov, ex-Deputy Premier Lazar M. Kaganovich and former President Klementi Y. Voroshilov.

The old Bolsheviks have been forced into relative obscurity but the tone of the denunciations suggested worse times may be ahead for them.

Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan declared that "during the (Stalinist) period of the cult of personality, those people would have been liquidated by means they well know."

"We liquidated their ideology," Mikoyan said. "We did not liquidate them physically. This was in conformity with Leninist principles."

Rift Appears

Mikoyan and other speakers also lashed out at Albanian party leader Enver Hoxha--accused by Khrushchev as practicing Stalinist repressions, but defended by Red China's Chou En-lai as a brother, in an ideological rift opened up at the congress.

Chou and Khrushchev indicated to congress delegates that the dispute had not affected their personal relations. Following an intermission the two strolled together to the rostrum and witnesses said they were talking amiably.

(In Belgrade, Yugoslavia) the official Yugoslav news agency Tanjug charged that Chou used "inventions and fabrications" in an attack on Yugoslavia. The agency quoted part of Chou's address to the Soviet party congress Thursday in which he reportedly said public, one-sided denunciations of any fraternal party (Albania) "do not help unity and do not contribute to settlement of the problem." Tanjug said "such an attitude on the one-sided denunciations did not prevent Chou En-lai from speaking most slanderously against the Yugoslav union of Communists."

(Tanjug also reported the Albanian Communist party Central

Gerda Touches New England

BOSTON (AP) —Tropical Storm Gerda boiled along off New England and headed toward Nova Scotia Friday night, leaving only minor coastal damage in her wake.

The Weather Bureau said the storm was centered about 200 miles off Provincetown at mid-afternoon, taking a more north-easterly course.

The storm swept close to Texas tower Bravo, 150 miles east of Cape Cod, where wind gusts of 75 miles per hour--hurricane force --were reported.

The Weather Bureau said highest winds near the center of the storm were 65 m.p.h. with gusts to 70 m.p.h.

The winds drove high tides above normal marks along New England and in some areas heavy surf smashed the shores.

Damage was reported minor. In Plymouth, Mass., three small boats were sunk and two others damaged when the waves drove them on the rocky shore.

The storm brought rain and high winds to most of New England.

Gov. To Attend Conference On Rail Problems

Heads Of Eastern States To Meet

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes will attend an Eastern governors' conference on railroad problems in New York City next Wednesday.

Tawes will join with governors of 15 other Eastern states and representatives of 28 railroad companies in a discussion of railroad problems.

The meeting was called by New Hampshire's Gov. Wesley Powell, chairman of the National Governors Conference.

The governor's office said Tawes was interested in learning about the railroad industry's problems as they affect Maryland and Maryland's port.

Accompanying the governor to the conference will be Russell H. McCain, an executive assistant; Joseph L. Stanton, executive director of the Maryland Port Authority, and Gregory Halpin, director of public relations for the port authority.

Railroad officials attending will include Jervis Langdon Jr., president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; W. Arthur Grotz, president of the Western Maryland Railway, and representatives of the Norfolk and Western, New York Central, Chesapeake and Ohio and other lines.

W. Va. Snow Comes Early This Year

Heart Specialists Offer Varied Clues To Cause Of Cardiovascular Diseases

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Heart specialists talked about monks, twins, Yemenite Israelis, harried doctors and lawyers, and cigarette smokers.

From studying all these people, they said they think they have stronger clues to some causes of heart disease and heart attacks, the greatest killers of Americans.

The clues involved food, stressful jobs, smoking and heredity, they said in reports Friday to the American Heart Association.

Trappist monks do not eat meat, fish or fowl. They have only one-fifth as much heart disease as Benedictine monks who eat an average American diet, said Dr. J. Gordon Barrow and colleagues of the Georgia Department of Public Health in Atlanta.

They have been studying about 2,000 monks in 25 monasteries in this country and Canada since 1957.

The Trappists get less fat in their food. They have had fewer heart attacks and generally have lower amounts of cholesterol in their blood. Cholesterol is a fatty material suspected of involvement in clogging the heart and other arteries.

Barrow said more study is needed before the higher heart risk among Benedictines is attributed only to diet. Differences in stresses and exercise may be involved.

Yemenite Jews, transplanted to Israel 12 years ago, are almost entirely free of heart disease, while middle-aged European Jews living in Israel are quite susceptible, said Dr. Daniel Bruner of Tel Aviv.

The Yemenites differ in body build and eat a different diet, foregoing milk, cheese, butter or margarine on bread and eating meat only once a week.

Heredity was implicated in a study of twins by Dr. John McDonough of Claxton, Ga.

He and associates found much less variation in blood cholesterol in pairs of identical twins than in fraternal twins. Identical twins presumably share identical heredity, while fraternal twins do not. This suggests heredity plays a role in variations in cholesterol at different ages.

Job stresses seem to be involved also, said Dr. Henry I. Russek of Staten Island, N.Y.

Lawyers in general practice had two to three times more heart disease than patent lawyers or trial lawyers. And the lawyers arguing cases in court had about double the rate of those engaged mainly in office work.

Russek said persons under heavy stress may tend to smoke more, and that they have a higher rate of heart disease than nonsmokers. Those who had quit smoking had a lower rate than smokers, even if in harried jobs, and perhaps they had found ways of adapting better to stress, he suggested.

A continuing study of more than 4,000 men in Albany, N.Y., and Framingham, Mass., finds cigarette smokers running triple the rate of heart attacks and death than nonsmokers, or pipe and cigar smokers, said Dr. Joseph T. Doyle of Albany Medical College.

Richwood that a curfew to be put into effect 10 p. m. EST, would keep everyone "except those who just have to be out" off the streets.

The snow moved in Thursday night and early Friday on the Heels of a cold front from the West and North.

It was a heavy, white mass that snapped telephone and power lines, broke limbs off trees still wearing autumn foliage, slicked up highways, cut airport visibility, and generally made things uncomfortable.

Rising temperatures and rain put the finishing touches to the discomfort. But from the viewpoint of some youngsters it wasn't so bad. Schools were closed in parts of the storm zone. There were no lights and in some cases school hearing units were cut ff by the lack of power.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. and the Appalachian Power Co. hurriedly called out repair crews and brought in workers from other areas in the fight to restore service.

Head Of Pipe Organ Firm, Age 59, Dies

HAGERSTOWN (AP)—Mathias P. Moller Jr., president of a nationally known pipe organ manufacturing company, died at a hospital here Friday after a long illness. He was 59.

Moller's company, M. P. Moller, Inc., was founded by his father. Moller also was president of the Hagerstown Trust Co. and a director of the Potomac Edison Co. and the Remington Book Co. of Baltimore.

Moller, an active lay church leader, was a member of the Board of Foreign Missions of the United Lutheran Church of America, and the National Council of Churches of Christ.

He was a trustee of Susquehanna University, Gettysburg Theological Seminary, Pa., and the Lloydsville Orphanage at Lloydsville, Pa.

Funeral services will be held Monday in Hagerstown.

Survivors include Moller's widow, the former Hilda Mackenzie; his mother; two sons, Kevin M. Moller of Hagerstown and Mathias P. Moller III, of New York, and three sisters, Mrs. John Wagaman, Mrs. Mary M. Hanson and Mrs. W. Reiley Daniels, all of Hagerstown.

Roger Blough, board chairman of U.S. Steel Corp., biggest of the steel companies, was asked at a news conference to say whether he thought big steel had held off because of the President. He replied: "I wouldn't be in a position to appraise that."

But Blough did say that the Kennedy administration, in its price stability campaign, was keeping in mind the importance of cost stability. He said there are "more and more people in Washington who are understanding the necessities of staying in business."

Accuses Albania

Mikoyan accused the Albanian leadership of "departing from the internationalist (Communist) positions and sliding to national positions." This was the same charge that led to the expulsion of President Tito's Yugoslavia from the Cominform in 1948.

Ulbricht in his attack on the Bonn government said West Germany "may become another Sarajevo." He referred to the Yugoslav (Serbian) city where Archduke Francis Ferdinand, Austrian heir apparent, was assassinated on June 28, 1914, touching off World War I.

Malenkov and Kaganovich were alleged to have been directly responsible for some of the executions under N. I. Yeshov, bloodiest of the purgers. Nikolai Podgorny, first secretary of the Ukraine, said Kagnovich's years of party rule in the Ukraine were "black days."

Store Clerk Gets 3 Years

CAMBRIDGE (AP — George Cornish Jr., 30, a former employe of the Sears Roebuck Co. store here, was sentenced to three years in prison Friday on a charge of having robbed the store of more than $2,400 in tires and auto batteries over a 12-month period.

Chief Judge W. Laird Henry of Dorchester County Circuit Court also imposed a $500 fine. Prosecutors charged Cornish pilfered the goods by opening the store at night, often allowing acquaintances to bring their cars into the building to have the equipment attached.

Last spring, 37 warrants were issued gainst persons charged with receiving stolen goods from the Sears store. All were fined and ordered to make restitution to the store.

Soviet Claims Ten Million Red Members

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union's Communist party has a membership of 9,716,000, an increase of 2.5 million in the last five years, the government news agency Tass reported Friday.

Tass said out of 296,000 party organizations in the country, more than 75,000 units are in industry, construction, communication and the transport services.

There are 4,408 delegates elected to attend the 22nd party congress who have a vote, and 405 others "with a voice but no vote," Tass said. Women delegates number 1,073, it added.

Tass said nearly 73 per cent of the delegates have a secondary education or better.

Among the delegates elected to the congress are 42 "old Bolsheviks" who joined the Communist party before the October 1917 revolution, Tass said.

Gov. To Attend Conference On Rail Problems

Heads Of Eastern States To Meet

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Gov. Tawes will attend an Eastern governors' conference on railroad problems in New York City next Wednesday.

Tawes will join with governors of 15 other Eastern states and representatives of 28 railroad companies in a discussion of railroad problems.

The meeting was called by New Hampshire's Gov. Wesley Powell, chairman of the National Governors Conference.

The governor's office said Tawes was interested in learning about the railroad industry's problems as they affect Maryland and Maryland's port.

Accompanying the governor to the conference will be Russell H. McCain, an executive assistant; Joseph L. Stanton, executive director of the Maryland Port Authority, and Gregory Halpin, director of public relations for the port authority.

Railroad officials attending will include Jervis Langdon Jr., president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; W. Arthur Grotz, president of the Western Maryland Railway, and representatives of the Norfolk and Western, New York Central, Chesapeake and Ohio and other lines.

Miami Churches Expand To Care For Worshiping Needs Of Cuban Refugees

By THEODORE A. EDIGER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Much of Cuba's religious life, restricted under the Fidel Castro regime, is being "exported" to Miami.

With nearly 60,000 Cubans here and nearly 1,500 others coming weekly, churches are expanding to care for their worshiping needs. Refugees can attend services in Spanish in Roman Catholic, Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal, Presbyterian and other churches.

Thirty-five Spanish-speaking priests work full time in the Miami area's 35 Catholic churches.

At the downtown Gesu Church, traditionally popular among Cubans, three masses have just been added because of increased refugee attendance. There are 10 now, between 5 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., well attended.

"People fleeing from Castro's Cuba, not having anything, suddenly realize how important religion and prayer is," said Msgr. John J. Fitzpatrick, formerly of Albany, N.Y., director of the Spanish-language program. "At first everything is strange for the refugees. So they grab on to the first thing familiar—their religion."

Miami Catholic school attendance has increased nearly 20 per cent this fall, with 3,500 Cubans enrolled.

The widely known Belen High School operated for longer than a century by the Jesuits in Havana is literally being moved to Miami. Closed after the April 17 invasion of Cuba, which brought harsh suppression measures, the school is erecting a new building here, to be ready the second semester.

Three other Catholic schools also are being built, primarily for Cubans.

At the Catholic Spanish Center refugees have at their disposal English classes, a traffic school, nurseries, medical clinic, food and clothing dispensaries, employment help, and other facilities.

The Methodists this fall have added Cuban refugee associate pastors in five churches. This makes nine churches with Spanish-language services.

"'Return to Cuba with Christ,' is our theme," said the Rev. Ornan Iglesias, a recent refugee from Matanzas, Cuba, who conducts Spanish-language activities at the White Temple Methodist Church.

In charge of the Methodist Spanish program is Dr. George A. Foster formerly of Andalusia, Ala.

Baptists estimate they reach 3,000 Spanish-speaking persons, including Puerto Ricans and others as well as Cubans.

There are three Spanish-language Baptist congregations in Miami, with two more in the planning stage.

Miami's first Episcopal Spanish congregation has just been organized at Holy Cross Church, with 100 families participating. The plan is to build a separate Spanish-language church, said the Rev. Maximiliano Salvador Jr., a recent refugee from Camaguey, who has charge of the program.

A Presbyterian Spanish-language church, begun years ago to serve Puerto Ricans, is enlarging facilities for the Cuban influx.

Also working with the Cubans are Lutheran, Christian Reformed, Church of God, Assembly of God, Quaker, Seventh Day Adventist, Nazarene, Pentecostal and other congregations.

When I Talk To God...

When I talk to God I'm sure He listens. I'm too young to realize there is such a thing as a skeptic.

I admire the convictions of my Mother and Father. They have shown me by their example that they live what they believe.

Because I've learned to trust and depend on those who love me, I haven't any silly illusion of self-sufficiency. It makes sense to trust and depend on God.

I'm proud and happy that I'm a Christian—so I'm not afraid someone might laugh at me for believing the Truth.

But, of course, my faith is no accident. I'm in Church every Sunday to worship God. Religious training is a major part of my education. I'm one of the millions of Christian youngsters who are the hope of this frightened world.

And when I talk to God, I don't just talk to Him about ME. I talk to Him about YOU!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Miami Churches Expand To Care For Worshiping Needs Of Cuban Refugees

By THEODORE A. EDIGER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Much of Cuba's religious life, restricted under the Fidel Castro regime, is being "exported" to Miami.

With nearly 60,000 Cubans here and nearly 1,500 others coming weekly, churches are expanding to care for their worshiping needs. Refugees can attend services in Spanish in Roman Catholic, Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal, Presbyterian and other churches.

Thirty-five Spanish-speaking priests work full time in the Miami area's 35 Catholic churches.

At the downtown Gesu Church, traditionally popular among Cubans, three masses have just been added because of increased refugee attendance. There are 10 now, between 5 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., well attended.

"People fleeing from Castro's Cuba, not having anything, suddenly realize how important religion and prayer is," said Msgr. John J. Fitzpatrick, formerly of Albany, N.Y., director of the Spanish-language program. "At first everything is strange for the refugees. So they grab on to the first thing familiar—their religion."

Miami Catholic school attendance has increased nearly 20 per cent this fall, with 3,500 Cubans enrolled.

The widely known Belen High School operated for longer than a century by the Jesuits in Havana is literally being moved to Miami. Closed after the April 17 invasion of Cuba, which brought harsh suppression measures, the school is erecting a new building here, to be ready the second semester.

Three other Catholic schools also are being built, primarily for Cubans.

At the Catholic Spanish Center refugees have at their disposal English classes, a traffic school, nurseries, medical clinic, food and clothing dispensaries, employment help, and other facilities.

The Methodists this fall have added Cuban refugee associate pastors in five churches. This makes nine churches with Spanish-language services.

"'Return to Cuba with Christ,' is our theme," said the Rev. Ornan Iglesias, a recent refugee from Matanzas, Cuba, who conducts Spanish-language activities at the White Temple Methodist Church.

In charge of the Methodist Spanish program is Dr. George A. Foster formerly of Andalusia, Ala.

Baptists estimate they reach 3,000 Spanish-speaking persons, including Puerto Ricans and others as well as Cubans.

There are three Spanish-language Baptist congregations in Miami, with two more in the planning stage.

Miami's first Episcopal Spanish congregation has just been organized at Holy Cross Church, with 100 families participating. The plan is to build a separate Spanish-language church, said the Rev. Maximiliano Salvador Jr., a recent refugee from Camaguey, who has charge of the program.

A Presbyterian Spanish-language church, begun years ago to serve Puerto Ricans, is enlarging facilities for the Cuban influx.

Also working with the Cubans are Lutheran, Christian Reformed, Church of God, Assembly of God, Quaker, Seventh Day Adventist, Nazarene, Pentecostal and other congregations.

When I Talk To God...

When I talk to God I'm sure He listens. I'm too young to realize there is such a thing as a skeptic.

I admire the convictions of my Mother and Father. They have shown me by their example that they live what they believe.

Because I've learned to trust and depend on those who love me, I haven't any silly illusion of self-sufficiency. It makes sense to trust and depend on God.

I'm proud and happy that I'm a Christian—so I'm not afraid someone might laugh at me for believing the Truth.

But, of course, my faith is no accident. I'm in Church every Sunday to worship God. Religious training is a major part of my education. I'm one of the millions of Christian youngsters who are the hope of this frightened world.

And when I talk to God, I don't just talk to Him about ME. I talk to Him about YOU!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

AAUW To Fete Teachers During Education Week

A tea honoring area teachers will be given by the Cumberland Branch, American Association of University Women, on November 5 as its way of celebrating National Education Week, November 5-11.

It will be held at the home of Mrs. William Frailey, 830 Buckingham Road, from 3 until 5 o'clock.

Dr. Lillian C. Compton, Mrs. John Thomas, Mrs. William Van Newkirk, Mrs. John Hafer, Mrs. John Cupler II, Mrs. Richard Winer, Mrs. George Young, Mrs. Ralph Webster and Miss Mary Murray have been asked to pour and act as hostesses.

Mrs. J. M. Lutton is chairman of arrangements. Her committee consists of Miss Nan Livingstone and Miss Kathryn Laughlin, with the latter handling invitations.

Alpha Alpha, BSP Outlines Socials

A social calendar for Alpha Alpha Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi was outlined at the meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Jeanne Fradiska, LaVale. The social committee reported tentative plans for a chapter luncheon November 18, and a bowling party for members and their husbands December 2, to be followed by a hamburger fry. It was decided that this year the Christmas party will be to entertain husbands and will be in the form of a progressive dinner. A smorgasbord is planned for January. The entertainment following will be in line with the Monte Carlo there, with various games.

Tentative plans for a progressive dinner to honor the chapter pledge, Mrs. Hila Hines, were discussed. It will be October 29 at the homes of Mrs. Fradiska and Mrs. Mildred Russell, both in LaVale.

Following the opening ritual, Mrs. Fradiska conducted the business session, reported on the City Council meeting and led a discussion of the ritual dinner November 2. Routine reports were given. Mrs. Imogene Hixson, ways and means chairman, gave the results of the rummage sale. Announcement was made of the change of date of the inter-chapter buffet, which is to be held at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Frederick Street, November 15 instead of the eighth.

A cultural program was given by Mrs. Kathryn Samson, entitled "Six Pills, Prescription for Happiness." Others attending were Miss Judy Matt, Mrs. Beverly Bauer, Mrs. Phyllis Cooley, Mrs. Virginia Topper, Mrs. Betty Barnes, Mrs. Jane O'Rourke, Miss Betty Stegmaier, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Lee Schelble.

North End Club Plans Observance

Advancement of club Achievement Day one week because of Thanksgiving was announced at the meeting of the North Cumberland Homemakers Club Thursday at the Potomac Edison home office, Union Street. Mrs. May Orr presided.

The observance will be held November 16, with Mrs. Clara Williamson, delegate to the national convention, as speaker. It is to be a planned plate luncheon. Anyone wishing information may call Mrs. Margaret Brotemarkle. It will be held at Fairview Avenue Methodist Church, beginning at noon. Achievements will be exhibited and sold.

A Christmas party and turkey dinner will be held at Central YMCA, December 14. The dinner will be served at 6 p.m. Mrs. Katie Kilroy is chairman, with Mrs. Mae Alma Magherita assisting. Tentative plans were discussed for a Christmas decorations workshop. Those interested are to call Mrs. Raymond Burkey. Members were reminded of County Achievement Day November 9 at the Ali Ghan Country Club.

Preceding the business session a demonstration on baking Christmas cookies was conducted by Mrs. Elizabeth Tate and Mrs. Joy Biggs. They also showed a film on proper lighting in the home. The birthday of Mrs. Kilroy was observed. Forty members attended.

Friends Aware Receive Reports

Reports featured the meeting of Friends Aware of Handicapped Children, conducted by Mrs. Blanche Lueck at the training center. Mrs. Dan McKenzie reported the UCT will purchase an electric sewing machine for the center. Mrs. Mary Devine and Mrs. Evelyn Hamilton were authorized to purchase an electric stove from proceeds of a rummage sale. Mrs. May Smith and Don Foley gave the teacher reports and were given permission to purchase textbooks. There also was a report on the trip to the circus, sponsored by the Lions Club.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Virginia Schilling and Mrs. Lueck. Others attending were Mrs. James Weakley, Mrs. Marcus Naughton, Mrs. Martin Rohman, Mrs. Edith McNabb, Mrs. Vivian Kamauf, Charles Statler, Mrs. Robert Bealky, Mrs. Clarabelle Kenney, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mrs. Georgia Sykes and Robert Bowman.

Auxiliary 628 Plans Party

Pride of 628, Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen Lodge 47 discussed its Christmas celebration at the meeting at Malta hall. It is to be in the form of a dinner December 14.

Concluding the brief business session, refreshments were served with Mrs. Martha Pittman and Mrs. Wreatha Phillips hostesses. Members from Auxiliary 176 were visitors.

Mothers To Hold White Elephant Sale

The DeMolay Mothers will meet Wednesday at 7:30 at the Masonic Temple. All mothers are requested to bring as many items as possible for the white elephant sale.

Those unable to attend may call Mrs. Ethel Laird, PA 4-4192 or Mrs. Blanche Ridgway, PA 2-4360, for articles to be collected.

FASHIONS FEATURING FURS — The Junior Woman's Civic Club's annual style show and card party, for its operating fund, will be held November 7, with fashions by Peskins. It will be at the Ali Ghan Country Club, beginning at 8 p.m. Stressing furs, the showing will include day time dresses, sports attire, suits, cocktail and party costumes. Among the models will be Mrs. Samuel Moses, left, who is wearing a gold brocade; Mrs. William E. Bruce, seated, blue and white silk floral print; and Mrs. Miles Thompson Jr., a red faille sheath. All are wearing mink stoles of different tones.

Associated Women Discuss Youth Program

Two committees were appointed and the Youth Power program was discussed at the luncheon meeting of the Associated Women of the Allegany County Farm Bureau, held yesterday at Nave's Dining Room.

Mrs. Roy Shryock Sr. presided and appointed Mrs. Charles Harvey chairman of the nominating committee, with Mrs. Arthur Blubaugh and Mrs. Joseph Pollock assisting. They are to select directors. The election will be November 7 at North Branch fire hall.

A memorial committee also was named. It consists of Mrs. Edgar Motthews, Mrs. Vernon Mrs. John D. Young, state president was guest speaker. She suggested joint meetings of the Associated Women with the Farm Bureau at intervals throughout the year. She also discussed Farm Bureau families.

The nationwide Youth Power program and planning groups were discussed by E. Rankin Lusby, information director of the Maryland Farm Bureau, He explained that the former is an educational program on food for teenage fitness and the "farm to table story". Mrs. Theodore Stegmaier and Mrs. Matthews were appointed to work with him on balanced diet, through schools and clubs.

Manhattan Temple 8, Pythian Sisters, will hold a games party at 7:30 tonight in the basement of Junior Order hall.

Barbershop Quartet Concert Tonight

A musical program will be presented under the sponsorship of the Woman's Civic Club tonight at 8 o'clock in Fort Hill High School auditorium. Proceeds are for the development of the Girl Scout Camp Tioga.

It will be given by four quartets and a chorus of the Oakland Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America. The quartets are the Mountainaires of Oakland; Unaccounted Four of Uniontown; Waynesmen of Waynesburg, Pa., and the Oriole Four of Baltimore. Following the intermission the program will resume with Cumberland's Best, "Let's Sing Together."

The Woman's Golf Association of the Cumberland Country Club will hold its annual fall dinner at 6:30 Tuesday at the club, at which time trophies are to be presented.

Opti-Mrs. Club Plans Christmas Celebration

The Opti-Mrs Club set the date for its Christmas party and distributed dance tickets at the meeting Wednesday evening at the Fort Cumberland Hotel.

Mrs. Harold Naughton conducted the meeting, which was opened with prayer by Mrs. Carl Amtower. Routine reports were given and Mrs. Hugh Funkhouser reported on the success of the dessert card party held at the home of Mrs. Naughton. December 8 was selected for the Christmas party for members only. It will be in the form of a dinner at the Ali Ghan Country Club. The club also voted a donation to County United Fund.

Tickets were distributed for the dance, which the Opti-Mrs. Club is co-sponsoring with the Optimist Club. It is to be held November 4 at the Ali Ghan Country Club. Proceeds are for the community and charitable projects of the club.

As the program, a demonstration of cosmetics was given under the direction of Mrs. Margaret E. Cameron. Mrs. Bernard Whitacre and Mrs. George R. Eyler were the models.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Whitacre, Mrs. Eyler and Mrs. Allen Staggers. They carried out the Halloween theme in the decorations, with a yellow, orange and black centerpiece. The favors were miniature pumpkins. The special prize was won by Mrs. James Honeycutt. Seventeen members attended. The next meeting will be November 15 at the Fort Cumberland.

Mountain District Luther League Halloween masquerade party will be held at 7:30 tonight at St. John's Lutheran Church.

Stops Newspapers

MUNICH, Germany (UPI)—Communist East Germany has stopped sending 43 provincial newspapers to the West, Radio Free Europe said.

Communist affairs experts used the newspapers as an aid in drawing a picture of the East German economy and farm conditions. Nine large daily newspapers and a dozen weeklies still are permitted to be sent out of the country, officials said.

Overload Fine Is Reduced

A trucker caught with an over weight load while hauling stone for the Martin Mountain Route 40 construction project this summer had his fine reduced slightly when he appealed a Trial Magistrates Court decision to Allegany County Circuit Court.

Frank D. Delsignore, Davis, W. Va., had been fined by Magistrate Paul C. Barnett $670 for being 14,605 pounds overloaded when his rig was checked by a State Roads Commission weighing crew on August 7.

The crew, headed by John J. Develin, weighed Delsignore at the top of Martin Mountain.

John Robb, attorney for Delsignore, pointed to the discrepancy in scales used at the quarry where his client picked up his load to those of the SRC.

It was pointed out that the quarry scales had to be re-set after the SRC crew noticed a discrepancy.

Robb pointed out that truckers face a "confused situation" on overloading laws and their application.

Delsignore entered a plea of not guilty but Judge Cobey found him guilty and reduced the Magistrate Court fine from $670 to $604.

Bel Air Home May Be Viewed Today

The first homes constructed at the Bel Air housing development on the Harry Barton farm at Triple Lakes off Route 220 will be opened for inspection tomorrow and Sunday.

One residence completed and furnished will be open as well as another which is partly finished.

The first has been built by Richard Pownall, Short Gap contractor, while the second is being undertaken by another local builder, Lester R. McGill.

Sewage and water will be furnished by a utility being formed by Walter N. Yoder and Sons Inc. of Pinto, according to the firm's attorney, William R. Carscaden.

The utility will operate under a contract with the Allegany Land Company Inc., a corporation formed to handle the development of the 390-acre tract.

Carscaden said Pinto Utilities Inc., as the Yoder sewage and water firm has been named, will file an application with the State Department of Assessment and Taxation on Monday.

The utility will then file petitions with the Maryland Public Service Commission for approval of franchise and rates.

The Walter N. Yoder firm has already received approval of the state Department of Geology, Mines and Water Resources to construct a waste stabilization lagoon on the Paul Yoder farm.

A hearing has been set by the same department on November 1 at 11 a. m. in Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, on the application for a permit to drill three 300-foot wells to furnish a minimum of 40,000 gallons of water and a maximum of 60,000 gallons daily.

The George F. Hazelwood Company is proceeding with the excavation of the lagoon, Carscaden said.

Another application has been filed with the State Health Department for permission to have a new point of sewage discharge into the Potomac River.

Robert H. Downing, vice president and local agent of Allegany Land Company, pointed out that before the effluent from the lagoon enters a stream and enroute to the river it is treated with neu-

The lagoon was engineered by John McNair and Associates of Huffman of Charlottesville, Va., did the interior engineering and layout of the development.

Porter Sample of the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory staff, a registered landscape architect, is under contract for that work, Downing said.

The Baughman Construction Company and Liller Brothers of Cresaptown are doing the road work. All water mains will be six-inch and fire hydrants will be placed by the utility. Sewage and water will be available within 90 days, Downing stated.

Downing said the purchase of homes may be financed locally. The lots run about three to an acre and there is room in the immediate development for 1,000 homes. The land company has already purchased or has under option other adjacent land.

Other local home builders at the development are Quentin Griffey and Lawrence H. Shafferman.

Charles Michael O'Donnell Jr., Meyersdale, and Janet Louise Kemp, Confluence, Pa.

Stops Newspapers

MUNICH, Germany (UPI)—Communist East Germany has stopped sending 43 provincial newspapers to the West, Radio Free Europe said.

Communist affairs experts used the newspapers as an aid in drawing a picture of the East German economy and farm conditions. Nine large daily newspapers and a dozen weeklies still are permitted to be sent out of the country, officials said.

Overload Fine Is Reduced

A trucker caught with an over weight load while hauling stone for the Martin Mountain Route 40 construction project this summer had his fine reduced slightly when he appealed a Trial Magistrates Court decision to Allegany County Circuit Court.

Frank D. Delsignore, Davis, W. Va., had been fined by Magistrate Paul C. Barnett $670 for being 14,605 pounds overloaded when his rig was checked by a State Roads Commission weighing crew on August 7.

The crew, headed by John J. Develin, weighed Delsignore at the top of Martin Mountain.

John Robb, attorney for Delsignore, pointed to the discrepancy in scales used at the quarry where his client picked up his load to those of the SRC.

It was pointed out that the quarry scales had to be re-set after the SRC crew noticed a discrepancy.

Robb pointed out that truckers face a "confused situation" on overloading laws and their application.

Delsignore entered a plea of not guilty but Judge Cobey found him guilty and reduced the Magistrate Court fine from $670 to $604.

Bel Air Home May Be Viewed Today

The first homes constructed at the Bel Air housing development on the Harry Barton farm at Triple Lakes off Route 220 will be opened for inspection tomorrow and Sunday.

One residence completed and furnished will be open as well as another which is partly finished.

The first has been built by Richard Pownall, Short Gap contractor, while the second is being undertaken by another local builder, Lester R. McGill.

Sewage and water will be furnished by a utility being formed by Walter N. Yoder and Sons Inc. of Pinto, according to the firm's attorney, William R. Carscaden.

The utility will operate under a contract with the Allegany Land Company Inc., a corporation formed to handle the development of the 390-acre tract.

Carscaden said Pinto Utilities Inc., as the Yoder sewage and water firm has been named, will file an application with the State Department of Assessment and Taxation on Monday.

The utility will then file petitions with the Maryland Public Service Commission for approval of franchise and rates.

The Walter N. Yoder firm has already received approval of the state Department of Geology, Mines and Water Resources to construct a waste stabilization lagoon on the Paul Yoder farm.

A hearing has been set by the same department on November 1 at 11 a. m. in Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, on the application for a permit to drill three 300-foot wells to furnish a minimum of 40,000 gallons of water and a maximum of 60,000 gallons daily.

The George F. Hazelwood Company is proceeding with the excavation of the lagoon, Carscaden said.

Another application has been filed with the State Health Department for permission to have a new point of sewage discharge into the Potomac River.

Robert H. Downing, vice president and local agent of Allegany Land Company, pointed out that before the effluent from the lagoon enters a stream and enroute to the river it is treated with neu-

The lagoon was engineered by John McNair and Associates of Huffman of Charlottesville, Va., did the interior engineering and layout of the development.

Porter Sample of the Allegany Ballistics Laboratory staff, a registered landscape architect, is under contract for that work, Downing said.

The Baughman Construction Company and Liller Brothers of Cresaptown are doing the road work. All water mains will be six-inch and fire hydrants will be placed by the utility. Sewage and water will be available within 90 days, Downing stated.

Downing said the purchase of homes may be financed locally. The lots run about three to an acre and there is room in the immediate development for 1,000 homes. The land company has already purchased or has under option other adjacent land.

Other local home builders at the development are Quentin Griffey and Lawrence H. Shafferman.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: In June I was in a car accident with three other teen-agers. It wasn't Fred's fault (he's my boy friend). A 72-year-old man came up on the wrong side of a hill with no lights and hit us head-on. It was a miracle that no one was seriously injured.

My mother has been very nervous since then and has refused to let me ride in a car with Fred. I'm almost 17 and Fred is 18. Mom and Dad drive us any place we want to go and pick us up.

Fred went along with this for quite a while but last night he said "No more chauffeuring." I'm afraid he'll stop dating me. Please help me, Ann, I'm miserable. — DOLLY

DEAR DOLLY: Most parents worry about teen-agers in cars and your mother's concern is of course intensified by the accident. But parents must realize that growing up and living involves risks. All any of us can do is exercise a reasonable amount of caution.

It is unfair to children when parental anxiety casts a shadow over their lives and hobbles them.

Ask your mother to go for a ride with Fred at the wheel. Perhaps when she sees that he is a careful driver she'll relax and allow you normal privileges.

DEAR ANN: My husband is a perfectly nice guy. He doesn't run around or have any bad habits. I think I'd gladly trade a bad habit for his one big fault.

He thinks he's a great story-teller. I want to crawl under the chair when he starts to tell his worn-out jokes. To begin with, he can't remember stories and he mixes up two or three in the telling. He forgets punch lines, butchers dialects and I'm sure he offends people. He stretches out the simplest story until you wonder if he's trying for a filibuster record.

I hate to see him make a fool of himself, and I've asked him to quit after one or two. But he says "People love it."

Frankly, I think the situation is hopeless. If you can give me some advice I'd be grateful.

—GRITTING TEETH

DEAR GRITTING: Welcome to The Club. One of the noblest sororities of all is the group of wives who sit silently — smiling, of course — while their husbands mutilate stories.

Just keep gritting your teeth, Old Girl — and see your dentist twice a year.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: When I was a small child my mother raised a beautiful flower called "the nicotine plant." It grew like a petunia but blossomed only at dusk and it had a lovely fragrance which scented the evening air.

I have searched for many years for this plant, but without success. I know your column is not a garden corner, but you do deal with all sorts of problems, and it seems your aim is to make people happy. I would certainly appreciate it if you could help me locate this plant. Or perhaps one of your readers will know it by another name. Thank You.

—HARRIETT

DEAR HARRIETT: I don't know a ham-hock from a hollyhock, but I'm printing your letter in the hope that someone who reads it can come to your rescue. Front and center flower lovers! And PLEASE, don't send me seeds, just the information.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teen-age Smoking," enclosing with your request 10c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Red Cross Seeks Large Room For Nursing Classes

Allegany County Chapter, American Red Cross, is in need of a large room for its home nursing classes, which would accommodate 20 to 25 persons, have light, heat and access to water, Mrs. Sara G. Lindsay said yesterday.

Anyone having such a room available to offer to the Red Cross rent free for its home nursing service, should contact the chapter office at the Post Office Building.

Faculties Ask Name Change For Colleges

TOWSON — The combined faculties of the five State Teachers Colleges of Bowie, Coppin, Frostburg, Salisbury, and Towson Thursday passed a motion by an overwhelming majority that the members of the Maryland Legislature be requested to introduce legislation at the next session that the colleges change their name from Teachers Colleges to State Colleges.

The instructors met at Towson STC for their annual conference and the resolution was made following group discussions held to consider points made in a speech on "The State Government in Public Higher Education," by Dr. Francis E. Rourke, political science professor at The Johns Hopkins University.

As Rourke pointed out, it is advisable to upgrade the state colleges to the level of the university, and this can be done by eliminating the double standard which exists in many states. He said that this double standard has arisen through the years as a result of teacher colleges having developed from normal schools and being still a part of the public school system.

On the basis of the findings of a study Dr. Rourke has made on behalf of the Ford Foundation, he indicated a nationwide trend toward the implementation of the third stage of the development, which is that of change from teacher colleges to state colleges with the independence necessary for their function as real institutions of higher education.

Local Teacher Heads State Committee

A member of the Allegany High School faculty has been elected chairman of work experience education teachers of the Maryland State Teachers Association.

Mrs. Lee Johnson, distributive education teacher at Allegany, was elected chairman of the Coordinators of Work Experience Education of the state association at a luncheon meeting yesterday at Marty's Park Plaza, Baltimore.

Others elected were Joseph Salvagio, of Patterson High School, Baltimore, vice chairman, and Mrs. Dorothy Bills, Richard Montgomery High, Rockville, secretary- treasurer.

The principal speaker at the luncheon was Earl J. Dodrill, director of distributive education in the Delaware school system.

decisions," Dr. Brain said.

The Baltimore educator included "lawyers unschooled in history and semantics, engineers unschooled in economics and atomic scientists untrained in politics" among the citizens he considered unable to cope with problems of the future.

"The people of Maryland want the schools to provide what the young people of this state need to live in today's complex and uncertain world . . . ," Dr. Brain said, adding:

"We must provide the proper balance between generalized and specialized knowledge if we are to make all youth into the effective citizens they must be."

Another afternoon speaker was Alistair Cooke, chief U. S. correspondent of the Manchester (England) Guardian.

CORE Plans Freedom Ride On Route 40

BALTIMORE (AP)—William C. Rogers, chairman of the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations, issued a statement Friday opposing a planned "Freedom Ride" along U. S. 40.

Earlier, a spokesman for the Congress of racial Equality (CORE) said approximately 350 CORE members would participate in such a ride Nov. 11.

Rogers said he felt the ride would only "create bitterness."

"I don't see what's to be gained by trying to force the issue," the chairman added.

"We know that we've got to have some kind of legislation, and it's got to be state-wide. Forcing the issue can only create bitterness."

Julius Hopkins, eastern representative of CORE, said the riders who will participate in the Nov. 11 demonstration will come from Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

The announcement came a day after Gov. J. Millard Tawes warned at a news conference at Annapolis that any effort to protest discrimination in restaurants along the highway would "hinder rather than assist" official moves to end segregation.

The governor said he did not take issue with the right of CORE to embark on such a program, but said "rash action" would counter efforts by state and federal officials to win open accommodations by moral suasion now or legislative action when the Maryland General Assembly next meets.

"My personal feeling is that unless we can get some kind of official statement that the move for legislation will be pushed, the ride will go on," Hobson said.

He referred to statewide equal accommodations legislation, which Gov. Tawes has agreed to support "in principle."

The Restaurant Association of Maryland pledged Thursday it "will do everything possible to actively support" a bill banning discrimination in restaurants and hotels. The group urged Gov. Tawes to call a special session of the Legislature to pass such a bill.

Hobson called the association's decision to support equal accommodations legislation "quite admirable."

But he made it clear that CORE felt it would take considerably more than nonofficial pressure to insure passage of such legislation.

Hobson said the Nov. 11 Freedom Ride was not planned to "antagonize the state of Maryland," but to dramatize the situation along U.S. 40.

He said the riders, traveling in about 150 cars, would set out simultaneously from the Delaware Memorial Bridge and from Baltimore. They will meet halfway.

Connecticut, New York and Pennsylvania chapters will begin at the bridge. The Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. chapters will start in Baltimore.

Hobson said five persons would be riding each car and that both whites and Negroes would take part.

Want to make your nose appear shorter? It's easy with the Powers Girls undercover make-up technique!

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

The "Undercover" Make-Up Methods

Maybe you like the way you look, and maybe you don't. If you don't why not start making the most of what you've got?

To use cosmetics for this purpose takes a lot of know-how, restraint and practice. But I know many a girl who has discovered that it's well worth the effort. You'd think so too if you had one of those noses that never takes a good pitcure no matter how you hold your head! An out-of-proportion nose is the source of much feminine unhappiness and self-consciousness.

That's why I think it's a good place for you to start learning what the Powers Girls call the "undercover" make-up methods.

You start with two shades of foundation, blend them together on your nose and then make this artifice completely unapparent under a cover of powder!

To marke a large, broad nose look smaller, apply to your nose a layer of foundation that is not more than two shades darker than the shade you use on the rest of your face, in this way: Smooth the foundation along the outer edge of the bridge on one side from the top to the tip; come down across your nostril; then, make a sharp turn upward until your finger joins the starting point; repeat the operation on the other side. Now, using your regular foundation, place a broad, flat layer of it down the center of the bridge of your nose; blend the two so skillfully that there is no line of demarcation; apply your regular foundation to the rest of your face. Powder your entire face generously and brush off the excess with the light downward strokes of a clean piece of cotton. Now, who's afraid of a big, bad nose?

Is your problem a long, thin nose? Then try this: When you have applied your regular foundation as usual to your entire face, run a broad flat line of darker foundation down the bridge of your nose. Blend the two well, and powder.

You'll be surprised at what you can cover up under the cover of a little skillfully applied make-up!

Local 26 Announces Change In Board

A change in the membership of the executive board of Local 26, United Rubber Workers Union, has been announced following a check of the vote tabulation by the local's election committee.

Spokesmen for the group said a review of the voting revealed James Horn was elected to the executive board by receiving 363 votes, instead of 303 as first reported.

The change displaces Albert (Ab) Jenkins, who received 303 votes, instead of the 363 for which he was first credited.

Local Man Gets Suspended Term

A Cumberland man was given a one-year suspended term in the House of Correction yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court after he entered a plea of guilty to non-support of his three children.

He was Melvin Leroy Dicken and Judge W. Earle Cobey told him he would go to prison in the event he did not support his children after obtaining a job promised him in Baltimore.

Court Probates Wills Of Three

Three wills have been admitted to probate in Allegany County Orphans Court.

One was the last testament of Mrs. Columbia A. Tasker, a 96-year-old Westernport resident, at the time of her death September 25. Her daughter, Mrs. Nina Esther Sutherland, Barton, qualified as executrix under a $1,000 bond.

The will provided a cash bequest to a great granddaughter, Marlene Jean Miller, and left the rest of the estate equally to two daughters, Mrs. Bura Myrtle Miller of Westernport, and Mrs. Sutherland. It was dated February 21, 1948.

Also probated was the will of Charles H. Little, who was an 88-year-old resident of RFD 2, Williams Road, when he died September 12. His daughter, Mrs. Grace Oliver Rexroad, RFD 2, Williams Road, qualified as executrix under a $500 bond. The estate was left equally to Mrs. Rexroad and her daughter, Teresa Rebecca Rexroad. The will was dated August 22, 1960.

The third will was that of Margaret Wilson, also known as Maggie Wilson, who died June 11. George Eichhorn, Lonaconing, her largest known creditor, qualified as administrator c.t.a. under a $500 bond. She provided that after all of her debts were paid that the remainder of her estate should be shared equally by Miners Hospital and the County Home. The will was dated July 30, 1960.

Five To Build On Sunset View

Building permits for five more new homes in the Sunset View development off Braddock Road were issued yesterday in the office of James G. Stevenson, clerk to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.

One of the permits was obtained by Carson Dowell, Braddock Road, for a 28 by 64-foot brick house which he proposes to build at 2 Forest Drive in Sunset View.

Another brick house will be built by Lashley Masonry Company, Clarysville, at 309 Sunset Drive. It will be 75 by 25 feet in size.

The other new houses in Sunset View will be of frame construction. William Hall, a Celanese employe, will build a 40 by 30-foot frame house there. Donald Templeton, who is employed at Allegany Ballistics Laboratory, got a permit to build a 44 by 28-foot frame dwelling. William Patterson, 104 Wills Creek Avenue, was issued a permit for a 28 by 44-foot frame house. It will be built at 209 Sunset Drive.

Man Fractures Arm In Fall From Roof

A 22-year-old local man who was working on a roof on Walnut Street fell 12 to 15 feet to the ground and fractured his right arm yesterday.

Samuel Lepley, 220 Decatur Street, was reported in "satisfactory" condition last night at Sacred Heart Hospital where he was admitted about 4 p.m.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: In June I was in a car accident with three other teen-agers. It wasn't Fred's fault (he's my boy friend). A 72-year-old man came up on the wrong side of a hill with no lights and hit us head-on. It was a miracle that no one was seriously injured.

My mother has been very nervous since then and has refused to let me ride in a car with Fred. I'm almost 17 and Fred is 18. Mom and Dad drive us any place we want to go and pick us up.

Fred went along with this for quite a while but last night he said "No more chauffeuring." I'm afraid he'll stop dating me. Please help me, Ann, I'm miserable. — DOLLY

DEAR DOLLY: Most parents worry about teen-agers in cars and your mother's concern is of course intensified by the accident. But parents must realize that growing up and living involves risks. All any of us can do is exercise a reasonable amount of caution.

It is unfair to children when parental anxiety casts a shadow over their lives and hobbles them.

Ask your mother to go for a ride with Fred at the wheel. Perhaps when she sees that he is a careful driver she'll relax and allow you normal privileges.

DEAR ANN: My husband is a perfectly nice guy. He doesn't run around or have any bad habits. I think I'd gladly trade a bad habit for his one big fault.

He thinks he's a great storyteller. I want to crawl under the chair when he starts to tell his worn-out jokes. To begin with, he can't remember stories and he mixes up two or three in the telling. He forgets punch lines, butchers dialects and I'm sure he offends people. He stretches out the simplest story until you wonder if he's trying for a filibuster record.

I hate to see him make a fool of himself, and I've asked him to quit after one or two. But he says "People love it."

Frankly, I think the situation is hopeless. If you can give me some advice I'd be grateful.

—GRITTING TEETH

DEAR GRITTING: Welcome to The Club. One of the noblest sororities of all is the group of wives who sit silently — smiling, of course — while their husbands mutilate stories.

Just keep gritting your teeth, Old Girl — and see your dentist twice a year.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: When I was a small child my mother raised a beautiful flower called "the nicotine plant." It grew like a petunia but blossomed only at dusk and it had a lovely fragrance which scented the evening air.

I have searched for many years for this plant, but without success. I know your column is not a garden corner, but you do deal with all sorts of problems, and it seems your aim is to make people happy. I would certainly appreciate it if you could help me locate this plant. Or perhaps one of your readers will know it by another name. Thank You.

—HARRIETT

DEAR HARRIETT: I don't know a ham-hock from a hollyhock, but I'm printing your letter in the hope that someone who reads it can come to your rescue. Front and center flower lovers! And PLEASE, don't send me seeds, just the information.

Are you tempted to smoke because the crowd does? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teen-age Smoking," enclosing with your request 10c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Red Cross Seeks Large Room For Nursing Classes

Allegany County Chapter, American Red Cross, is in need of a large room for its home nursing classes, which would accommodate 20 to 25 persons, have light, heat and access to water, Mrs. Sara G. Lindsay said yesterday.

Anyone having such a room available to offer to the Red Cross rent free for its home nursing service, should contact the chapter office at the Post Office Building.

Faculties Ask Name Change For Colleges

TOWSON — The combined faculties of the five State Teachers Colleges of Bowie, Coppin, Frostburg, Salisbury, and Towson Thursday passed a motion by an overwhelming majority that the members of the Maryland Legislature be requested to introduce legislation at the next session that the colleges change their name from Teachers Colleges to State Colleges.

The instructors met at Towson STC for their annual conference and the resolution was made following group discussions held to consider points made in a speech on "The State Government in Public Higher Education," by Dr. Francis E. Rourke, political science professor at The Johns Hopkins University.

As Rourke pointed out, it is advisable to upgrade the state colleges to the level of the university, and this can be done by eliminating the double standard which exists in many states. He said that this double standard has arisen through the years as a result of teacher colleges having developed from normal schools and being still a part of the public school system.

On the basis of the findings of a study Dr. Rourke has made on behalf of the Ford Foundation, he indicated a nationwide trend toward the implementation of the third stage of the development, which is that of change from teacher colleges to state colleges with the independence necessary for their function as real institutions of higher education.

Local Teacher Heads State Committee

A member of the Allegany High School faculty has been elected chairman of work experience education teachers of the Maryland State Teachers Association.

Mrs. Lee Johnson, distributive education teacher at Allegany, was elected chairman of the Coordinators of Work Experience Education of the state association at a luncheon meeting yesterday at Marty's Park Plaza, Baltimore.

Others elected were Joseph Salvagio, of Patterson High School, Baltimore, vice chairman, and Mrs. Dorothy Bills, Richard Montgomery High, Rockville, secretary- treasurer.

The principal speaker at the luncheon was Earl J. Dodrill, director of distributive education in the Delaware school system.

decisions," Dr. Brain said.

The Baltimore educator included "lawyers unschooled in history and semantics, engineers unschooled in economics and atomic scientists untrained in politics" among the citizens he considered unable to cope with problems of the future.

"The people of Maryland want the schools to provide what the young people of this state need to live in today's complex and uncertain world . . . ," Dr. Brain said, adding:

"We must provide the proper balance between generalized and specialized knowledge if we are to make all youth into the effective citizens they must be."

Another afternoon speaker was Alistair Cooke, chief U. S. correspondent of the Manchester (England) Guardian.

CORE Plans Freedom Ride On Route 40

BALTIMORE (AP)—William C. Rogers, chairman of the Maryland Commission on Interracial Problems and Relations, issued a statement Friday opposing a planned "Freedom Ride" along U. S. 40.

Earlier, a spokesman for the Congress of racial Equality (CORE) said approximately 350 CORE members would participate in such a ride Nov. 11.

Rogers said he felt the ride would only "create bitterness."

"I don't see what's to be gained by trying to force the issue," the chairman added.

"We know that we've got to have some kind of legislation, and it's got to be state-wide. Forcing the issue can only create bitterness."

Julius Hopkins, eastern representative of CORE, said the riders who will participate in the Nov. 11 demonstration will come from Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

The announcement came a day after Gov. J. Millard Tawes warned at a news conference at Annapolis that any effort to protest discrimination in restaurants along the highway would "hinder rather than assist" official moves to end segregation.

The governor said he did not take issue with the right of CORE to embark on such a program, but said "rash action" would counter efforts by state and federal officials to win open accommodations by moral suasion now or legislative action when the Maryland General Assembly next meets.

"My personal feeling is that unless we can get some kind of official statement that the move for legislation will be pushed, the ride will go on," Hobson said.

He referred to statewide equal accommodations legislation, which Gov. Tawes has agreed to support "in principle."

The Restaurant Association of Maryland pledged Thursday it "will do everything possible to actively support" a bill banning discrimination in restaurants and hotels. The group urged Gov. Tawes to call a special session of the Legislature to pass such a bill.

Hobson called the association's decision to support equal accommodations legislation "quite admirable."

But he made it clear that CORE felt it would take considerably more than nonofficial pressure to insure passage of such legislation.

Hobson said the Nov. 11 Freedom Ride was not planned to "antagonize the state of Maryland," but to dramatize the situation along U.S. 40.

He said the riders, traveling in about 150 cars, would set out simultaneously from the Delaware Memorial Bridge and from Baltimore. They will meet halfway.

Connecticut, New York and Pennsylvania chapters will begin at the bridge. The Maryland, Virginia and Washington, D.C. chapters will start in Baltimore.

Hobson said five persons would be riding each car and that both whites and Negroes would take part.

Want to make your nose appear shorter? It's easy with the Powers Girls undercover make-up technique!

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

The "Undercover" Make-Up Methods

Maybe you like the way you look, and maybe you don't. If you don't why not start making the most of what you've got?

To use cosmetics for this purpose takes a lot of know-how, restraint and practice. But I know many a girl who has discovered that it's well worth the effort. You'd think so too if you had one of those noses that never takes a good pitcure no matter how you hold your head! An out-of-proportion nose is the source of much feminine unhappiness and self-consciousness.

That's why I think it's a good place for you to start learning what the Powers Girls call the "undercover" make-up methods. You start with two shades of foundation, blend them together on your nose and then make this artifice completely unapparent under a cover of powder!

To marke a large, broad nose look smaller, apply to your nose a layer of foundation that is not more than two shades darker than the shade you use on the rest of your face, in this way: Smooth the foundation along the outer edge of the bridge on one side from the top to the tip; come down across your nostril; then, make a sharp turn upward until your finger joins the starting point; repeat the operation on the other side. Now, using your regular foundation, place a broad, flat layer of it down the center of the bridge of your nose; blend the two so skillfully that there is no line of demarcation; apply your regular foundation to the rest of your face. Powder your entire face generously and brush off the excess with the light downward strokes of a clean piece of cotton. Now, who's afraid of a big, bad nose?

Is your problem a long, thin nose? Then try this: When you have applied your regular foundation as usual to your entire face, run a broad flat line of darker foundation down the bridge of your nose. Blend the two well, and powder.

You'll be surprised at what you can cover up under the cover of a little skillfully applied make-up!

Local 26 Announces Change In Board

A change in the membership of the executive board of Local 26, United Rubber Workers Union, has been announced following a check of the vote tabulation by the local's election committee.

Spokesmen for the group said a review of the voting revealed James Horn was elected to the executive board by receiving 363 votes, instead of 303 as first reported.

The change displaces Albert (Ab) Jenkins, who received 303 votes, instead of the 363 for which he was first credited.

Court Probates Wills Of Three

Three wills have been admitted to probate in Allegany County Orphans Court.

One was the last testament of Mrs. Columbia A. Tasker, a 96-year-old Westernport resident, at the time of her death September 25. Her daughter, Mrs. Nina Esther Sutherland, Barton, qualified as executrix under a $1,000 bond.

The will provided a cash bequest to a great granddaughter, Marlene Jean Miller, and left the rest of the estate equally to two daughters, Mrs. Bura Myrtle Miller of Westernport, and Mrs. Sutherland. It was dated February 21, 1948.

Also probated was the will of Charles H. Little, who was an 88-year-old resident of RFD 2, Williams Road, when he died September 12. His daughter, Mrs. Grace Oliver Rexroad, RFD 2, Williams Road, qualified as executrix under a $500 bond. The estate was left equally to Mrs. Rexroad and her daughter, Teresa Rebecca Rexroad. The will was dated August 22, 1960.

The third will was that of Margaret Wilson, also known as Maggie Wilson, who died June 11. George Eichhorn, Lonaconing, her largest known creditor, qualified as administrator c.t.a. under a $500 bond. She provided that after all of her debts were paid that the remainder of her estate should be shared equally by Miners Hospital and the County Home. The will was dated July 30, 1960.

Newspaperboy Is Indispensable

We call to readers' attention the newspaperboy who delivers this paper to thousands of homes. Today is National Newspaperboy Day — and across the country carrier boys will be saluted for the part they play in getting the news to the public.

In every newspaper office the newspaperboy is recognized as an important link between the people who make the newspaper and those who read it.

Not important—indispensable. If the paper doesn't get to the subscriber, in good order and on time, it loses ground.

The newspaperboy is an independent business man. He buys at wholesale and sells at retail. He learns that he must collect his accounts if he is to come out ahead of the game. He also learns that to keep his customers he must keep them satisfied.

As for the financial rewards, they are substantial. Paper routes have put many boys on the road to leadership.

We are sure that many of the boys we salute today will be leaders tomorrow. And meanwhile we're proud to have them working with us in a worthwhile job.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

Church And State

After all the arguments about the separation of church and state, which means non-interference by one with the other, Congress passed Public Law 87-318 which reads:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That no priest, clergyman, rabbi, or other duly licensed, ordained, or consecrated minister of any religion authorized to perform a marriage ceremony in the District of Columbia or duly accredited practitioner of Christian Science shall be examined in any civil or criminal proceedings in the courts of the District of Columbia—

"(1) with respect to any confession, or communication, made to him, in his professional capacity in the course of discipline enjoined by the church or other religious body to which he belongs, without the consent of the person making such confession or communication, or

"(2) with respect to any communication made to him, in his professional capacity in the course of giving religious or spiritual advice, without the consent of the person seeking such advice, or

"(3) with respect to any communication made to him, in his professional capacity, by either spouse, in connection with any effort to reconcile estranged spouses, without the consent of the spouse making the communication."

I am not writing in criticism of the law, but the fact is that this is the protection of a religious rite by the state which is gainsaid by those who insist that the Constitution forbids any such relationship. This law is favorable to the Roman Catholic Church which specializes in private confession, although most churches have some form of public confession of sin. The Jews, for instance, do not practice private confession but they do, on the Day of Atonement and on some other occasions, engage in public confession.

This Act, particularly Section Three, is an invasion of the authority of the courts, but is morally sound because unless secrecy were respected reconciliations would not be possible. In any form of marital troubles this is a very important consideration.

We have here a conflict between those who insist that separation of church and state means a total lack of relationship between social agencies which exist in the same area and which must be related because they exist and those who insist that the emphasis upon separation of church and state cannot mean total separation.

Thus, those who oppose the cooperation of church and state in a society in which both exist raise a false issue because all institutions which exist in the same area must either cooperate or be antagonistic. It is unbelievable that in our society church and state should be antagonistic to each other; therefore, they must cooperate. The extent of such a cooperation is a just subject for discussion.

In the armed forces this is carried on through in the chaplain services which are never divided as to religions but only as to services. In a Naval District, for instance, the chief chaplain may be a Jew, Catholic or Protestant, but all chaplains will wear naval uniforms and will perform services not only according to their own rites, but according to any rite. The highest form of religious cooperation is to be found in the chaplain services and the cooperation is conducted by the United States government and is under its management.

If all this can be accomplished in the armed forces and in the District of Columbia, why should there be such an agitation for restriction of the relations of any church to our schools? The agitators for separation of church and state in relation to education fail to recognize that it is impractical to claim that religion should have no relationship to education when both religion and education exist in the same area and are, in effect, related to the same government. Besides, historical tradition in the United States is religious, this country having been founded by religious sects which migrated to it from England, France, Holland, Germany and other countries in pre-Revolutionary times.

The Marxists and other atheists have raised an unnecessary issue in our society with a view to increasing separations within our communities. It is essential to end these separations and to build a more cooperative society. Every effort at separation can only be designed to weaken the country and to substitute internal quarrels for cooperation. We do not need conformity but cooperation without compromise is possible.

Wonder What He'd Do If We Said, 'Go Ahead'?

General Taylor And The Uncertain Juggernaut

By Joseph Alsop

SAIGON, Vietnam

As these words are written, Gen. Maxwell Taylor, the President's coolly wise special envoy, is just plunging into the first round of the conferences and briefings which will produce his final, crucial recommendation on the Vietnam crisis.

Nowadays, although history is moving faster and faster, the great policy decisions are more and more slowly gestated, by briefing after briefing and in conference after conference.

Before the Taylor mission left Washington, all the reports from the men on the scene were of course minutely studied and carefully weighed. The same facts, as seen by Adm. Felt and the CINCPAC staff, were again reviewed through a long day at Pearl Harbor. But here in Saigon is where the process will reach its first climax — which will lead on, naturally, to a second climactic series of briefings and conferences in Washington, on the topic of the Taylor recommendation.

The process is majestic, and not just because of the sheer number of briefings and conferences which it involves. There is something majestic, too, about the numbers of persons involved.

Besides a few newspapermen like this reporter, besides plane crews and mess sergeants and miscellaneous aides and stenographers, Gen. Taylor was accompanied to Saigon by no less than eleven important official personages. These highly placed officers and civilians in turn represented agencies of the U. S. government ranging from old standbys like the National Security Council and the office of the Secretary of Defense, all the way to such recondite organisms as ISA and ARPA.

Despite Gen. Taylor's personal clarity and decisiveness, this expedition in fact make the U. S. government appear as a vast but most uncertain juggernaut — as a huge machine still capable of crushing what is in its way if it will only move forward, but hampered in its movement by its own complexity.

But is this juggernaut quite so uncertain as it appears on the surface? At first, it seems so. After all, why should it have been necessary for this Taylor mission to make yet another study of a problem which has been high on the list of urgent, dangerous foreign policy problems since long before John F. Kennedy took office?

But this ignores the nature of the juggernaut. The American governmental machine is complex and cumbersome and slow to respond. It now includes quite important organisms like ARPA which no one beyond their immediate neighborhood has ever heard about. (ARPA is the Advanced Research Projects Agency, and its representative here is a young scientist working on special weapons for guerrilla war.) But when a governmental consensus has been reached, the response can be rather rapid.

At this stage, the existence of a consensus is the notable feature of the Taylor mission. It is notable precisely because, until quite recently, there was no such consensus.

In certain organisms of the government, among the members of the Southeast Asia Task Force, for instance, a very grave view of the Vietnamese problem was taken, and there was a strong drive for fairly drastic solutions. But elsewhere, the hope persisted that a little more military aid would be an adequate solution; or the increasing gravity of the problem was not understood.

That stage, when some wished to push forward and many more pulled back, has been passed now. The consensus is that the problem in Vietnam is very grave and very urgent.

There is no more argument about whether aggression is occurring. The flagrant aggression of the North Vietnamese Communists was taken for granted, as an obvious fact. There are no more suggestions, either, that everything would be quite all right in Vietnam if President Ngo Dinh Diem would just stop consulting his brother — which was always an odd remedy to propose in John F. Kennedy's Washington.

The non-essential has been disposed of, in short. The fact has been faced, as one member of the mission put it, that "this is one place in the world where the U. S. can fail decisively in the quite near future; and this failure has got to be averted at all costs."

When this kind of sentiment is widely held, it means that the government juggernaut is getting ready for a forward move. What the move may be remains to be seen. Gen. Taylor's task is not easy. For this area where U. S. policy can fall flat on its face with a thud that will be heard around the world, is also an area where the footing is super-slippery.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

MEMORIAL — The federal government is looking for a solution to one of its perennial problems—how to handle the constant flow of demands for statues and other memorials to the nation's great, near-great and would-be great.

Currently, there are groups or individuals advancing the cause of memorials for Theodore Roosevelt, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gen. John J. Pershing, Woodrow Wilson, Adm. Richard E. Byrd, James Madison, Leif Ericsson, a Ukrainian poet named Taras Shevchenko, a Negro educator named Mary McLeod Bethune, and a Boy Scout.

In most cases, Congress has authorized a memorial to those listed, and in the few in which it has not, there are groups actively working to win such authorization.

Some of the memorial commissions already have designs prepared and sites selected—all they require is the money from the federal government. Other groups seek to raise the funds privately, but want approval and a site in Washington.

Of all the proposed memorials, the situation of Leif Ericsson is perhaps the most interesting. A statue of the Norseman credited with landing on the North American Continent 500 years before Columbus discovered America already exists. It stands in the Mariners Museum in Newport News, Va. All that some congressmen and other interested parties want is permission and funds to move it to the banks of the Tidal Basin in Washington.

In the case of the memorials to the two Roosevelts, there is argument over designs, but these will be settled in the near future and the memorials actually will rise.

Meanwhile, the Interior Department has quietly drawn up a bill for the next session of Congress to create a permanent memorial commission with power to set standards—and presumably issue vetoes — on memorials suggested by one group or another. This system, it is hoped, will control the push toward memorials without alienating the Norwegian or Boy Scout vote.

Snuff Useful In Treating Certain Diseases

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Snuff is not medicine but it has been used in treating certain diseases. Dr. Albert P. Seltzer, for example, tried unsuccessfully to remove a bead from the nose of a 7-year-old girl. Every time he got near the object, the youngster squirmed or jerked the head only to push the bead farther into the nasal cavity. The physician was about to take the girl to the operating room when he thought of snuff. A small portion was put into the nose and after a few rapid sharp sneezes, out popped the bead.

There are other ways to induce sneezing but snuff has the added advantage of stimulating the nose to run. The Philadelphia nose and throat specialist used this method to advantage when consulted by a man with and abnormally dry nose due to atrophic rhinitis.

A pinch of snuff was blown into the passageway. Within a few minutes, sneezing and a deluge of mucus appeared. It demonstrated that the membranes in this case were capable of becoming moist if stimulated to do so.

Sneezing usually occurs when the nerves in the nose are irritated or stimulated. It does not have any special significance but many people say gesundheit, meaning good health to you, whenever someone sneezes.

Eneezing may be a good omen when the individual is successful in eliminating a foreign substance but a bad one for those coming down with hay fever. A copious flow of mucus usually precedes the sneeze and the combination helps to clean out the passageways.

Almost all mammals sneeze, including babies on emerging at birth. The cleansing action is confined to the nose; it does not purge the brain, as ancients believed.

SMOKING AND GLAUCOMA

Mrs. S. G. writes: I have had glaucoma for over a year but still have 20/20 vision. Besides using the drops at night, my doctor advised me to give up coffee, tea, and cola drinks, as well as cigarets. I find it more and more difficult to do without smoking and wonder if half a pack a day would do any harm.

REPLY

Glaucoma is a serious eye disease. Why tamper with a plan of treatment that has worked so well? All stimulants, including tobacco, should be avoided.

BLADDER CAPACITY

H. R. writes: What is the capacity of the average adult bladder?

REPLY

This varies greatly but the average normal adult bladder can hold up to a pint.

RASH FROM PILLS

Mrs. M. writes: Can rash develop from taking thyroid pills?

REPLY

Not to my knowledge but there are exceptions to every rule.

CRACKLING KNEES

Mrs. L. E. writes: I'm 75 years old and when I bend my knees there is a cracking noise. Can I do anything to benefit this condition?

REPLY

This usually is a sign of osteoarthritis in a woman your age. There is no need for concern so long as the knees do not hurt. Avoid overactivity and frequent bending to minimize wear and tear. Apply hot applications to the knees to improve circulation.

FIRST FLIGHT

C. W. writes: I'm to take my first plane ride, and since I get seasick on ships, I wonder if I ought to take something before taking off?

REPLY

Yes, if you are this worried even though you never have been in a plane. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on motion sickness.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Goodman Ace, one of TV's best writers, has had personal contacts with most of the medium's principal comedians. He doesn't think too much of them, on the whole. Writing for a trade magazine recently, Ace ascribed the fading popularity of some of yesteryear's biggest attractions to faults inherent in their characters: "First," declared Ace, "they want all the laughs themselves. Second, with a few exceptions like Hope and Benny, they will not edit themselves. Also, they firmly resist novelty, which is absolutely essential in television. They refuse to acknowledge that the audience wants something different. More comedians would still be big in television if they would accept the fact that viewers have more than 12-year-old IQ's."

Nikita's Speech To Red Congress Highlighted Some Soviet Changes

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Here are some observations on Premier Khrushchev's marathon speeches by a newsman who recently saw Mr. K close-up at the Black Sea:

No Export of Revolution—One significant statement by Mr. K. was this: 'Communists have no desire or right to export revolution to non-Communist countries." This, if really carried out, would in itself be a revolution. It repeats what Khrushchev told me in August, when he emphasized that though the Communist world would vigorously compete with capitalism, this did not mean war or fomenting revolution.

Stirring up revolution in capitalist countries has been one of the cardinal tenets of Communism in the past. It will be interesting to see what happens in the future.

Atom-Free Zones — Mr. K proposed an atom-free zone in Europe and the Far East. This is what Foreign Minister Gromyko has been discussing with Secretary of State Rusk, namely the banning of atomic weapons from the West German Army, plus other parts of Western Europe, probably including France, Belgium and the Netherlands, in return for their banishment from Eastern Europe.

The United States is favorably inclined, though Chancellor Adenauer is not. The big plus for the United States would be in extending an atom-free zone to the Far East to include Red China, Khrushchev is the last one to want atomic weapons in the hands of Red China whose leaders say China is the one nation which can afford atomic war.

Atomic-Testing—The fact that Khrushchev's announcement of the 50-megaton bomb was censored from news reaching the Russian people emphasizes the touchiest part of the Soviet arms build-up. Khrushchev has campaigned against the danger of radioactive fallout in the past, knows what the current tests will do to the bones of children in the future, obviously doesn't want the Russian people to know it.

The Press Gallery — The fact that American newsmen were present to report the 22nd Congress proceedings is a revolutionary departure from a few years ago. The manner in which Khrushchev turned to the press gallery and ad-libbed a rebuke to newsmen— "The American journalists are sitting 'ere and laughing at our slogans"—was not unlike past Senatorial rebukes to the press gallery in Washington.

Critics Of The Kremlin — The fact that ex-Premier Bulganin was in the convention hall when Khrushchev named him as one of the Stalinist diehards is an amazing departure from the old days. In the Stalin era and immediately thereafter, Bulganin would have been banished or assassinated. He would not have been around to hear himself denounced at a Communist Party Congress. Nor would foreign newsmen have been present to report it.

Another significant fact: Marshal Kliment Voroshilov, former President of the Soviet who was thrown out of office in 1957 and was denounced by Khrushchev this week as a pro-Stalinist, was, on the same day, elected to the Steering Committee (presidium) of the 22nd Congress. Ambassador Pervukhin, also denounced this week by Khrushchev as a 1957 conspirator, was on the same day elected an alternate to the steering committee.

This kind of political give-and-take was unheard of in the Soviet in the past.

Industrial Competition With USA — Mr. K cited figures showing that Communist industrial output in 1960 had increased 6.8 times that of 1957, whereas non-Communist nations had increased only 2.5 times. When Khrushchev pointed this out to Averell Harriman, former Governor of New York and ex-Amassador to Russia, Harriman told him: "Yes, but you are citing a period when the United States was under the Republicans. Wait until the Democrats get into power."

Khrushchev countered by offering Harriman a job as his economic adviser. Harriman replied: "I'll take it if you give me a dacha (summer home) like this."

"I am still waiting for Harriman to take that job," Khrushchev told me.

End of Colonialism—K charged that imperialism in Africa, Asia, and Latin America is getting shakier, hailed the birth of 28 new and independent nations in the past six years.

However, these new nations have kept their independence as far as Communism is concerned; more than 90 per cent of them have opposed K's troika plan for hamstringing the United Nations. The new Kennedy policy of opposing colonialism as we opposed it in 1776 has paid dividends.

Nix On Tito — Khrushchev bitterly attacked Yugoslavia for "turning from the straight Marxist-Leninist road into the winding path which has landed them in a fog of revisionism." Yet Senators John Tower of Texas and Scoop Jackson of Washington — who is smart enough to know better — blasted bipartisan aid to Yugoslavia.

"We Are Equal" — Khrushchev stuck exactly to what he told me about the relative strength of the USA and USSR. He told me that President Kennedy had told him in Vienna "we are equal." To this K replied: "I think we are stronger, but for the sake of the argument I will say we are equal. Then why should we destroy each other with atomic war?"

To the 22nd Congress he said: "I believe all Communist forces are mightier than the aggressive imperialist forces. But even if we should agree with the United States President, who quite recently stated that our forces were equal, even then it is plainly unreasonable to use the threat of war. Since equality is admitted, the proper conclusions must be drawn from that. In our time it is dangerous to pursue a policy from positions of strength."

More Tea, Amanda?

By John Crosby

Dear me, Amanda, isn't the school news interesting these days? I can't remember a time since I joined the PTA that school news has been so fraught with significance! Hand me my tatting — there's a dear — and do let's talk about it.

Of course, you read that splendid statement by our Secretary of State, that nice Mr. Rusk, that we're going to spend all that lovely foreign aid money educating Indians in South America and Indonesia and places like that. Of course, it's a shame we can't spend some money educating our own little wild Indians here in America, but that seems impossible, what with the religious issue. I was so hoping Congress would pass just a little teentsie weentsie aid to education bill—poor Martha's child Peter can't read at all and he's going on twelve—but President Kennedy says wait until next year. My dear departed husband always used to say that about the Dodgers, remember?

But it is comforting to know that, even though we can't teach little Peter to read, Dean Rusk will be teaching basket-weaving to all those underdeveloped Africans with our money. (He has such lovely manners, Mr. Rusk. Doesn't go around brandishing the hydrogen bomb under everyone's nose like that horrid Mr. Dulles.)

Would you like a little mint tea, Amanda? But of course, all the school news isn't so pleasant. I'm sure you read Dr. Conant's statement. You didn't? Dear me! Well, he said that schools in the slums of our big cities where mostly Negroes live are so bad that the Negroes can't get a job after they got out of school. Isn't that terrible? Dr. Conant also says that suburban schools where all the white folks live are so much better than the city schools and so much richer that—that—now, let's see what did he say? I have it right here.

"The contrast in the money available to the schools in a wealthy suburb and to the schools in a large city jolts one's notion of the meaning of equality of opportunity." That's what he said.

I heard, Amanda, that the Negroes are leaving the South very rapidly to come up North to avoid discrimination. All that fuss about integrating the schools in the South! They'll just get them decently integrated and there won't be any Negroes left down there to integrate. They'll all be living in ghettoes up North going to perfectly dreadful all-black schools in the big cities. And, of course, they can't get into the decent schools out in the suburbs because the real estate people won't sell them houses out there.

I wouldn't be at all surprised, Amanda, if in about ten more years the South won't have any Negroes. Then the South will start a perfectly dreadful clamor about integrating the schools in the North! My land, can't you just see the indignation down there, after it's no longer their problem about the way we treat the Negroes? We'll have the Freedom Riders coming from Atlanta to New Rochelle.

But dear me, how is a poor American Negro to get a decent education now? The only sensible solution I can see, Amanda, is for the Negroes to get out of the developed regions like Chicago and go to some underdeveloped region like Nigeria where Dean Rusk has all that lovely foreign aid money. I think that's a marvellous solution, don't you, Amanda? Of course, he'll have to rub elbows with those white Peace Corps girls, complaining about living conditions, and making him feel inferior as usual — but we can't have everything, can we?

There is one bright note in the school news, Amanda. In New York Mr. Lefkowitz is running for Mayor on the Republican ticket using Mayor LaGuardia's old pictures on the posters. (It does seem to me that the Republicans could afford to take some new pictures of Mr. Lefkowitz.) Anyhow, Mr. Lefkowitz has had some very nice things to say about the school system under Mayor Wagner. He says — I have it right here, hmmm, let's see—"corruption and waste," "disgraceful incompetence," "inefficiency and neglect of duty." No, he had something nice to say. Oh, here it is!

Mr. Lefkowitz says that if he's elected Mayor he will work for a $10,000 maximum salary for teachers. Isn't that wonderful, Amanda? Of course, it does seem horribly unlikely that he'd ever manage it. Almost as unlikely as the prospect of his ever becoming Mayor in the first place.

A little more mint tea, Amanda?

Newspaperboy Is Indispensable

We call to readers' attention the newspaperboy who delivers this paper to thousands of homes. Today is National Newspaperboy Day — and across the country carrier boys will be saluted for the part they play in getting the news to the public.

In every newspaper office the newspaperboy is recognized as an important link between the people who make the newspaper and those who read it.

Not important—indispensable. If the paper doesn't get to the subscriber, in good order and on time, it loses ground.

The newspaperboy is an independent business man. He buys at wholesale and sells at retail. He learns that he must collect his accounts if he is to come out ahead of the game. He also learns that to keep his customers he must keep them satisfied.

As for the financial rewards, they are substantial. Paper routes have put many boys on the road to leadership.

We are sure that many of the boys we salute today will be leaders tomorrow. And meanwhile we're proud to have them working with us in a worthwhile job.

Church And State

After all the arguments about the separation of church and state, which means non-interference by one with the other, Congress passed Public Law 87-318 which reads:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That no priest, clergyman, rabbi, or other duly licensed, ordained, or consecrated minister of any religion authorized to perform a marriage ceremony in the District of Columbia or duly accredited practitioner of Christian Science shall be examined in any civil or criminal proceedings in the courts of the District of Columbia—

"(1) with respect to any confession, or communication, made to him, in his professional capacity in the course of discipline enjoined by the church or other religious body to which he belongs, without the consent of the person making such confession or communication, or

"(2) with respect to any communication made to him, in his professional capacity in the course of giving religious or spiritual advice, without the consent of the person seeking such advice, or

"(3) with respect to any communication made to him, in his professional capacity, by either spouse, in connection with any effort to reconcile estranged spouses, without the consent of the spouse making the communication."

I am not writing in criticism of the law, but the fact is that this is the protection of a religious rite by the state which is gainsaid by those who insist that the Constitution forbids any such relationship. This law is favorable to the Roman Catholic Church which specializes in private confession, although most churches have some form of public confession of sin. The Jews, for instance, do not practice private confession but they do, on the Day of Atonement and on some other occasions, engage in public confession.

This Act, particularly Section Three, is an invasion of the authority of the courts, but is morally sound because unless secrecy were respected reconciliations would not be possible. In any form of marital troubles this is a very important consideration.

We have here a conflict between those who insist that separation of church and state means a total lack of relationship between social agencies which exist in the same area and which must be related because they exist and those who insist that the emphasis upon separation of church and state cannot mean total separation.

Thus, those who oppose the cooperation of church and state in a society in which both exist raise a false issue because all institutions which exist in the same area must either cooperate or be antagonistic. It is unbelievable that in our society church and state should be antagonistic to each other; therefore, they must cooperate. The extent of such a cooperation is a just subject for discussion.

In the armed forces this is carried on through in the chaplain services which are never divided as to religions but only as to services. In a Naval District, for instance, the chief chaplain may be a Jew, Catholic or Protestant, but all chaplains will wear naval uniforms and will perform services not only according to their own rites, but according to any rite. The highest form of religious cooperation is to be found in the chaplain services and the cooperation is conducted by the United States government and is under its management.

If all this can be accomplished in the armed forces and in the District of Columbia, why should there be such an agitation for restriction of the relations of any church to our schools? The agitators for separation of church and state in relation to education fail to recognize that it is impractical to claim that religion should have no relationship to education when both religion and education exist in the same area and are, in effect, related to the same government. Besides, historical tradition in the United States is religious, this country having been founded by religious sects which migrated to it from England, France, Holland, Germany and other countries in pre-Revolutionary times.

The Marxists and other atheists have raised an unnecessary issue in our society with a view to increasing separations within our communities. It is essential to end these separations and to build a more cooperative society. Every effort at separation can only be designed to weaken the country and to substitute internal quarrels for cooperation. We do not need conformity but cooperation without compromise is possible.

General Taylor And The Uncertain Juggernaut

By Joseph Alsop

SAIGON, Vietnam

As these words are written, Gen. Maxwell Taylor, the President's coolly wise special envoy, is just plunging into the first round of the conferences and briefings which will produce his final, crucial recommendation on the Vietnam crisis.

Nowadays, although history is moving faster and faster, the great policy decisions are more and more slowly gestated, by briefing after briefing and in conference after conference.

Before the Taylor mission left Washington, all the reports from the men on the scene were of course minutely studied and carefully weighed. The same facts, as seen by Adm. Felt and the CINCPAC staff, were again reviewed through a long day at Pearl Harbor. But here in Saigon is where the process will reach its first climax — which will lead on, naturally, to a second climactic series of briefings and conferences in Washington, on the topic of the Taylor recommendation.

The process is majestic, and not just because of the sheer number of briefings and conferences which it involves. There is something majestic, too, about the numbers of persons involved.

Besides a few newspapermen like this reporter, besides plane crews and mess sergeants and miscellaneous aides and stenographers, Gen. Taylor was accompanied to Saigon by no less than eleven important official personages. These highly placed officers and civilians in turn represented agencies of the U. S. government ranging from old standbys like the National Security Council and the office of the Secretary of Defense, all the way to such recondite organisms as ISA and ARPA.

Despite Gen. Taylor's personal clarity and decisiveness, this expedition in fact make the U. S. government appear as a vast but most uncertain juggernaut — as a huge machine still capable of crushing what is in its way if it will only move forward, but hampered in its movement by its own complexity.

But is this juggernaut quite so uncertain as it appears on the surface? At first, it seems so. After all, why should it have been necessary for this Taylor mission to make yet another study of a problem which has been high on the list of urgent, dangerous foreign policy problems since long before John F. Kennedy took office?

But this ignores the nature of the juggernaut. The American governmental machine is complex and cumbersome and slow to respond. It now includes quite important organisms like ARPA which no one beyond their immediate neighborhood has ever heard about. (ARPA is the Advanced Research Projects Agency, and its representative here is a young scientist working on special weapons for guerrilla war.) But when a governmental consensus has been reached, the response can be rather rapid.

At this stage, the existence of a consensus is the notable feature of the Taylor mission. It is notable precisely because, until quite recently, there was no such consensus.

In certain organisms of the government, among the members of the Southeast Asia Task Force, for instance, a very grave view of the Vietnamese problem was taken, and there was a strong drive for fairly drastic solutions. But elsewhere, the hope persisted that a little more military aid would be an adequate solution; or the increasing gravity of the problem was not understood.

That stage, when some wished to push forward and many more pulled back, has been passed now. The consensus is that the problem in Vietnam is very grave and very urgent.

There is no more argument about whether aggression is occurring. The flagrant aggression of the North Vietnamese Communists was taken for granted, as an obvious fact. There are no more suggestions, either, that everything would be quite all right in Vietnam if President Ngo Dinh Diem would just stop consulting his brother — which was always an odd remedy to propose in John F. Kennedy's Washington.

The non-essential has been disposed of, in short. The fact has been faced, as one member of the mission put it, that "this is one place in the world where the U. S. can fail decisively in the quite near future; and this failure has got to be averted at all costs."

When this kind of sentiment is widely held, it means that the government juggernaut is getting ready for a forward move. What the move may be remains to be seen. Gen. Taylor's task is not easy. For this area where U. S. policy can fall flat on its face with a thud that will be heard around the world, is also an area where the footing is super-slippery.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

MEMORIAL — The federal government is looking for a solution to one of its perennial problems—how to handle the constant flow of demands for statues and other memorials to the nation's great, near-great and would-be great.

Currently, there are groups or individuals advancing the cause of memorials for Theodore Roosevelt, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Gen. John J. Pershing, Woodrow Wilson, Adm. Richard E. Byrd, James Madison, Leif Ericsson, a Ukrainian poet named Taras Shevchenko, a Negro educator named Mary McLeod Bethune, and a Boy Scout.

In most cases, Congress has authorized a memorial to those listed, and in the few in which it has not, there are groups actively working to win such authorization.

Some of the memorial commissions already have designs prepared and sites selected—all they require is the money from the federal government. Other groups seek to raise the funds privately, but want approval and a site in Washington.

Of all the proposed memorials, the situation of Leif Ericsson is perhaps the most interesting. A statue of the Norseman credited with landing on the North American Continent 500 years before Columbus discovered America already exists. It stands in the Mariners Museum in Newport News, Va. All that some congressmen and other interested parties want is permission and funds to move it to the banks of the Tidal Basin in Washington.

In the case of the memorials to the two Roosevelts, there is argument over designs, but these will be settled in the near future and the memorials actually will rise.

Meanwhile, the Interior Department has quietly drawn up a bill for the next session of Congress to create a permanent memorial commission with power to set standards—and presumably issue vetoes — on memorials suggested by one group or another. This system, it is hoped, will control the push toward memorials without alienating the Norwegian or Boy Scout vote.

More Tea, Amanda?

By John Crosby

Dear me, Amanda, isn't the school news interesting these days? I can't remember a time since I joined the PTA that school news has been so fraught with significance! Hand me my tatting — there's a dear — and do let's talk about it.

Of course, you read that splendid statement by our Secretary of State, that nice Mr. Rusk, that we're going to spend all that lovely foreign aid money educating Indians in South America and Indonesia and places like that. Of course, it's a shame we can't spend some money educating our own little wild Indians here in America, but that seems impossible, what with the religious issue. I was so hoping Congress would pass just a little teentsie weentsie aid to education bill—poor Martha's child Peter can't read at all and he's going on twelve—but President Kennedy says wait until next year. My dear departed husband always used to say that about the Dodgers, remember?

But it is comforting to know that, even though we can't teach little Peter to read, Dean Rusk will be teaching basket-weaving to all those underdeveloped Africans with our money. (He has such lovely manners, Mr. Rusk. Doesn't go around brandishing the hydrogen bomb under everyone's nose like that horrid Mr. Dulles.)

Would you like a little mint tea, Amanda? But of course, all the school news isn't so pleasant. I'm sure you read Dr. Conant's statement. You didn't? Dear me! Well, he said that schools in the slums of our big cities where mostly Negroes live are so bad that the Negroes can't get a job after they got out of school. Isn't that terrible? Dr. Conant also says that suburban schools where all the white folks live are so much better than the city schools and so much richer that—that—now, let's see what did he say? I have it right here.

"The contrast in the money available to the schools in a wealthy suburb and to the schools in a large city jolts one's notion of the meaning of equality of opportunity." That's what he said.

I heard, Amanda, that the Negroes are leaving the South very rapidly to come up North to avoid discrimination. All that fuss about integrating the schools in the South! They'll just get them decently integrated and there won't be any Negroes left down there to integrate. They'll all be living in ghettoes up North going to perfectly dreadful all-black schools in the big cities. And, of course, they can't get into the decent schools out in the suburbs because the real estate people won't sell them houses out there.

I wouldn't be at all surprised, Amanda, if in about ten more years the South won't have any Negroes. Then the South will start a perfectly dreadful clamor about integrating the schools in the North! My land, can't you just see the indignation down there, after it's no longer their problem about the way we treat the Negroes? We'll have the Freedom Riders coming from Atlanta to New Rochelle.

But dear me, how is a poor American Negro to get a decent education now? The only sensible solution I can see, Amanda, is for the Negroes to get out of the developed regions like Chicago and go to some underdeveloped region like Nigeria where Dean Rusk has all that lovely foreign aid money. I think that's a marvellous solution, don't you, Amanda? Of course, he'll have to rub elbows with those white Peace Corps girls, complaining about living conditions, and making him feel inferior as usual — but we can't have everything, can we?

There is one bright note in the school news, Amanda. In New York Mr. Lefkowitz is running for Mayor on the Republican ticket using Mayor LaGuardia's old pictures on the posters. (It does seem to me that the Republicans could afford to take some new pictures of Mr. Lefkowitz.) Anyhow, Mr. Lefkowitz has had some very nice things to say about the school system under Mayor Wagner. He says — I have it right here, hmmm, let's see—"corruption and waste," "disgraceful incompetence," "inefficiency and neglect of duty." No, he had something nice to say. Oh, here it is!

Mr. Lefkowitz says that if he's elected Mayor he will work for a $10,000 maximum salary for teachers. Isn't that wonderful, Amanda? Of course, it does seem horribly unlikely that he'd ever manage it. Almost as unlikely as the prospect of his ever becoming Mayor in the first place.

A little more mint tea, Amanda?

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Snuff is not medicine but it has been used in treating certain diseases. Dr. Albert P. Seltzer, for example, tried unsuccessfully to remove a bead from the nose of a 7-year-old girl. Every time he got near the object, the youngster squirmed or jerked the head only to push the bead farther into the nasal cavity. The physician was about to take the girl to the operating room when he thought of snuff. A small portion was put into the nose and after a few rapid sharp sneezes, out popped the bead.

There are other ways to induce sneezing but snuff has the added advantage of stimulating the nose to run. The Philadelphia nose and throat specialist used this method to advantage when consulted by a man with and abnormally dry nose due to atrophic rhinitis.

A pinch of snuff was blown into the passageway. Within a few minutes, sneezing and a deluge of mucus appeared. It demonstrated that the membranes in this case were capable of becoming moist if stimulated to do so.

Sneezing usually occurs when the nerves in the nose are irritated or stimulated. It does not have any special significance but many people say gesundheit, meaning good health to you, whenever someone sneezes.

Eneezing may be a good omen when the individual is successful in eliminating a foreign substance but a bad one for those coming down with hay fever. A copious flow of mucus usually precedes the sneeze and the combination helps to clean out the passageways.

Almost all mammals sneeze, including babies on emerging at birth. The cleansing action is confined to the nose; it does not purge the brain, as ancients believed.

SMOKING AND GLAUCOMA

Mrs. S. G. writes: I have had glaucoma for over a year but still have 20/20 vision. Besides using the drops at night, my doctor advised me to give up coffee, tea, and cola drinks, as well as cigarets. I find it more and more difficult to do without smoking and wonder if half a pack a day would do any harm.

REPLY

Glaucoma is a serious eye disease. Why tamper with a plan of treatment that has worked so well? All stimulants, including tobacco, should be avoided.

BLADDER CAPACITY

H. R. writes: What is the capacity of the average adult bladder?

REPLY

This varies greatly but the average normal adult bladder can hold up to a pint.

RASH FROM PILLS

Mrs. M. writes: Can rash develop from taking thyroid pills?

REPLY

Not to my knowledge but there are exceptions to every rule.

CRACKLING KNEES

Mrs. L. E. writes: I'm 75 years old and when I bend my knees there is a cracking noise. Can I do anything to benefit this condition?

REPLY

This usually is a sign of osteoarthritis in a woman your age. There is no need for concern so long as the knees do not hurt. Avoid overactivity and frequent bending to minimize wear and tear. Apply hot applications to the knees to improve circulation.

FIRST FLIGHT

C. W. writes: I'm to take my first plane ride, and since I get seasick on ships, I wonder if I ought to take something before taking off?

REPLY

Yes, if you are this worried even though you never have been in a plane. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on motion sickness.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

Goodman Ace, one of TV's best writers, has had personal contacts with most of the medium's principal comedians. He doesn't think too much of them, on the whole. Writing for a trade magazine recently, Ace ascribed the fading popularity of some of yesteryear's biggest attractions to faults inherent in their characters: "First," declared Ace, "they want all the laughs themselves. Second, with a few exceptions like Hope and Benny, they will not edit themselves. Also, they firmly resist novelty, which is absolutely essential in television. They refuse to acknowledge that the audience wants something different. More comedians would still be big in television if they would accept the fact that viewers have more than 12-year-old IQ's."

Hear, hear!

The group pledged $15 to Joan Hughes, missionary in Rhodesia. Twenty-three cards were sent to the sick during the month and 17 visits were made. Mrs. Bess Eisentrout accepted the chairmanship of the Christian Social Relations Committee. All secretaries will meet November 3 at 7 p.m. at the church to fill out reports.

After the business meeting the group adjourned to the basement where refreshments were served by Mrs. Willie Kroll and Mrs. Walter Fleigle.

Five Contracts For West Va. Roads Approved

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Contracts totaling almost $1 million on five of six projects on which the State Road Commission received bids last Tuesday were awarded by the road agency Friday.

Bids on construction of a bridge over Meadow Creek on Sec. 14 in Greenbrier County were held for further study. The apparent low bidder for that job was Melvin O'Brien, Sinks Grove, at $36,158.

A contract for repaving a section of Sec. 25-17 in Kanawha County was given to Concrete Construction Co., Charleston, for $130,148. Walker Construction Co., Charleston, had been reported as apparent low bidder at $140,215.

Contracts were awarded to builders previously listed as apparent low bidders in the other four jobs in Barbour, Berkeley, Pocahontas and Hardy Counties.

The Hardy County project is a bridge on State Route 55 over Baker's Run. The low bidder, at $129,591, was Riggleman and Clower and Michael.

Area Girl Homecoming Queen

Miss Judy Bauserman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bauserman of Moorefield, W.Va., is shown here as she was crowned Homecoming Queen at West Virginia Wesleyan College, Buckhannon, W.Va. Football Coach Sam Ross is presiding at the coronation. The escort and crown bearer are not identified. Following the colorful ceremony which included a court of honor of several beautiful co-eds, Miss Bauserman presided over the annual parade and occupied a place of honor at a football game which Glenville State won, 20-6.

W. Va. Inclusion In North-South U.S. Interstate System Is Dream Come True

By United Press International

A dream come true.

That's the gist of initial comment around West Virginia following the announcement of inclusion of the North-South Highway in the Federal Interstate System.

William D. Evans, editor of the Fairmont Times, said in an editorial:

"It is the culmination of a dream that was born in this area many years ago and pushed relentlessly by devoted and tireless laborers for the cause...last night's announcement shoulld effectively answer those who have said the Kennedy Administration was long on words and short on promises when it came to West Virginia.

Evans said "statewide rejoicing" will follow the announcement that the highway is being incorporated in the federal interstate system.

Walter (Bill) Hart editor of the Morgantown Dominion - News said:

"The North-South road will be to West Virginia exactly like water is to a desert. It seems to us altogether fitting and proper that the Northern terminus of the road is within the shadows of the Towering spires of the new West Virginia University campus."

The Charleston Daily Mail termed the highway:

"A major breakthrough for the Democratic administrations in Washington and Charleston...the additional interstate road is a result of a vast revamping of the system in West Virginia."

State Motor Vehicles Commissioner Jack Nuckols termed the highway "the greatest thing that ever happened to West Virginia."

W. E. Stahl, manager of the West Virginia Turnpike, said turnpike bonds took an upward swing in advance of the announcement of the new highway.

He said both the original $96 million and the supplemental $37 million bond issue started to climb Wednesday morning on the New York bond market.

He said by the end of the day the bonds had gone up almost two points.

MYF To Collect For UNICEF

MIDLAND — The members of the senior M.Y.F. of the Methodist Church will collect for UNICEF, October 24.

Roanoke Pastor To Speak At Keyser Church

Sermon Series To Begin Sunday

KEYSER — Rev. Ernest E. Muntzing, of Roanoke, Va., will conduct a series of Christian messages at the Keyser Church of the Brethren, Main Street and Fort Avenue, beginning Sunday evening and continuing through October 29, with services beginning each evening at 7:30 (EDT).

His messages will touch the needs and interests of all parts of a Christian's life, according to Rev. C. H. Cameron, host pastor, who said the public is invited to attend any and all of these meetings if their attendance does not interfere with their own church commitments.

On Monday evening special emphasis will be on "Family Life" and on Tuesday evening a "Helpful Hand for Youth."

Rev. Muntzing was born at Maysville and received his training at Bridgewater College, Bethany Biblical Seminary in Chicago, and Union Theological Seminary in Richmond. He has been active in the Church of the Brethren in Virginia as moderator of various districts, as a member of the standing committee of annual conference several times and is currently chairman of the Commission of Ministry and Evangelism in the First District.

FSTC Senior Attends SNEA

FROSTBURG — Lawrence McLean, a senior at Frostburg State Teacher's College and president of the Student National Education Association, is participating in the Peterborough Regional Conference for SNEA leaders at Peterborough, N. H. Mr. McLean traveled to the conference with Richard M. Carrigan, a national SNEA director.

The conference is in its fifth year and is the first of its kind in the nation. A move is being made to have regional conferences for all of the states at sometime during this year.

States sending delegates to this conference include Maryland, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, and Massachussetts. Guests from Washington, D. C., New York, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey will also attend.

The SNEA is presently enrolling members. They expect to reach a figure of 85,000. Membership is open to all students preparing to teach, who are actively participating in the work of local and state units.

Associate Matron, Patron To Be Feted

BARTON—Mrs. Leona Kirkwood, associate matron, and J. Irvin Martin, associate patron, will be honored by officers and members of the Barton Chapter, No. 37 O. E. S. at a special observance of advance night on Monday in the I.O.O.F. Hall beginning at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Mary Ann Penman, worthy matron, and Clarence Penman, worthy patron, will preside during the business meeting. Refreshments will be served by the associate matron and associate patron and their committee. All members of the order are invited to attend.

International Relations Achievement Day Topic

OAKLAND — At the Homemakers Achievement Day held at Deep Creek Lodge, there were 150 in attendance. International Relations was featured.

Mrs. Bernard Merrill, county International Relations chairman reviewed the program of the past year, telling of the countries featured in each month's report. The speaker, Mrs. J. E. Davis, state International Relations chairman, Pasadena, Md., spoke of the many programs available for folks to cooperate with — UNICEF for Children — a milk program; Radio Free Europe Fund (Crusade for Freedom, Inc.), FAO World Seed Campaign — Food Agriculture Organization; ACWW and the United Nations—Associated Country Women of the World, with offices in London.

Mrs. Merrill introduced guests of foreign birth from clubs which had invited them: Bittinger—Mrs. Joe Buckel from England; Casselman Valley — Mrs. Walter Swauger from England; Friendsville — Dr. and Mrs. Pedro Rivera from Puerto Rico; Route 40 — Mrs. Edward Crowe, from Wales, Great Britain, and McHenry — Mrs. Kenneth Yoder from Germany.

Mrs. Allen Baker was elected vice president and Mrs. George Shawley, secretary to the Garrett County Council of Homemakers. Mrs. Baker is president of the Grantsville club and Mrs. Shawley a member of the Bittinger club.

Miss Margaret Loar, assistant state home demonstration agent, leader and advisor for International Relations programs, attended the meeting and addressed the group. Five Contracts For West Va. Roads Approved

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—Contracts totaling almost $1 million on five of six projects on which the State Road Commission received bids last Tuesday were awarded by the road agency Friday.

Bids on construction of a bridge over Meadow Creek on Sec. 14 in Greenbrier County were held for further study. The apparent low bidder for that job was Melvin O'Brien, Sinks Grove, at $36,158.

A contract for repaving a section of Sec. 25-17 in Kanawha County was given to Concrete Construction Co., Charleston, for $130,148. Walker Construction Co., Charleston, had been reported as apparent low bidder at $140,215.

Contracts were awarded to builders previously listed as apparent low bidders in the other four jobs in Barbour, Berkeley, Pocahontas and Hardy Counties.

The Hardy County project is a bridge on State Route 55 over Baker's Run. The low bidder, at $129,591, was Riggleman and Clower and Michael.

W. Va. Inclusion In North-South U.S. Interstate System Is Dream Come True

By United Press International

A dream come true.

That's the gist of initial comment around West Virginia following the announcement of inclusion of the North-South Highway in the Federal Interstate System.

William D. Evans, editor of the Fairmont Times, said in an editorial:

"It is the culmination of a dream that was born in this area many years ago and pushed relentlessly by devoted and tireless laborers for the cause...last night's announcement shoulld effectively answer those who have said the Kennedy Administration was long on words and short on promises when it came to West Virginia.

Evans said "statewide rejoicing" will follow the announcement that the highway is being incorporated in the federal interstate system.

Walter (Bill) Hart editor of the Morgantown Dominion - News said:

"The North-South road will be to West Virginia exactly like water is to a desert. It seems to us altogether fitting and proper that the Northern terminus of the road is within the shadows of the Towering spires of the new West Virginia University campus."

The Charleston Daily Mail termed the highway:

"A major breakthrough for the Democratic administrations in Washington and Charleston...the additional interstate road is a result of a vast revamping of the system in West Virginia."

State Motor Vehicles Commissioner Jack Nuckols termed the highway "the greatest thing that ever happened to West Virginia."

W. E. Stahl, manager of the West Virginia Turnpike, said turnpike bonds took an upward swing in advance of the announcement of the new highway.

He said both the original $96 million and the supplemental $37 million bond issue started to climb Wednesday morning on the New York bond market.

He said by the end of the day the bonds had gone up almost two points.

Roanoke Pastor To Speak At Keyser Church

Sermon Series To Begin Sunday

KEYSER — Rev. Ernest E. Muntzing, of Roanoke, Va., will conduct a series of Christian messages at the Keyser Church of the Brethren, Main Street and Fort Avenue, beginning Sunday evening and continuing through October 29, with services beginning each evening at 7:30 (EDT).

His messages will touch the needs and interests of all parts of a Christian's life, according to Rev. C. H. Cameron, host pastor, who said the public is invited to attend any and all of these meetings if their attendance does not interfere with their own church commitments.

On Monday evening special emphasis will be on "Family Life" and on Tuesday evening a "Helpful Hand for Youth."

Rev. Muntzing was born at Maysville and received his training at Bridgewater College, Bethany Biblical Seminary in Chicago, and Union Theological Seminary in Richmond. He has been active in the Church of the Brethren in Virginia as moderator of various districts, as a member of the standing committee of annual conference several times and is currently chairman of the Commission of Ministry and Evangelism in the First District.

Allegany High's Campers scored a pair of touchdowns in the final quarter last night to turn back the LaSalle High Explorers, 19-7, and snap a two-game losing streak in an intra-city football contest at Fort Hill stadium before approximately 4,000 fans. The win was the second in six games for Allegany. LaSalle now is 2-4-0 for the year.

Coach Ed Schwarz's Blue and White gridders marched 51 yards for the winning touchdown early in the fourth period after LaSalle had gone ahead 7-6 as the third period drew to a close. Jim Walker ran over from the two on a beautiful fake into the line and a pitchout from quarterback Fred Shank for the score.

Then the Campers stopped a LaSalle drive on the Allegany 43 with 2:32 left to play and two plays later Mike Harvey, who carried the brunt of the Alco attack with some powerful running throughout the game, cracked over the left side of the line and scampered 56 yards for the final Allegany touchdown.

Walker Scores Twice

Walker scored two of Allegany's six-pointers, racing over from the five midway in the third period for his first TD to break a scoreless deadlock. The two arch rivals battled back and forth without a serious threat through the first two periods before Allegany broke the ice after the kickoff at intermission.

The Campers marched 55 yards for the initial score with Harvey picking up 22 yards in three carries. Jay Miller was stopped in his plunge for the extra point to give Allegany a brief 6-0 lead.

LaSalle came right back to score after the ensuing kickoff as Coach Jimmy Manges' Explorers drove 69 yards in 16 plays for the tying touchdown.

The march was aided considerably by a 15-yard penalty against Allegany which nullified a LaSalle punt that had given the Campers possession of the ball. However, the penalty gave LaSalle a first down on the Camper 35 and the Explorers took the ball over from there. Quarterback Jerry Lowery smashed over from the one for the score.

A 15-yard penalty against LaSalle apparently had cancelled out Terry McElfish's plunge for the extra point but Lowery faded and threw a bulls-eye pass to Sam Brehm in the corner of the end zone for the extra tally which gave LaSalle its 7-6 edge. Brehm made a sparkling catch of the toss a step before he ran out of bounds.

Harvey Gains 186 Yards

Harvey was the standout offensive back for Allegany, carrying the ball on almost 50 per cent of the Camper plays, gaining 186 yards in 23 carries. Numerous times the hard-running halfback appeared to be stopped only to break away for a gain. He picked up gains of 13, 25, 14, 11 and 56 yards in his efforts.

Outstanding defensively was Jim Bowman on the Camper line as he stopped or assisted on most of the Allegany tackles. Best bets for LaSalle were Bill Stakem in the backfield and Don Harden on the line. The lineups:

Pos.—Allegany (19)	LaSalle (7)
LE—Norris	Garlitz
LT—Beachy	Stegmaier

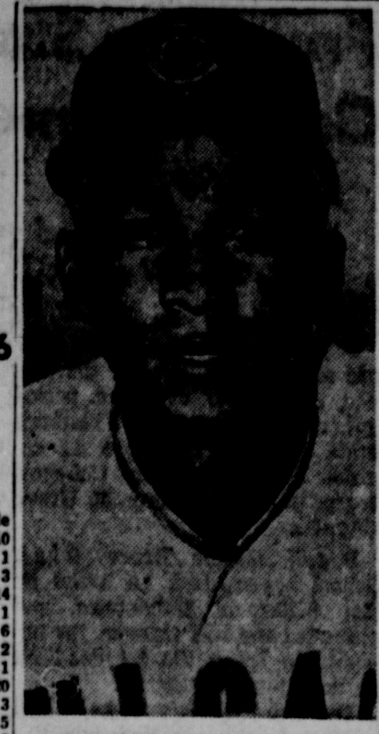
Wilt Scores 57 As Warriors Win

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Wilt Chamberlain shattered two floor scoring marks with a 57 - point outburst Friday night to lead the Philadelphia Warriors to a 122-115 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers in a National Basketball Association game.

Chamberlain's total exceeded his own Convention Hall standard of 56 which he set three times last January against New York, Syracuse and Los Angeles. His 23 points in the second period also topped his own mark of 22 established against the Lakers last Jan. 21.



PICKED AS N.L. TOP ROOKIE —Billy Williams, 23, a Chicago Cubs outfielder, has been named National League Rookie of the Year by a group of newspaper baseball experts.

Colin Smith's point-after-touchdown in the first half was the margin of victory last night as Fort Hill High School's Sentinels eked out a 13-12 decision over the Westminster High School Owls in a Cumberland Valley Athletic League football thriller at Westminster.

Each team scored two touchdowns in the first half and Smith's extra point on a pitchout after the Sentinels' second score decided the issue.

Robinson Runs 90 Yards

Rich Robinson, Fort Hill's sophomore halfback, gave the crowd a thrill, when he took a handoff on his own 10 and raced 90 yards for a touchdown.

The Owls took a 12-6 lead in the second period when Arbaugh passed to Feeser from the 4-yard line.

With 4 seconds remaining in the second period, Ronnie Manges passed to Colin Smith on a play that covered 64 yards and knotted the score at 12-12. Then Smith went over for the only extra point of the game.

The victory was Fort Hill's fourth in six starts, their second by the margin of one point and gave the Sentinels a 2-2 record in the CVAL. Westminster is now 2-5 overall and 1-2 in the league.

Win 11th Straight

The win was Fort Hill's 11th straight over Coach Herb Ruby's Owls since the series started in 1951. It also was the closest.

Scoring five touchdowns and four extra points in the first half, Beall High School mustered its best offensive punch of the season in downing the Colonels of James Wood High School, of Winchester, Va., last night at Beall High Stadium by the score of 34-20.

The victory was the fourth in six starts for Coach Jerry Calhoun's Mountaineers and their fourth straight triumph of the series which opened in 1951.

Bob and Wayne Harper accounted for two touchdowns each while Jim Goebel registered the other Beall six-pointer. Jim Robertson kicked four extra points.

Intercepts Lateral

Bob Harper intercepted a lateral pass and sauntered 40 yards for the first score. Jim Goebel set up the second td when he blocked a punt on the Virginians' 25. Four plays later, Wayne Harper went over from the three.

The Virginians drove from their own 33 for their initial score in the opening period with Ashby toting the ball over from the three. Sullivan passed to Michaels for the point.

Beall exploded for three touchdowns in the second period to put the game out of reach of the Colonels.

Harper Runs 58 Yards

Wayne Harper featured the first drive with a 58-yard sprint to the J.W. 25 and on the next play Bob Harper galloped the remaining yardage into the end zone. Robertson split the uprights for the third straight time on his extra point try.

Jim Goebel intercepted a pass and scooted 35 yards to the J.W. 8 and two plays later he went over for the score.

After a poor punt by J.W. hit on the 32 and rolled back to the 25, Joe Stevens picked up the pigskin and ran it back to the eight. On the seven play Wayne Harper tallied from the three. Robertson made good his fourth try for extra point in five attempts.

James Wood got back in the scoring column before the second period ended when Hepley swiped a pass fired by Brady on his own 46 and went all the way. The placement kick was wide.

Pitt Frosh Win, 29-14

Panthers Defeat West Virginia

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The West Virginia freshman football team failed to emulate its varsity brother Friday and went down to defeat at the hands of the Pitt frosh, 29-14.

The Pitt victory avenged the upset loss the Panther varsity suffered last week at the hands of the Mountaineer varsity.

Fred Mazurek, former Redstone High star, sparked the Pitt attack by scoring on a 29-yard run over tackle and a 95-yard return of a kickoff at the start of the third quarter. Mazurek left the game in the fourth period with a slight back injury.

Pitt quarterback Fran Novak threw touchdown passes to Bill Howley and Jack Mechas. West Virginia's Ed Pastilong scored on a nine-yard run in the first quarter while John Sipple scored on a 67-yard pass play from Pastilong in the fourth period.

Pennsylvania Lifts Liston Suspension

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Heavyweight contender Charles (Sonny) Liston, suspended three months ago following two brushes with the law, was reinstated Friday, clearing the way for the first closed-circuit TV doubleheader in boxing history.

Under the unique arrangement, fans in theaters and other locations will watch Liston meet Albert Westphal of West Germany and heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson face Tom McNeeley for the heavyweight crown on Dec. 4 for one admission.

The title fight will be staged in Toronto's Maple Leaf gardens, while the Liston-Westphal bout will be held in Convention Hall here. Fans watching the Liston-Westphal match "live" will then be treated to a telecast of the Patterson-McNeeley fight.

Bell And Mercer Meet For Title

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Robert Bell, stocky one-time ohio State football player, and Dr. John Mercer, 135-pound, 5-4 optometrist, scored semifinal victories Friday in the North and South Senior Golf Tournament. They'll meet for the title in an 18-hole match Saturday.

Bell, who is 56 and from Worthington, Ohio, won the 18th hole to get even, then went on to edge James Ackerman, 65, of Princeton, N.J., in a 22-hole marathon. A 10-foot birdie putt was the decisive stroke.

Mercer, from Fitchburg, Mass., scored a 2 and 1 victory over J. Wolcott Brown of Sea Girt, N.J., the 1958 champion and runnerup last year.

Old Exports Practice

WAYNESBURG PLAYS AT FROSTBURG STATE TODAY

Cats Seeking 10th Straight In Tri-State; Potomac Invades Takoma Park For Montgomery Tilt

Coach Ron Van Ryswyk's Frostburg State Teachers College football team makes its second of three appearances at home this season when it mets Waynesburg (Pa.) College today at Beall High Stadium at 2 p. m.

The Bobcats will be the underdogs in this one against the Yellow Jackets of the West Penn Conference which includes Grove City, St. Vincent, Westminster, Geneva and Carnegie Tech. Waynesburg comes to the Mountain City with a 3-1 record, having beaten Slippery Rock, Carnegie Tech and St. Vincent while losing to Geneva.

Play 5th Of Season

Frostburg State will be engaging in its fifth contest of the season and owns a 1-3 record. The Bobcats dropped three in a row to Shepherd, Davis & Elkins and District of Columbia Teachers before scoring its lone victory over Bridgewater of Virginia last Saturday, 27-0.

The Mountain City eleven plays Gallaudet in Washington one week from today and winds up its season at home on November 4 with Potomac State College.

Coach Dana "Horse" Lough's Potomac State Catamounts (2-3) will play their first game of the season with a Tri-State College Conference opponent when they tackle Montgomery Junior College today at Takoma Park, Md.

Boast Two Win Streaks

The Keyser team will be striving to keep two winning streaks going in today's contest. The Catamounts will be gunning for their 11th consecutive victory over a school they never have lost to on the gridiron since they opened relations in 1948. The Loughmen also will be going for their tenth straight in the Tri-State Loop in which they never have lost a game since the circuit was formed in 1958. They have been 3-0 annually for the past three years and have two more league games after today — Wesley College of Delaware, at Keyser, Oct. 28, and Baltimore Junior College, away, November 11.

Potomac has beaten Bainbridge Naval and Davis & Elkins and lost to Glenville, Salem and Shepherd this season.

Rams Seek 4th Straight

Coach Jesse Riggleman's Shepherd College Rams will be angling for their fourth straight victory when they clash with Shippensburg (Pa.) Teachers College today at Shepherdstown. The Rams whipped Frostburg, Potomac State and Gallaudet after dropping the opener to Fairmont State's Falcons.

Negro Weekly Attacks Pitt

PITTSBURGH (UPI) j8 the Pittsburgh Courier, a nationally circulated Negro weekly newspaper, Friday challenged the University of Pittsburgh to clear up its "blurred Negro image" and explain why there are no Negroes on the Panther football squad.

A front-page headline in this week's Courier read:

The bannerline was followed with a page 3 article which asked:

"Do Negro high school football stars 'turn away' from offers to attend the school which the 'Cathedral of Learning' made famous?

"Or does the University of Pittsburgh follow an 'unwritten law' which says in effect — you can come here, but we won't go out of our way to encourage you.' "

Oldest Horse Race In West Set Today For Bay Meadows

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI) — The oldest horse race in the West, the $20,000 Bay Meadows Handicap, will be run Saturday at Bay Meadows with a field of 15 slated to go to the post.

Veteran Johnny Longden, the world's winningest jockey, will be aboard MR. Wag, with a weight of 117 pounds.

This will be the 29th running of a race that was first run in 1934 and has been run at least once every year since — including the World War II years.

Navy Defeats Detroit, 37-19

DETROIT (AP) — Navy, after losing an early 13 point lead, struck from behind fmr three touchdowns in the final period to whip previously undefeated University of Detroit 37-19 before 31,279 Tiger Stadium fans tonight.

Japanese Decide On Olympic Site

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government officially decided Friday to build the Olympic village for the 1964 Tokyo games at Washington Heights, a U.S. military housing area in Tokyo.

The government's decision will be given the Tokyo Olympic Committee some time next week, Foreign Minister Kosaka said.

After the games, the village will be turned into a national park and the housing facilities for the athletes into those for students form Afro-Asian nations, Koaaka added.

Players In Service Are Banned By AFL

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Professional American Football League players who have been called to active duty with the armed forces will not be allowed to play in league games, a San Diego Chargers official was notified Friday.

Les Land said the league office in Dallas announced the decision following a vote taken of owners.

76,000 To See Spartans Clash With Notre Dame

MSU 7-Point Choice, Penn State, Alabama California Favored

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International

Michigan State, a 7-point favorite, throws its no-touchdown defense against Notre Dame's brand new pack of blasting backs in one of the top games on Saturday's blue-ribbon college football program.

All of the nation's 10 top-ranked teams will be in combat and all will be favorites—with the exception of Notre Dame which pits its No. 5 national ranking and comeback hopes against Michigan State's No. 2 ranking.

Three regionally - televised games take the place of a nationally-televised "game of the week" this Saturday, and in these Penn State is a 1-point favorite over Syracuse on eastern screens, Alabama a 6-point choice over Tennessee in the south, and California a -point favorite over Southern California in the west.

76,000 To See Game

But the Michigan State - Notre Dame clash before a capacity crowd of 76,000 at Lansing, Mich., could steal the show nationally. Michigan State reports two defensive stars, Ed Ryan and Mike Currie, definitely out of action and Notre Dame has quarterback Daryle Lamonica limping but probably "in really good shape by game time."

Mississippi, ranked No. 1 in the nation by the UPI board of coaches, is expected to run its record to 5-0 with ease when it meets Tulane in a Saturday night game. Ole Miss is a 28-point favorite.

Texas 4-Point Choice

Texas, No. 3 nationally, is only a 4-point choice over defending champion Arkansas in a game vital to the Southwest Conference race. Iowa, ranked No. 6, is a 13-point choice over Wisconsin, while seventh-ranked Ohio State is rated 7 over Northwestern, eighth ranked Georgia Tech is 7 over Auburn, ninth-ranked Colorado is 19 over Kansas State, and 10th-ranked Louisiana State is picked by 12 over Kentucky at night.

In other leading games:

South — Florida 6 over Vanderbilt, North Carolina 6 over South Carolina, Duke 6 over Clemson, Mississippi State 7 over Georgia, and North Carolina State 7 over Wake Forest.

Midwest—Indiana 3 over Washington State, michigan 7 over Purdue, Minnesota 12 over Illinois, and Missouri 7 over Iowa State.

Southwest — Oklahoma State 2 over Nebraska, Kansas 6 over Oklahoma, Texas A. & M. 6 over Texas Christian, Baylor 12 over Texas Tech, and Rice 14 over Southern Methodist.

Terps Are Favored

Far West and Rockise — UCLA 6 over Pitt, Washington 7 over Stanford, and Maryland 10 over Air Force.

West Virginia At Boston For Game With B.U.

BOSTON (UPI)—West Virginia University's football team has won two consecutive games, one a stunning upset of favored Pitt. Boston University, Saturday night's opponent here, hasn't won a game in four outings. It looks like a cinch.

But not according to Mountaineer Coach Gene Corum. He said Friday BU is "a tough team" despite that winless record.

"They sure have looked good losing," he said following thorough study of scouting reports and movies of Terrier games. "I just hope we don't let down for this one. We can't afford to."

Corum said he didn't think the Mountaineers came to Boston "to read their press clippings" about last week's Pitt win although he said he didn't feel they could reach the peak performances of the past two weeks.

West Virginia snapped an 18-game winless streak by downing Virginia Tech 28-0 Oct. 7 then followed it up with a resounding 20-6 win over Pitt.

Double Pays $1,229

TORONTO (AP) — The largest daily double of the season, $1,229.40, was returned Friday at the new Woodbine track. The big payoff came when Top Field won the second race and paid $211.00. After Mr. Pieman, winner of the first race, paid $16.90.

Of the more than 6,000 fans, 26 $2 double bettors had the combination of six and four. There were no $10 or $5 bets.

Suggs, Jessen Tie For Lead

Shoot First Round 69s At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Seasoned louise Suggs of Austelle, Ga., and trim Ruth Jessen, a five-year pro from Seattle fired duplicate 69's Friday to tie for the lead after one round of the $7,500 San Antonio Civitan Open golf tournament for women.

Miss Suggs, this tourney's defending champion, played in the final threesome of the day and had the lead sewed up until the 16th hole at Brackenridge Park, where she three-putted for a bogey and a tie. Miss Jessen, the blonde slugger who ranks sixth in LPGA money winnings, went out in the first twosome and turned in her 69 in a blistering fast round which took only 2 hours and 18 minutes.

In third place was Marilynn Smith of Jupiter, Fla., with a 70.

The second round of the tournament will be played Saturday with the windup Sunday.

Sugar Robinson To Fight Moyer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sugar Ray Robinson, the most successful comeback boxer in ring history, fights young Denny Moyer Saturday night at Madison Square Garden in a TV 10-rounder that may boost him toward an incredible ninth shot at the middleweight crown or send him into permanent retirement.

It's that kind of a make-or-break fight in which the once-glamorous Robinson, at a ripe 41, faces the classy young contender from Portland, Ore., who is just about half Robinson's age but, nevertheless, seasoned in five years of professional competition.

Sugar Ray, former five-time middleweight champion and one-time welterweight ruler, had to climb off the canvas to win a split decision over unranked Canadian Wilfie Greaves at Detroit, Sept. 25, in his first test on this latest comeback trek.

Terps To Tangle With Air Force

Denver Team Boasts Tight Pass Defense

By The Associated Press

Coach Tom Nugent claims his Maryland backs run with the ball only to supplement the main passing game.

If he sticks by that approach Saturday against the Air Force, the passers better be on target.

The Air Force defense against aerials has been among the tightest in the country. Four opponents completed only 12 out of 44 for a meager 124 yards.

Complete 39 of 71

Maryland backs have thrown the ball 71 times and completed 39. Quarterbacks Dick Novak and Dick Shiner are the main throwers, but Maryland may have a new threat at Denver.

Cliff Melton, originally a quarterback, popped up last week at halfback and threw a 36-yard pass to End Gary Collins.

Nugent has been grooming Melton for defensive halfback. If he stays in the game on offense he could add to the Maryland fire power.

The Terps are in need of a "big" win over the Air Force if they are to recoup the prestige they lost in last week's defeat by North Carolina.

Hopkins Plays W. & L.

Johns Hopkins and undefeated Washington & Lee tangle in Baltimore. Waynesburg is at Frostburg and North Carolina College is at Maryland State in other home encounters.

Western Maryland crosses the Pennsylvania border to Susquehanna, another undefeated eleven. Morgan State crosses over to Delaware State.

Allegany High's Campers scored a pair of touchdowns in the final quarter last night to turn back the LaSalle High Explorers, 19-7, and snap a two-game losing streak in an intra-city football contest at Fort Hill stadium before approximately 4,000 fans. The win was the second in six games for Allegany. LaSalle now is 2-4-0 for the year.

Coach Ed Schwarz's Blue and White gridders marched 51 yards for the winning touchdown early in the fourth period after LaSalle had gone ahead 7-6 as the third period drew to a close. Jim Walker ran over from the two on a beautiful fake into the line and a pitchout from quarterback Fred Shank for the score.

Then the Campers stopped a LaSalle drive on the Allegany 43 with 2:32 left to play and two plays later Mike Harvey, who carried the brunt of the Alco attack with some powerful running throughout the game, cracked over the left side of the line and scampered 56 yards for the final Allegany touchdown.

Walker Scores Twice

Walker scored two of Allegany's six-pointers, racing over from the five midway in the third period for his first TD to break a scoreless deadlock. The two arch rivals battled back and forth without a serious threat through the first two periods before Allegany broke the ice after the kickoff at intermission.

The Campers marched 55 yards for the initial score with Harvey picking up 22 yards in three carries. Jay Miller was stopped in his plunge for the extra point to give Allegany a brief 6-0 lead.

LaSalle came right back to score after the ensuing kickoff as Coach Jimmy Manges' Explorers drove 69 yards in 16 plays for the tying touchdown.

The march was aided considerably by a 15-yard penalty against Allegany which nullified a LaSalle punt that had given the Campers possession of the ball. However, the penalty gave LaSalle a first down on the Camper 35 and the Explorers took the ball over from there. Quarterback Jerry Lowery smashed over from the one for the score.

A 15-yard penalty against LaSalle apparently had cancelled out Terry McElfish's plunge for the extra point but Lowery faded and threw a bulls-eye pass to Sam Brehm in the corner of the end zone for the extra tally which gave LaSalle its 7-6 edge. Brehm made a sparkling catch of the toss a step before he ran out of bounds.

Harvey Gains 186 Yards

Harvey was the standout offensive back for Allegany, carrying the ball on almost 50 per cent of the Camper plays, gaining 186 yards in 23 carries. Numerous times the hard-running halfback appeared to be stopped only to break away for a gain. He picked up gains of 13, 25, 14, 11 and 56 yards in his efforts.

Outstanding defensively was Jim Bowman on the Camper line as he stopped or assisted on most of the Allegany tackles. Best bets for LaSalle were Bill Stakem in the backfield and Don Harden on the line. The lineups:

Pos.—Allegany (19)	LaSalle (7)
LE—Norris	Garlitz
LT—Beachy	Stegmaier

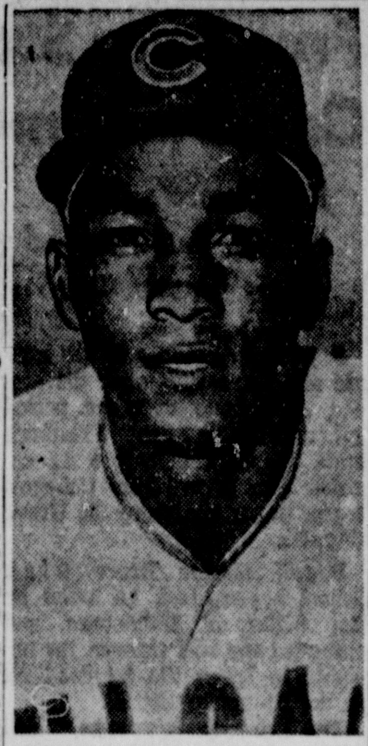
Wilt Scores 57 As Warriors Win

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Wilt Chamberlain shattered two floor scoring marks with a 57 - point outburst Friday night to lead the Philadelphia Warriors to a 122-115 victory over the Los Angeles Lakers in a National Basketball Association game.

Chamberlain's total exceeded his own Convention Hall standard of 56 which he set three times last January against New York, Syracuse and Los Angeles. His 23 points in the second period also topped his own mark of 22 established against the Lakers last Jan. 21.



PICKED AS N.L. TOP ROOKIE —Billy Williams, 23, a Chicago Cubs outfielder, has been named National League Rookie of the Year by a group of newspaper baseball experts.

Colin Smith's point-after-touchdown in the first half was the margin of victory last night as Fort Hill High School's Sentinels eked out a 13-12 decision over the Westminster High School Owls in a Cumberland Valley Athletic League football thriller at Westminster.

Each team scored two touchdowns in the first half and Smith's extra point on a pitchout after the Sentinels' second score decided the issue.

Robinson Runs 90 Yards

Rich Robinson, Fort Hill's sophomore halfback, gave the crowd a thrill, when he took a handoff on his own 10 and raced 90 yards for a touchdown.

The Owls took a 12-6 lead in the second period when Arbaugh passed to Feeser from the 4-yard line.

With 4 seconds remaining in the second period, Ronnie Manges passed to Colin Smith on a play that covered 64 yards and knotted the score at 12-12. Then Smith went over for the only extra point of the game.

The victory was Fort Hill's fourth in six starts, their second by the margin of one point and gave the Sentinels a 2-2 record in the CVAL. Westminster is now 2-5 overall and 1-2 in the league.

Win 11th Straight

The win was Fort Hill's 11th straight over Coach Herb Ruby's Owls since the series started in 1951. It also was the closest.

Scoring five touchdowns and four extra points in the first half, Beall High School mustered its best offensive punch of the season in downing the Colonels of James Wood High School, of Winchester, Va., last night at Beall High Stadium by the score of 34-20.

The victory was the fourth in six starts for Coach Jerry Calhoun's Mountaineers and their fourth straight triumph of the series which opened in 1951.

Bob and Wayne Harper accounted for two touchdowns each while Jim Goebel registered the other Beall six-pointer. Jim Robertson kicked four extra points.

Intercepts Lateral

Bob Harper intercepted a lateral pass and sauntered 40 yards for the first score. Jim Goebel set up the second td when he blocked a punt on the Virginians' 25. Four plays later, Wayne Harper went over from the three.

The Virginians drove from their own 33 for their initial score in the opening period with Ashby toting the ball over from the three. Sullivan passed to Michaels for the point.

Harper Runs 58 Yards

Wayne Harper featured the first drive with a 58-yard sprint to the J.W. 25 and on the next play Bob Harper galloped the remaining yardage into the end zone. Robertson split the uprights for the third straight time on his extra point try.

Jim Goebel intercepted a pass and scooted 35 yards to the J.W. 8 and two plays later he went over for the score.

After a poor punt by J.W. hit on the 32 and rolled back to the 25, Joe Stevens picked up the pigskin and ran it back to the eight. On the seven play Wayne Harper tallied from the three. Robertson made good his fourth try for extra point in five attempts.

James Wood got back in the scoring column before the second period ended when Hepley swiped a pass fired by Brady on his own 46 and went all the way. The placement kick was wide.

Pitt Frosh Win, 29-14

Panthers Defeat West Virginia

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The West Virginia freshman football team failed to emulate its varsity brother Friday and went down to defeat at the hands of the Pitt frosh, 29-14.

The Pitt victory avenged the upset loss the Panther varsity suffered last week at the hands of the Mountaineer varsity.

Fred Mazurek, former Redstone High star, sparked the Pitt attack by scoring on a 29-yard run over tackle and a 95-yard return of a kickoff at the start of the third quarter. Mazurek left the game in the fourth period with a slight back injury.

Pitt quarterback Fran Novak threw touchdown passes to Bill Howley and Jack Mechas. West Virginia's Ed Pastilong scored on a nine-yard run in the first quarter while John Sipple scored on a 67-yard pass play from Pastilong in the fourth period.

Penn Avenue Splits Touch Football Loop Pair With Parkside

Penn Avenue and Parkside split even in an Elementary Touch Football League twin bill yesterday at Penn Avenue Field.

In the Class A contest, Penn Avenue won by thte score of 35-6 while in the Class B tilt Parkside edged Penn Avenue in overtime, 13-12.

Pennsylvania Lifts Liston Suspension

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Heavyweight contender Charles (Sonny) Liston, suspended three months ago following two brushes with the law, was reinstated Friday, clearing the way for the first closed-circuit TV doubleheader in boxing history.

Under the unique arrangement, fans in theaters and other locations will watch Liston meet Albert Westphal of West Germany and heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson face Tom McNeeley for the heavyweight crown on Dec. 4 for one admission.

The title fight will be staged in Toronto's Maple Leaf gardens, while the Liston-Westphal bout will be held in Convention Hall here. Fans watching the Liston-Westphal match "live" will then be treated to a telecast of the Patterson-McNeeley fight.

Bell And Mercer Meet For Title

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Robert Bell, stocky one-time ohio State football player, and Dr. John Mercer, 135-pound, 5-4 optometrist, scored semifinal victories Friday in the North and South Senior Golf Tournament. They'll meet for the title in an 18-hole match Saturday.

Bell, who is 56 and from Worthington, Ohio, won the 18th hole to get even, then went on to edge James Ackerman, 65, of Princeton, N.J., in a 22-hole marathon. A 10-foot birdie putt was the decisive stroke.

Mercer, from Fitchburg, Mass., scored a 2 and 1 victory over J. Wolcott Brown of Sea Girt, N.J., the 1958 champion and runnerup last year.

WAYNESBURG PLAYS AT FROSTBURG STATE TODAY

Cats Seeking 10th Straight In Tri-State; Potomac Invades Takoma Park For Montgomery Tilt

Coach Ron Van Ryswyk's Frostburg State Teachers College football team makes its second of three appearances at home this season when it mets Waynesburg (Pa.) College today at Beall High Stadium at 2 p. m.

The Bobcats will be the underdogs in this one against the Yellow Jackets of the West Penn Conference which includes Grove City, St. Vincent, Westminster, Geneva and Carnegie Tech. Waynesburg comes to the Mountain City with a 3-1 record, having beaten Slippery Rock, Carnegie Tech and St. Vincent while losing to Geneva.

Play 5th Of Season

Frostburg State will be engaging in its fifth contest of the season and owns a 1-3 record. The Bobcats dropped three in a row to Shepherd, Davis & Elkins and District of Columbia Teachers before scoring its lone victory over Bridgewater of Virginia last Saturday, 27-0.

The Mountain City eleven plays Gallaudet in Washington one week from today and winds up its season at home on November 4 with Potomac State College.

Coach Dana "Horse" Lough's Potomac State Catamounts (2-3) will play their first game of the season with a Tri-State College Conference opponent when they tackle Montgomery Junior College today at Takoma Park, Md.

Boast Two Win Streaks

The Keyser team will be striving to keep two winning streaks going in today's contest. The Catamounts will be gunning for their 11th consecutive victory over a school they never have lost to on the gridiron since they opened relations in 1948. The Loughmen also will be going for their tenth straight in the Tri-State Loop in which they never have lost a game since the circuit was formed in 1958. They have been 3-0 annually for the past three years and have two more league games after today — Wesley College of Delaware, at Keyser, Oct. 28, and Baltimore Junior College, away, November 11.

Potomac has beaten Bainbridge Naval and Davis & Elkins and lost to Glenville, Salem and Shepherd this season.

Rams Seek 4th Straight

Coach Jesse Riggleman's Shepherd College Rams will be angling for their fourth straight victory when they clash with Shippensburg (Pa.) Teachers College today at Shepherdstown. The Rams whipped Frostburg, Potomac State and Gallaudet after dropping the opener to Fairmont State's Falcons.

Negro Weekly Attacks Pitt

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Courier, a nationally circulated Negro weekly newspaper, Friday challenged the University of Pittsburgh to clear up its "blurred Negro image" and explain why there are no Negroes on the Panther football squad.

A front-page headline in this week's Courier read:

The bannerline was followed with a page 3 article which asked:

"Do Negro high school football stars 'turn away' from offers to attend the school which the 'Cathedral of Learning' made famous?

"Or does the University of Pittsburgh follow an 'unwritten law' which says in effect — you can come here, but we won't go out of our way to encourage you.' "

Oldest Horse Race In West Set Today For Bay Meadows

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI) — The oldest horse race in the West, the $20,000 Bay Meadows Handicap, will be run Saturday at Bay Meadows with a field of 15 slated to go to the post.

High weight and probable favorite is Physician, who will pack 126 pounds, including jockey Bobby Ford.

Veteran Johnny Longden, the world's winningest jockey, will be aboard MR. Wag, with a weight of 117 pounds.

This will be the 29th running of a race that was first run in 1934 and has been run at least once every year since — including the World War II years.

Navy Defeats Detroit, 37-19

DETROIT (AP) — Navy, after losing an early 13 point lead, struck from behind fmr three touchdowns in the final period to whip previously undefeated University of Detroit 37-19 before 31,279 Tiger Stadium fans tonight.

Japanese Decide On Olympic Site

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government officially decided Friday to build the Olympic village for the 1964 Tokyo games at Washington Heights, a U.S. military housing area in Tokyo.

The government's decision will be given the Tokyo Olympic Committee some time next week, Foreign Minister Kosaka said.

After the games, the village will be turned into a national park and the housing facilities for the athletes into those for students form Afro-Asian nations, Koaaka added.

Players In Service Are Banned By AFL

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Professional American Football League players who have been called to active duty with the armed forces will not be allowed to play in league games, a San Diego Chargers official was notified Friday.

Les Land said the league office in Dallas announced the decision following a vote taken of owners.

76,000 To See Spartans Clash With Notre Dame

MSU 7-Point Choice, Penn State, Alabama California Favored

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International

Michigan State, a 7-point favorite, throws its no-touchdown defense against Notre Dame's brand new pack of blasting backs in one of the top games on Saturday's blue-ribbon college football program.

All of the nation's 10 top-ranked teams will be in combat and all will be favorites—with the exception of Notre Dame which pits its No. 5 national ranking and comeback hopes against Michigan State's No. 2 ranking.

Three regionally - televised games take the place of a nationally-televised "game of the week" this Saturday, and in these Penn State is a 1-point favorite over Syracuse on eastern screens, Alabama a 6-point choice over Tennessee in the south, and California a -point favorite over Southern California in the west.

76,000 To See Game

But the Michigan State - Notre Dame clash before a capacity crowd of 76,000 at Lansing, Mich., could steal the show nationally. Michigan State reports two defensive stars, Ed Ryan and Mike Currie, definitely out of action and Notre Dame has quarterback Daryle Lamonica limping but probably "in really good shape by game time."

Mississippi, ranked No. 1 in the nation by the UPI board of coaches, is expected to run its record to 5-0 with ease when it meets Tulane in a Saturday night game. Ole Miss is a 28-point favorite.

Texas 4-Point Choice

Texas, No. 3 nationally, is only a 4-point choice over defending champion Arkansas in a game vital to the Southwest Conference race. Iowa, ranked No. 6, is a 13-point choice over Wisconsin, while seventh-ranked Ohio State is rated 7 over Northwestern, eighth ranked Georgia Tech is 7 over Auburn, ninth-ranked Colorado is 19 over Kansas State, and 10th-ranked Louisiana State is picked by 12 over Kentucky at night.

In other leading games:

East — Cornell 1 over Yale, Holy Cross over Dartmouth, Princeton 7 over Colgate, and Villanova 7 over Boston College.

South — Florida 6 over Vanderbilt, North Carolina 6 over South Carolina, Duke 6 over Clemson, Mississippi State 7 over Georgia, and North Carolina State 7 over Wake Forest.

Midwest—Indiana 3 over Washington State, michigan 7 over Purdue, Minnesota 12 over Illinois, and Missouri 7 over Iowa State.

Southwest — Oklahoma State 2 over Nebraska, Kansas 6 over Oklahoma, Texas A. & M. 6 over Texas Christian, Baylor 12 over Texas Tech, and Rice 14 over Southern Methodist.

Terps Are Favored

Far West and Rockise — UCLA 6 over Pitt, Washington 7 over Stanford, and Maryland 10 over Air Force.

West Virginia At Boston For Game With B.U.

BOSTON (UPI)—West Virginia University's football team has won two consecutive games, one a stunning upset of favored Pitt. Boston University, Saturday night's opponent here, hasn't won a game in four outings. It looks like a cinch.

But not according to Mountaineer Coach Gene Corum. He said Friday BU is "a tough team" despite that winless record.

"They sure have looked good losing," he said following thorough study of scouting reports and movies of Terrier games. "I just hope we don't let down for this one. We can't afford to."

Corum said he didn't think the Mountaineers came to Boston "to read their press clippings" about last week's Pitt win although he said he didn't feel they could reach the peak performances of the past two weeks.

West Virginia snapped an 18-game winless streak by downing Virginia Tech 28-0 Oct. 7 then followed it up with a resounding 20-6 win over Pitt.

Double Pays $1,229

TORONTO (AP) — The largest daily double of the season, $1,229.40, was returned Friday at the new Woodbine track. The big payoff came when Top Field won the second race and paid $211.00. After Mr. Pieman, winner of the first race, paid $16.90.

Of the more than 6,000 fans, 26 $2 double bettors had the combination of six and four. There were no $10 or $5 bets.

Suggs, Jessen Tie For Lead

Shoot First Round 69s At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Seasoned louise Suggs of Austelle, Ga., and trim Ruth Jessen, a five-year pro from Seattle fired duplicate 69's Friday to tie for the lead after one round of the $7,500 San Antonio Civitan Open golf tournament for women.

Miss Suggs, this tourney's defending champion, played in the final threesome of the day and had the lead sewed up until the 16th hole at Brackenridge Park, where she three-putted for a bogey and a tie. Miss Jessen, the blonde slugger who ranks sixth in LPGA money winnings, went out in the first twosome and turned in her 69 in a blistering fast round which took only 2 hours and 18 minutes.

In third place was Marilynn Smith of Jupiter, Fla., with a 70.

The second round of the tournament will be played Saturday with the windup Sunday.

Sugar Robinson To Fight Moyer

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sugar Ray Robinson, the most successful comeback boxer in ring history, fights young Denny Moyer Saturday night at Madison Square Garden in a TV 10-rounder that may boost him toward an incredible ninth shot at the middleweight crown or send him into permanent retirement.

It's that kind of a make-or-break fight in which the once-glamorous Robinson, at a ripe 41, faces the classy young contender from Portland, Ore., who is just about half Robinson's age but, nevertheless, seasoned in five years of professional competition.

Sugar Ray, former five-time middleweight champion and one-time welterweight ruler, had to climb off the canvas to win a split decision over unranked Canadian Wilfie Greaves at Detroit, Sept. 25, in his first test on this latest comeback trek.

Terps To Tangle With Air Force

Denver Team Boasts Tight Pass Defense

By The Associated Press

Coach Tom Nugent claims his Maryland backs run with the ball only to supplement the main passing game.

If he sticks by that approach Saturday against the Air Force, the passers better be on target.

The Air Force defense against aerials has been among the tightest in the country. Four opponents completed only 12 out of 44 for a meager 124 yards.

Complete 39 of 71

Maryland backs have thrown the ball 71 times and completed 39. Quarterbacks Dick Novak and Dick Shiner are the main throwers, but Maryland may have a new threat at Denver.

Cliff Melton, originally a quarterback, popped up last week at halfback and threw a 36-yard pass to End Gary Collins.

Nugent has been grooming Melton for defensive halfback. If he stays in the game on offense he could add to the Maryland fire power.

The Terps are in need of a "big" win over the Air Force if they are to recoup the prestige they lost in last week's defeat by North Carolina.

Hopkins Plays W. & L.

Johns Hopkins and undefeated Washington & Lee tangle in Baltimore. Waynesburg is at Frostburg and North Carolina College is at Maryland State in other home encounters.

Western Maryland crosses the Pennsylvania border to Susquehanna, another undefeated eleven. Morgan State crosses over to Delaware State.

Keyser High School celebrated homecoming day by rolling up its highest score of the season to rout the Highlanders of Southern High School of Oakland yesterday at Stayman Field, Keyser, by the score of 46-12.

The victory gave Coach Frederick "Tack" Clark's Golden Tornado a 4-0 record in the Potomac Valley Conference and a season overall mark of six wins and one defeat. The loss was Southern's third against four triumphs. Southern has never beaten Keyser in football and suffered its seventh straight defeat in the series which opened in 1955.

Charles "Chuck" Bradfield, Keyser's classy fullback, accounted for three touchdowns, the first on a five-yard run, the second on a 20-yard gallop and the third on a pass from Ed Hawkins which covered 57 yards. Braffield, the leading area and P.V.C. scorer, upped his total to 86 and 67 points, respectively.

Scott Biser scored twice for the Mineral counties, the first time on a 54-yard dash and the second time on a 19-yard aerial from Terry Turbin.

Ed Hawkins tallied on a 15-yard pass from Turbin and Harold Cox intercepted a pass and sprinted 35 yards for Keyser's other six-pointer.

Mel Evans kicked three extra points and Scott Biser accounted for the other conversion on a run.

Jon Thayer, fullback, who is pacing the Garrett Countains in scoring this season, increased his point total to 48 by registering a pair of touchdowns. He scored from the three in the second period and ran over from the two in the third quarter.

Keyser scored in every period and closed with a 20-point plurge after leading 26-12 at the close of the third period.

Romney Eyes First Perfect Season In PVC Since 1953

Hosts Petersburg Today; CVAL Lead At Stake In Hub City

Unbeaten and untied in seven outings, Romney High School's Pioneers will be trying to complete their first perfect season in the Potomac Valley Conference since 1953 when they engage the Vikings of Petersburg High School today at Romney at 2 p.m.

Coach Richard "Dick" McElwee's Pioneers of eight years ago posted a 5-0 record in the P.V.C. by downing Franklin 28-7, Moorefield 13-0, Ridgeley 32-12, Petersburg 31-7 and Keyser 18-13. They were 10-0 for the regular season but lost out in the West Virginia Class B title game to Sistersville, 27-12.

Won Four PVC Games

The present Romney team coached by Roger Parker has whipped Franklin 6-0, Moorefield 27-0, Beall 19-13 and Ridgeley 6-0 and meets the Vikings (3-2-1) in the conference final today. Petersburg lost to Beall, 20-0, played a 13-13 tie with Moorefield, and won its last three games from Franklin 13-7, Ridgeley 20-13 and Circleville 20-13.

Petersburg is not regarded as a pushover by Romney and could give the Pioneers their toughest engagement of the campaign.

If Romney wins today, Keyser (4-0) can tie the Pioneers for the title by beating Petersburg and Beall in its last two conference games.

Berlin (Pa.) High School plays Northern High's Huskies (1-5) in Garrett County today at 1:30 o'clock. Berkeley Springs (1-6) visits Boonsboro (4-1) and Frederick's Cadets battle the South Hagerstown Rebels for the leadership of the Cumberland Valley Athletic League in the Hub City tonight.

CVAL Lead At Stake

Coach Doug Cochran's Rebels lead the race with a 3-0 record while Jack Molesworth's Cadets are 2-0 in the seven school circuit. Neither school has won a football title since the league was revived in 1956.

Ridgeley High's Blackhawks snapped a four-game losing streak yesterday to win their first Potomac Valley Conference decision with a 40 to 6 triumph over West Virginia School for Deaf at Ridgeley.

Mike Bean tallied three touchdowns for Coach Tom O'Connor's Hawks, one on a 97-yard sprint from scrimmage in the second period, to pace Ridgeley to its second win of the season.

The Hawks had lost five straight PVC games before chalking up yesterday's victory and are 2-5 for the overall. The defeat was the third in a row for the West Virginia School for the Deaf and the fifth in six games this season. The Lions are now 1-3 in the conference.

Ridgeley wound up its passing arm yesterday to complete eight aerials for 163 yards and three touchdowns. Lanny Hinkle tossed a 47-yard scoring heave to Gary Cuppett while freshman quarterback Jim Bauman threw two scoring tosses, one 23 yards to Bean and the other 64 yards to Gary Ball. Bean also tallied on a 38-yard runback of an intercepted pass.

Tommy Jividen plunged over from the one late in the fourth period to account for the Lions' only score. The lineups:

Green Bank Tops Circleville, 6-0

Recovering a fumble on the one foot line, Green Bank scored a touchdown three minutes before the game ended and defeated Circleville High School by the score of 6-0 yesterday at Circleville.

Fullback Galford scored the Green Bank touchdown as Circleville suffered its fourth loss against two victories.

Kelso, Cicada Run In Rich Races Today

Jockey Gold Cup Gardenia On Tap

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kelso figures to take another stride toward his second straight horse of the year title and Cicada, leading money winning 2-year-old filly of all time, could wrap up the 1961 championship for juvenile equine misses.

Those two thoroughbreds figure to furnish the high spots of Saturday's gold-laden racing program. Kelso goes against five undistinguished rivals in the $100,000-added Jockey Gold Cup at Aqueduct. Cicada faces eight other title hopefuls in the $75,000-added Gardenia at Garden State Park.

Kelso 1-10 Choice

Kelso, 4-year-old gelding from Mrs. Richard duPont's Bohemia stable, is the 1-10 choice to make the 2 miles of the Gold Cup his seventh victory in eight starts this year. All carry 124 pounds in this weight-for-age event and that package is a mere feather for Kelso, who has toted as much as 136 to victory over better rated horses this year.

With six starters, the Gold Cup will gross $107,800 of which $70,070 goes to the winner. Kelso aready has won $637,485 although he started only twice as a 2-year-old and didn't get into 3-year-old competition until after the rich winter and spring stakes.

Nine To Start

Cicada, from Christopher T. Chenery's stables probably will be the odds-on-choice in the 1 1-16 miles of the Gardenia. She has won 10 of her 15 starts, including stakes in her last five outings, and earned $287,545.

The Chenery miss will pack up 122 pounds, three more than her rivals who include the king Ranch's well-rated Tamarona. With nine starters, the race will gross $161,885 with $97,131 to the winner.

Moss Is Favored In $20,000 Race

MONTEREY, Calif. (UPI) — Stirling Moss of England took over the favorite's role Friday as the stage was set for the $20,000 Pacific Grand Prix on the rolling, twisting Laguna Seca course at Ft. Ord Sunday.

Moss, long noted as one of the world's greatest drivers, will be piloting a Lotus Climax Monte Carlo.

But Moss isn't expected to have things all his own way, by any means. Also entered are such greats as Jack Brabham of Australia, driving a Cooper Monaco Climax; Bruce McLaren, New Zealand, driving a Cooper Monaco Climax; and Roger Ward of United States the 500-winner, piloting a Cooper Buick.

Scores KO In Fifth

Spiker Rites Today — Saw Big Grid Upset

Served In Two Wars — Managed KOG Quint

By C. V. BURNS

FINAL RITES will be conducted here today for Howard M. Spiker, 62, Cumberland realtor and former sports and dance promoter, who was found dead in his car on a parking lot Wednesday night.

"Spike," as he was familiarly known by his many friends, had been troubled by dizzy spells and was scheduled to enter the hospital for a checkup on Thursday.

We first became acquainted with Howard almost forty years ago when he was associated with the K.O.G. (Knights of Goodfellowship) basketball team, was a partner of Calton "Funny" Newnam in the promotion of dances at the old Roseland Academy, which was first opened by Prof. George Daisy, on South Mechanic Street, and assisted Newnam in promoting professional boxing shows for the American Legion at the old frame State Armory building on South Centre Street. Newnam died January 6, 1957.

When Spiker and Francis Johnson managed the K.O.G. quint it played its home games on the third floor of the Jenvey Building, corner of Harrison and South Centre streets.

At Roseland, the Newnam-Spiker management brought many of the big name bands of the 1920s to Cumberland and the hall usually was jammed with trippers of the light fantastic.

A native of Dobbin, Grant county, W. Va., Spiker was a veteran of the First World War, and according to Raymond T. "Pat" Farrell, one of his buddies who helped Gen. John J. Pershing chase Pancho Villa in Mexico in 1916, Howard also re-enlisted in the Navy during the Second World War.

Howard and his brother Harry were the only brothers to serve as commanders of Fort Cumberland Post since the organization was formed in 1919. Harry held that office in 1937 and Howard served in 1949.

"Spike" probably knew as much as anybody about Cumberlanders of the past 50 years and their background. He always took particular interest in sports and he had a remarkable memory when it came to dates of outstanding events of the past.

In 1952 when we started our "As You Were" series, covering a total of approximately 180 sports personalities of the tri-state area, Spiker was No. 2 on the list.

Perhaps the groups that will miss Howard most of all are those who gathered with him at noon each day at the Liberty Tavern and his old cronies with whom he associated in the evenings around the Peoples Drug Store or at Tom's corner.

Many of those who grew up with Howard also knew his father who was a former engineer in charge of the pump houses at the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant.

Four days prior to his death Howard sat in on the Pitt-West Virginia football game at Pittsburgh and it was one of his happiest days as he saw the Mountaineers of his native state upset the Panthers.

We regarded "Spike" as one of our best friends and we feel that with his death marks the passing of one of Cumberland's best liked citizens.

Moorefield High's Yellowjackets stepped out of the Potomac Valley Conference yesterday to chalk up their fourth triumph of the campaign with a 20-6 win over Musselman High on the latter's field.

Following a scoreless first half in which Moorefield threatened three times but did not score, twice being stopped on the one-foot and two-yard lines, the Jackets broke the ice when Jim Flinn plunged over from the three to cap a 38-yard drive in the third period.

The Jackets scored again in the fourth stanza when Bob Redman caught a 48-yard scoring pass from Flinn to give Moorefield a 14-0 lead. Musselman came back to score its only touchdown on a 55-yard drive with quarterback Friddler going over from the four. A 48-yard pass from Friddler to Gess featured the march.

On the first play following the succeeding kickoff, Moorefield's Bean raced 64 yards for his second touchdown to close out the scoring. The lineups:

SS. Peters And Paul Faces St. Patrick's In Crucial Contest

Unbeaten St. Patrick's, the leader, and SS. Peter & Paul, the runner-up, clash in an important Catholic Youth Football League game Sunday at 2 p.m., at Mt. Calvary Field.

A victory would give Coach Father Arthur Bastress' St. Patrick's team the championship while a win for Coach Norman Geatz's eleven would knot the race which ends Sunday, October 29. A tie game tomorrow also ould leave the championship race in doubt until the last game of the season in which St. Patrick's plays at St. Michael's and St. Mary's tackles SS. Peter & Paul.

SS. Peter & Paul only defeat in four games to date came at the hands of St. Patrick's, 13-12, on October 1. The Fayette streeters have beaten St. Michael's 6-0 and St. Mary's 18-7.

St. Patrick's other wins were at the expense of St. Mary's, 19-0, and 8-6, and St. Michael's 13-6.

St. Michael's (1-3) will play St. Mary's Gaels (0-4) Sunday at 2 p.m., at Marydale.

Frostburg State Booters Cop Overtime Battle, 3-2

Roy Beard's Goal In 2nd Extra Period Beats Grove City

Roy Beard's field goal one minute and 25 seconds after the second five-minute overtime period got under way gave Frostburg State Teachers College a 3-2 decision over Grove City College's soccer team yesterday at Grove City, Pa.

Beard, former Bruce High School booter, took an assist by Roy Sigler, of Middletown, and slammed the ball through the uprights to break the 2-2 deadlock in the 98-minute battle.

The victory was the third against two losses and two ties for Coach Kenneth Babcock's Bobcats who are scheduled to play Lycoming College at Williamsport, Pa., next Wednesday.

After a scoreless first period, Joe Levisky, inside right, put the Grovers ahead with a field goal and eight minutes later Beard, with an assist from Sigler, scored for the Bobcats to knot the count at 1-1.

Levisky scored on a dribble-in shot in the third period and Grove City held the lead until after 10 minutes of play in the final stanza when Bill Henaghan booted a field goal to deadlock the score at 2-all.

Frostburg took a total of 50 shots at the goal and Goalie Hank Maclear handled 15 of them.

Geoff Whitmore and Darwin Robeson made six and five saves, respectively, at the uprights for Frostburg. One of Robeson's diving stops bordered on the sensational.

Frostburg had ten corner kicks and Grove City two.

Lineups:

Pos. Frostburg (3)	Grove City (2)

Keyser High School celebrated homecoming day by rolling up its highest score of the season to rout the Highlanders of Southern High School of Oakland yesterday at Stayman Field, Keyser, by the score of 46-12.

The victory gave Coach Frederick "Tack" Clark's Golden Tornado a 4-0 record in the Potomac Valley Conference and a season overall mark of six wins and one defeat. The loss was Southern's third against four triumphs. Southern has never beaten Keyser in football and suffered its seventh straight defeat in the series which opened in 1955.

Charles "Chuck" Bradfield, Keyser's classy fullback, accounted for three touchdowns, the first on a five-yard run, the second on a 20-yard gallop and the third on a pass from Ed Hawkins which covered 57 yards. Brafield, the leading area and P.V.C. scorer, upped his total to 86 and 67 points, respectively.

Scott Biser scored twice for the Mineral counties, the first time on a 54-yard dash and the second time on a 19-yard aerial from Terry Turbin.

Ed Hawkins tallied on a 15-yard pass from Turbin and Harold Cox intercepted a pass and sprinted 35 yards for Keyser's other six-pointer.

Mel Evans kicked three extra points and Scott Biser accounted for the other conversion on a run.

Jon Thayer, fullback, who is pacing the Garrett Countains in scoring this season, increased his point total to 48 by registering a pair of touchdowns. He scored from the three in the second period and ran over from the two in the third quarter.

Keyser scored in every period and closed with a 20-point plurge after leading 26-12 at the close of the third period.

Nugget Wins Three

The Golden Nugget swept three games from the Cumberland Outdoor Club last night in the Allegany County Men's Shuffleboard League. Ronnie Lashbaugh paced the winners with 26 points and K. Troutman was high for the O.D.C. with 13 tallies.

Romney Eyes First Perfect Season In PVC Since 1953

Hosts Petersburg Today; CVAL Lead At Stake In Hub City

Unbeaten and untied in seven outings, Romney High School's Pioneers will be trying to complete their first perfect season in the Potomac Valley Conference since 1953 when they engage the Vikings of Petersburg High School today at Romney at 2 p.m.

Coach Richard "Dick" McElwee's Pioneers of eight years ago posted a 5-0 record in the P.V.C. by downing Franklin 28-7, Moorefield 13-0, Ridgeley 32-12, Petersburg 31-7 and Keyser 18-13. They were 10-0 for the regular season but lost out in the West Virginia Class B title game to Sistersville, 27-12.

Won Four PVC Games

The present Romney team coached by Roger Parker has whipped Franklin 6-0, Moorefield 27-0, Beall 19-13 and Ridgeley 6-0 and meets the Vikings (3-2-1) in the conference final today. Petersburg lost to Beall, 20-0, played a 13-13 tie with Moorefield, and won its last three games from Franklin 13-7, Ridgeley 20-13 and Circleville 20-13.

Petersburg is not regarded as a pushover by Romney and could give the Pioneers their toughest engagement of the campaign.

If Romney wins today, Keyser (4-0) can tie the Pioneers for the title by beating Petersburg and Beall in its last two conference games.

Berlin (Pa.) High School plays Northern High's Huskies (1-5) in Garrett County today at 1:30 o'clock, Berkeley Springs (1-6) visits Boonsboro (4-1) and Frederick's Cadets battle the South Hagerstown Rebels for the leadership of the Cumberland Valley Athletic League in the Hub City tonight.

CVAL Lead At Stake

Coach Doug Cochran's Rebels lead the race with a 3-0 record while Jack Molesworth's Cadets are 2-0 in the seven school circuit. Neither school has won a football title since the league was revived in 1956.

Ridgeley High's Blackhawks snapped a four-game losing streak yesterday to win their first Potomac Valley Conference decision with a 40 to 6 triumph over West Virginia School for Deaf at Ridgeley.

Mike Bean tallied three touchdowns for Coach Tom O'Connor's Hawks, one on a 97-yard sprint from scrimmage in the second period, to pace Ridgeley to its second win of the season.

The Hawks had lost five straight PVC games before chalking up yesterday's victory and are 2-5 for the overall. The defeat was the third in a row for the West Virginia School for the Deaf and the fifth in six games this season. The Lions are now 1-3 in the conference.

Ridgeley wound up its passing arm yesterday to complete eight aerials for 163 yards and three touchdowns. Lanny Hinkle tossed a 47-yard scoring heave to Gary Cuppett while freshman quarterback Jim Bauman threw two scoring tosses, one 23 yards to Bean and the other 64 yards to Gary Ball. Bean also tallied on a 38-yard runback of an intercepted pass.

Tommy Jividen plunged over from the one late in the fourth period to account for the Lions' only score. The lineups:

Green Bank Tops Circleville, 6-0

Recovering a fumble on the one foot line, Green Bank scored a touchdown three minutes before the game ended and defeated Circleville High School by the score of 6-0 yesterday at Circleville.

Fullback Galford scored the Green Bank touchdown as Circleville suffered its fourth loss against two victories.

Kelso, Cicada Run In Rich Races Today

Jockey Gold Cup Gardenia On Tap

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Kelso figures to take another stride toward his second straight horse of the year title and Cicada, leading money winning 2-year-old filly of all time, could wrap up the 1961 championship for juvenile equine misses.

Those two thoroughbreds figure to furnish the high spots of Saturday's gold-laden racing program. Kelso goes against five undistinguished rivals in the $100,000-added Jockey Gold Cup at Aqueduct. Cicada faces eight other title hopefuls in the $75,000-added Gardenia at Garden State Park.

Kelso 1-10 Choice

Kelso, 4-year-old gelding from Mrs. Richard duPont's Bohemia stable, is the 1-10 choice to make the 2 miles of the Gold Cup his seventh victory in eight starts this year. All carry 124 pounds in this weight-for-age event and that package is a mere feather for Kelso, who has toted as much as 136 to victory over better rated horses this year.

With six starters, the Gold Cup will gross $107,800 of which $70,070 goes to the winner. Kelso aready has won $637,485 although he started only twice as a 2-year-old and didn't get into 3-year-old competition until after the rich winter and spring stakes.

Nine To Start

Cicada, from Christopher T. Chenery's stables probably will be the odds-on-choice in the 1 1-16 miles of the Gardenia. She has won 10 of her 15 starts, including stakes in her last five outings, and earned $287,545.

The Chenery miss will pack up 122 pounds, three more than her rivals who include the king Ranch's well-rated Tamarona. With nine starters, the race will gross $161,885 with $97,131 to the winner.

Moss Is Favored In $20,000 Race

MONTEREY, Calif. (UPI) — Stirling Moss of England took over the favorite's role Friday as the stage was set for the $20,000 Pacific Grand Prix on the rolling, twisting Laguna Seca course at Ft. Ord Sunday.

Moss, long noted as one of the world's greatest drivers, will be piloting a Lotus Climax Monte Carlo.

But Moss isn't expected to have things all his own way, by any means. Also entered are such greats as Jack Brabham of Australia, driving a Cooper Monaco Climax; Bruce McLaren, New Zealand, driving a Cooper Monaco Climax; and Roger Ward of United States the 500-winner, piloting a Cooper Buick.

Scores KO In Fifth

Spiker Rites Today — Saw Big Grid Upset

Served In Two Wars — Managed KOG Quint

By C. V. BURNS

FINAL RITES will be conducted here today for Howard M. Spiker, 62, Cumberland realtor and former sports and dance promoter, who was found dead in his car on a parking lot Wednesday night.

"Spike," as he was familiarly known by his many friends, had been troubled by dizzy spells and was scheduled to enter the hospital for a checkup on Thursday.

We first became acquainted with Howard almost forty years ago when he was associated with the K.O.G. (Knights of Goodfellowship) basketball team, was a partner of Calton "Funny" Newnam in the promotion of dances at the old Roseland Academy, which was first opened by Prof. George Daisy, on South Mechanic Street, and assisted Newnam in promoting professional boxing shows for the American Legion at the old frame State Armory building on South Centre Street. Newnam died January 6, 1957.

When Spiker and Francis Johnson managed the K.O.G. quint it played its home games on the third floor of the Jenvey Building, corner of Harrison and South Centre streets.

At Roseland, the Newnam-Spiker management brought many of the big name bands of the 1920s to Cumberland and the hall usually was jammed with trippers of the light fantastic.

A native of Dobbin, Grant county, W. Va., Spiker was a veteran of the First World War, and according to Raymond T. "Pat" Farrell, one of his buddies who helped Gen. John J. Pershing chase Pancho Villa in Mexico in 1916, Howard also re-enlisted in the Navy during the Second World War.

Howard and his brother Harry were the only brothers to serve as commanders of Fort Cumberland Post since the organization was formed in 1919. Harry held that office in 1937 and Howard served in 1949.

"Spike" probably knew as much as anybody about Cumberlanders of the past 50 years and their background. He always took particular interest in sports and he had a remarkable memory when it came to dates of outstanding events of the past.

In 1952 when we started our "As You Were" series, covering a total of approximately 180 sports personalities of the tri-state area, Spiker was No. 2 on the list.

Perhaps the groups that will miss Howard most of all are those who gathered with him at noon each day at the Liberty Tavern and his old cronies with whom he associated in the evenings around the Peoples Drug Store or at Tom's corner.

Many of those who grew up with Howard also knew his father who was a former engineer in charge of the pump houses at the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company plant.

Four days prior to his death Howard sat in on the Pitt-West Virginia football game at Pittsburgh and it was one of his happiest days as he saw the Mountaineers of his native state upset the Panthers.

We regarded "Spike" as one of our best friends and we feel that with his death marks the passing of one of Cumberland's best liked citizens.

Moorefield High's Yellowjackets stepped out of the Potomac Valley Conference yesterday to chalk up their fourth triumph of the campaign with a 20-6 win over Musselman High on the latter's field.

Following a scoreless first half in which Moorefield threatened three times but did not score, twice being stopped on the one-foot and two-yard lines, the Jackets broke the ice when Jim Flinn plunged over from the three to cap a 38-yard drive in the third period.

The Jackets scored again in the fourth stanza when Bob Redman caught a 48-yard scoring pass from Flinn to give Moorefield a 14-0 lead. Musselman came back to score its only touchdown on a 55-yard drive with quarterback Friddler going over from the four. A 48-yard pass from Friddler to Gess featured the march.

On the first play following the succeeding kickoff, Moorefield's Bean raced 64 yards for his second touchdown to close out the scoring. The lineups:

SS. Peters And Paul Faces St. Patrick's In Crucial Contest

Unbeaten St. Patrick's, the leader, and SS. Peter & Paul, the runner-up, clash in an important Catholic Youth Football League game Sunday at 2 p.m., at Mt. Calvary Field.

A victory would give Coach Father Arthur Bastress' St. Patrick's team the championship while a win for Coach Norman Geatz's eleven would knot the race which ends Sunday, October 29. A tie game tomorrow also ould leave the championship race in doubt until the last game of the season in which St. Patrick's plays at St. Michael's and St. Mary's tackles SS. Peter & Paul.

SS. Peter & Paul only defeat in four games to date came at the hands of St. Patrick's, 13-12, on October 1. The Fayette streeters have beaten St. Michael's 6-0 and St. Mary's 18-7.

St. Patrick's other wins were at the expense of St. Mary's, 19-0, and 8-6, and St. Michael's 13-6.

St. Michael's (1-3) will play St. Mary's Gaels (0-4) Sunday at 2 p.m., at Marydale.

Frostburg State Booters Cop Overtime Battle, 3-2

Roy Beard's Goal In 2nd Extra Period Beats Grove City

Roy Beard's field goal one minute and 25 seconds after the second five-minute overtime period got under way gave Frostburg State Teachers College a 3-2 decision over Grove City College's soccer team yesterday at Grove City, Pa.

Beard, former Bruce High School booter, took an assist by Roy Sigler, of Middletown, and slammed the ball through the uprights to break the 2-2 deadlock in the 98-minute battle.

The victory was the third against two losses and two ties for Coach Kenneth Babcock's Bobcats who are scheduled to play Lycoming College at Williamsport, Pa., next Wednesday.

After a scoreless first period, Joe Levisky, inside right, put the Grovers ahead with a field goal and eight minutes later Beard, with an assist from Sigler, scored for the Bobcats to knot the count at 1-1.

Levisky scored on a dribble-in shot in the third period and Grove City held the lead until after 10 minutes of play in the final stanza when Bill Henaghan booted a field goal to deadlock the score at 2-all.

Frostburg took a total of 50 shots at the goal and Goalie Hank Maclear handled 15 of them.

Geoff Whitmore and Darwin Robeson made six and five saves, respectively, at the uprights for Frostburg. One of Robeson's diving stops bordered on the sensational.

Frostburg had ten corner kicks and Grove City two.

Sullivan Leads West Coast Golf

COSTA MESA, Calif. (UPI)—Buddy Sullivan, Yuba City, Calif., pro who led the first round of the $17,500, 72-hole Orange County Open with a 7-under par 64, slipped to a 1-over par 72 Friday but held onto a one-strole lead at 136 after 36 holes as a series of earthquakes jarred the Mesa Verde Country Club course.

In second place after two rounds, with 137s were Jerry Steelsmith, Glendale, Calif., 69-68; Bob Harrison, Pacific Palisades, Calif., 66-71; and veteran Jim Ferrier, Burbank, Calif., 69-67.

Wilson's To Play Tri-State Sunday In Touch League

Wilson Hardware Company's Maroons, tied with the Old Exports for first place in the Adult Touch Football League, will be shooting for their third win of the campaign when they meet Tri-State Discount (0-1) on Sunday at 3 p. m., at Post Field.

In the first game of the twin bill, W. T. Grant's (0-2) will play the Redmen Club (0-1) at 2 p. m.

Game Postponed

BOSTON (UPI) — The Boston Patriots Friday postponed to Sunday 2 p.m. Friday night's American Football League game with the Buffalo Bills because of gale winds and rain from the fringes of tropical storm Gerda.

Tax-Loss Selling Creates Unusual Market Situation

NEW YORK (AP)—Confused by tax-loss selling and switching, the stock market Friday produced enough in the way of selective gains by blue chips to push some market averages to historic highs. Trading was moderately active.

The advance on average was accomplished despite an excess of losers over gainers in the over-all list — a duplication of Thursday's irregular performance.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks, taking off from Thursday's level which equaled the historic peak, advanced .70 to a new mark of 259.40. Industrials rose 1.40, rails declined .30 and utilities rose .40 to their highest point since 1929.

Of 1,285 issues traded, 575 declined and 472 advanced. New highs for the year totaled 40 and new lows 33.

Of the 15 most active stocks, 6 fell, 6 advanced and 3 were unchanged.

Volume was 3.47 million shares compared with 3.85 million Thursday.

The pattern was mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 1.33 million shares compared with 1.47 million Thursday.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were unchanged to a bit higher in slow dealings.

Volume totaled $5.64 million par value compared with $6.36 million Thursday.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) — Prices for grain futures were irregular in mixed dealings Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Wheat closed off ½ to up ⅜, corn unchanged to up ¾, oats unchanged to up ⅞, rye off ¼ to 1⅜ and soybeans unchanged to off ¾.

Trading was relatively slow, and the market had little feature. Profit-taking and hedge sales depressed some contracts, while export buying supported wheat, corn and rye.

In wheat, commission sales increased as the day wore on, but commercial brokers took the offers and held prices mostly steady. Exporters reported sales to Chile, Algeria and Egypt. A large foreign business pended for next week.

Local and commission buying firmed corn. Cash receipts were small, and some demand was based on reports the Commodity Credit Corp. will lessen selling due to smaller arrivals of non-storable corn in Chicago and Iowa.

Oats rose with corn and on small offerings which found a ready demand.

Rye attempted another rally, but the market ran into realizing sales near the close.

Soybeans were also irregular. A firming tendency followed commerical buying, while selling was scattered. Oil prices showed little variation. Meals were also mixed.

West Germany bought around 1,840,000 bushels of corn, and Japan took about 185,000 bushels of soybeans.

Tax-Loss Selling Creates Unusual Market Situation

NEW YORK (AP)—Confused by tax-loss selling and switching, the stock market Friday produced enough in the way of selective gains by blue chips to push some market averages to historic highs. Trading was moderately active.

The advance on average was accomplished despite an excess of losers over gainers in the over-all list — a duplication of Thursday's [illegible]regular performance.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks, taking off from Thursday's level which equaled the historic peak, advanced .70 to a new mark of 259.40. Industrials rose 1.40, rails declined .30 and utilities rose .40 to their highest point since 1929.

Of 1,285 issues traded, 575 declined and 472 advanced. New highs for the year totaled 40 and new lows 33.

Of the 15 most active stocks, 6 fell, 6 advanced and 3 were unchanged.

Volume was 3.47 million shares compared with 3.85 million Thursday.

The pattern was mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 1.33 million shares compared with 1.47 million Thursday.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were unchanged to a bit higher in slow dealings.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI) — Prices for grain futures were irregular in mixed dealings Friday on the Chicago Board of Trade.

Wheat closed off ½ to up ⅜, corn unchanged to up ¾, oats unchanged to up ⅞, rye off ¼ to 1¾ and soybeans unchanged to off ¾.

Trading was relatively slow, and the market had little feature. Profit-taking and hedge sales depressed some contracts, while export buying supported wheat, corn and rye.

In wheat, commission sales increased as the day wore on, but commercial brokers took the offers and held prices mostly steady. Exporters reported sales to Chile, Algeria and Egypt. A large foreign business pended for next week.

Local and commission buying firmed corn. Cash receipts were small, and some demand was based on reports the Commodity Credit Corp. will lessen selling due to smaller arrivals of non-storable corn in Chicago and Iowa.

Oats rose with corn and on small offerings which found a ready demand.

Rye attempted another rally, but the market ran into realizing sales near the close.

Soybeans were also irregular. A firming tendency followed commerical buying, while selling was scattered. Oil prices showed little variation. Meals were also mixed.

West Germany bought around 1,840,000 bushels of corn, and Japan took about 185,000 bushels of soybeans.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear Mother, Annie M. Cross who passed away 1 year ago, Oct. 21, 1960.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed her weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
Her weary nights, her days of pain,
Her weary hours are passed.
Her ever patient, worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.

Sadly missed by
DAUGHTERS & FAMILIES

In loving memory of Frank B. Hymes, who passed away October 21, 1960.

It is Sunset—
I sit all alone as the twilight steals,
It is hard to express just what the heart feels.
I know there's an open Gateway at the end of the Road,
Thru which we each one must pass alone.
Still, I cannot say and I will not say
He is dead — he is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into a faraway land,
And left me wondering how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.

Sadly missed by
HIS WIFE, ISABELLE and
HIS DOG "CINDY"

In loving memory of our daughter, Carol Jean Cox, who was killed 3 years ago, October 21, 1958.

Our loved one's gone from us away,
To dwell in Heaven through endless day.
How sad it was to see her go,
And leave us here who loved her so.
Our home has now a vacant place,
A silent voice and absent face.
We know her smile we'll see no more,
Until we reach that Golden Shore.

Sadly missed by
MOTHER, DAD & BROTHER

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear Mother, Annie M. Cross who passed away 1 year ago, Oct. 21, 1960.

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed her weary eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
Her weary nights, her days of pain,
Her weary hours are passed.
Her ever patient, worn out frame,
Has found sweet rest at last.

Sadly missed by
DAUGHTERS & FAMILIES

In loving memory of Frank B. Hymes, who passed away October 21, 1960.

It is Sunset—
I sit all alone as the twilight steals,
It is hard to express just what the heart feels.
I know there's an open Gateway at the end of the Road.
Thru which we each one must pass alone.
Still, I cannot say and I will not say
He is dead — he is just away.
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
He has wandered into a faraway land.
And left me wondering how very fair
It needs must be since he lingers there.

Sadly missed by
HIS WIFE, ISABELLE and
HIS DOG "CINDY"

In loving memory of our daughter, Carol Jean Cox, who was killed 3 years ago, October 21, 1958.

Our loved one's gone from us away,
To dwell in Heaven through endless day.
How sad it was to see her go,
And leave us here who loved her so.
Our home has now a vacant place,
A silent voice and absent face.
We know her smile we'll see no more,
Until we reach that Golden Shore.

Sadly missed by
MOTHER, DAD & BROTHER

Says Timing Bad

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—It wasn't the police raid, itself, the defendant complained, it was the timing.

"I had three aces and a joker when the police came," Donald Leroy Hall told municipal Judge Harry Grund when he appeared on a gambling charge.

"I was about even up until then," Hall said as the judge fined him. "Now I'm $10 behind."

Plan Evacuation

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Plans to evacuate the 225,000 citizens of Oslo and neighboring Baerum by trains, buses and private cars in case of war were made public Friday by officials.

The plans were published as advertisements in two Oslo newspapers.

Officials reported 50 per cent of the population would be moved into the countryside in the first 24 hours of conflict.

The Russians recently have put three or four times as much effort into oceanography as the United States, according to the National Geographic Society.

Plan Evacuation

OSLO, Norway (AP)—Plans to evacuate the 225,000 citizens of Oslo and neighboring Baerum by trains, buses and private cars in case of war were made public Friday by officials.

The plans were published as advertisements in two Oslo newspapers.

Officials reported 50 per cent of the population would be moved into the countryside in the first 24 hours of conflict.

The Russians recently have put three or four times as much effort into oceanography as the United States, according to the National Geographic Society.

Judge Demands Perjury Probe On Testimony

Two Convicted In Appeal Case

Two teen-age witnesses in a criminal appeal trial yesterday afternoon in Allegany County Circuit Court drew a sharp reprimand from Associate Judge W. Earle Cobey and a warning they could expect further prosecution for perjury when they admitted their earlier testimony in Juvenile Court was false.

Judge Cobey stated from the bench that he will request the state's attorney's office to investigate the question of perjury.

False testimony in Juvenile Court was readily admitted yesterday by James Eugene Bookheimer, 18, now of Everett, Pa., and Charles George Jr., 16, of 615 North Centre Street.

Both Admit

Admissions came from both boys under cross examination by Assistant State's Attorney Donald W. Mason. The prosecutor would read excerpts from the record of testimony in Juvenile Court by both boys and remind them that they changed their stories in Circuit Court.

Both Bookheimer and George said they were telling the truth in Circuit Court but had colored their testimony in Juvenile Court.

Yesterday's appeal was a joint trial for young George and Harry Delton Parker, 626 North Mechanic Street. Both appealed after their conviction July 24 in Juvenile Court.

It seems that Parker's wife, a lay evangelist, was conducting a revival in Eckhart last July. Testimony revealed that a gang of boys had caused a disturbance around the church where Mrs. Parker was holding the revival.

Conviction Upheld

Although there was some conflict in the testimony, Judge Cobey again found Parker guilty of contributing to the delinquency of two juveniles by encouraging them to take mob action against the reported Eckhart gang.

Young George testified that it was Parker's son Larry who actually urged a group of boys including himself to go to Eckhart to combat the gang, which apparently had caused a nuisance around the Eckhart church. Parker had simply made a suggestion concerning possible action in Eckhart, George said.

Judge Cobey concluded that Parker motivated the gang action when the group of North End boys attempted to take the law into their own hands. He imposed a $300 fine or 60 days in jail, the same penalty which had been imposed by Magistrate Louis A. Fatkin in Juvenile Court.

No Gang At Eckhart

Witnesses explained that the group of boys found no rival gang around the church in Eckhart or near the school in that community.

The boys later caused some confusion around a service station at the east end of Frostburg, stopped at another place between Frostburg and Midland, got something to eat at the Midland confectionery operated by Deputy Sheriff William E. "Scotty" Orr and finally ended up at a service station along U. S. Route 40 on Red Hill. They had been drinking beer bought in LaVale.

State Police Sgt. Harry Bosley testified yesterday that he took the boys into custody at the station on Red Hill. He said he found a .22 caliber revolver in the left pants pocket of young George. A baseball bat and a brakeman's club were taken from under the seat of Bookheimer's car.

Three boys who were fined $200 each in Juvenile Court as delinquent minors did not appeal their convictions. However, George, who was ordered to the Maryland Training School for Boys, did appeal.

Terms Suspended

Although Judge Cobey was disturbed by George's admission of false testimony, he decided that his penalty should be no more severe than that imposed on the other boys. As a result he fined him $200. He also gave the boys an indeterminate sentence in the Maryland Training School for Boys, which he suspended for three years as long as the boy abides by the parole officer's directives.

Earl E. Manges was attorney for young George while John C. Sullivan was attorney for Parker.

Both Parker and the George boy, were committed to jail pending the payment of their fines. George was released about 6 p. m. when his fine was paid.

Speaker Will Discuss Water Conservation

CARL J. JOHNSON

Carl J. Johnson, conservation consultant and deputy director of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin, will be the speaker at Allegany Soil Conservation District Supervisors annual cooperators' meeting October 26 at LaVale Fire hall.

The meeting is being held this month in observance of Maryland Land Week.

Mr. Johnson will discuss water conservation with particular emphasis on the Upper Potomac River and future proposals for dams in this area.

A native of Maine, Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the University of Maine with a B.S. degree in forestry. Prior to his present position he has served in Soil Conservation Service in Virginia, was extension forester at West Virginia University and director of conservation in West Virginia.

Wilbert Paul, chairman of Allegany district supervisors, said reservations are not necessary for the program, which gets underway at 8 p.m. Members are invited to bring their families and guests.

Lee And Mester Trade Jibes At Teacher Parley

BALTIMORE (AP)—Undertones of a political tug-of-war continued Friday in the second day of the Maryland State Teachers Association's 94th annual convention.

Del. Blair Lee III, D-Montgomery, answered charges of a Tawes Administration aide that Lee led the opposition two years ago to a teachers' salary program.

Edmund C. Mester, executive assistant to Gov. Tawes, said Lee succeeded in having the four-year administration pay bill returned to committee, where it was killed during the 1959 legislature.

The bill would have established a $4,000-$6,000 minimum pay scale over a four-year period. Lee said Friday he considered it "bad legislation" because the bill called for the expenditure of millions of dollars without establishing a way of financing.

Some 20,000 Maryland public school teachers are attending the convention which ends Saturday. They attended classes devoted to new teaching skills and techniques during the morning Friday.

The classes were conducted in Baltimore area colleges, high schools, hotels, a hospital and at Friendship International Airport about 15 miles south of the city. One of the study sessions was held at Montgomery Blair High School in suburban Washingtn.

Later, in the afternoon, Dr. George B. Brain, superintendent of schools for Baltimore City, told a general session at the Fifth Regiment Armory that citizens who are unacquainted with basic human values hold a menace for this country's future.

"The democratic idea here in the United States requires an intelligent citizenry and also requires individual intelligence, ability and courage to make the right

$3 Million Is Allocated In ABL Program

Will Accelerate Polaris Research

The Navy Department announced yesterday that a $3,000,000 supplemental agreement to an existing contract with Allegany Ballistics Laboratory has been issued by the Bureau of Weapons.

The funds will be used for an accelerated and continued research program on solid propellants for the Polaris missile.

A spokesman for the Navy said last night that the $3,000,000 allocation entails quite a few phases of the program and will probably include buildings, equipment and other necessary facilities in the Polaris missile program.

The second-stage motor of the A2 Polaris missile was designed and developed at ABL.

One spokesman for ABL said the additional funds came as "quite a surprise" to him and he pointed out it would be used for research and development, although he had no official word in regard to the added allocation.

The announcement was made yesterday through the offices of Senator John Marshall Butler and Senator J. Glenn Beall in Washington.

ZoningOrdinance Becomes Effective On November 1

Regulations setting up interim zoning will become effective November 1 as a result of approval of the lengthy, 19-section ordinance yesterday by the Board of Allegany County Commissioners.

Several minor changes were enacted yesterday in the final draft before the ordinance was enacted.

At the suggestion of Earl E. Manges, local attorney, the board made one more alteration, which keeps confidential and off the public records the filing of uses intended for land under option or purchased for a specific use in a certain section.

Mr. Manges pointed out, and the commissioners agreed, that it would not be fair for competitive reasons to list the intended use of any site.

Court Affirms Conviction

George W. Collins Jr., RFD 4, Mexico Farms, was given a two-month suspended sentence in the Allegany County Jail yesterday by Associated Judge W. Earle Cobey after Collins pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly.

Collins had appealed to Circuit Court after he was sentenced by Trial Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt to three months in the Maryland House of Correction July 7 after having been found guilty of being drunk and disorderly and threatening the life of Mrs. Ada F. Collins.

Fines totalling $125 plus court costs were levied against Joseph Leo Higgins, 57, of Little Orleans, yesterday by Judge Cobey, who heard his appeal in Circuit Court.

Higgins was fined $100 on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol and another $25 on a reckless driving charge. Both fines were identical to those imposed earlier by Magistrate Russell V. Nierman of Flintstone.

The Trial Magistrate Court conviction of Joe Hemmis, 111 West Second Street, was affirmed yesterday when he dropped his appeal. Hemmis had been fined $25 on a charge of creating a disturbance and another $10 on a charge of destroying private property, a wire fence. Trial Magistrate Weatherholt had heard the cases originally.

Clinic At Oldtown

Hagers-Town Almanack Predicts A Hard Winter

HAGERSTOWN (AP) — It's going to be a cold, snowy winter in Maryland this year, if the predictions of the "Hagers-Town and Country Almanack" come true.

The Almanack, which was fairly accurate in its weather predictions last year, says the main blast of cold and snowy weather will begin after the first of the year.

The 1962 edition of the journal now is being distributed in Maryland and 34 other states.

Although this year's edition predicts snow or rain for six days in December, the real onslaught will begin in January, when the words "cold," "blustery," "hard frost," "frost" and "wind" accompany the word "snow."

The forecast calls for snow and stormy weather on January 5, 6, 7 and 8. Snow or rain is expected on January 19, 20, 21 and 22; again on January 25 and 26 and once again on January 30 and 31.

Between the snowstorms it will be cold, windy, blustery or partly cloudy, with the exceptions of January 1, 2, 12, 13, 14, 15, 27, 28 and 29 when it will be fair and cold.

Snow or rain is predicted for February 4, 5, 6, 10, 11, 12, 13, 19, 20, 21, 22, 26, 27 and 28. February 1, 2 and 3 will be unsettled as will be February 17 and 18. The Almanack does not explain what "unsettled" means. The other days in the month will be a mixture of fair, cold, windy, partly cloudy and frosty.

Things begin to improve the next month, with snow predicted only on March 20, 21, 22 and 23. But the Almanack does not hedge about those four days. It makes the flat prediction of "cold, snow, stormy" for that period. No mention of "rain or snow" — just snow.

December is the next month in 1962 expected to have snow. The Almanack says snow will appear on December 29, 30 and 31.

The 1961 edition of the journal said snow would fall this December 11, 12, 13 and again Dec. 24, 25 and 26.

Brush Fire Threatens Homes Here

Wind Fans Blaze On Hillside

City firemen who battled brush fires the past two days are reminding parents to keep a closer watch on their children who could start such fires while playing with matches.

A number of homes in the vicinity of Hawthorne and Maryland avenues were threatened yesterday when a brush fire, fanned by the wind, swept up the hillside in that section of the city.

Quite a few telephone calls were received about 3:25 p. m. yesterday from residents who notified firemen of the brush fire which spread up the hillside.

South End firemen were the first on the scene and by radio called for an assist from firemen at Central station, who were out about half an hour although the firemen from South End did not tap in at the station until about 5:17 p. m.

At approximately 3:50 p. m. the firemen from West Side assisted in extinguishing a fire at the Midtown Parking Lot, Bedford and Liberty streets, when a minor fire did some damage to an auto.

Pa. Glider Pilot Aloft Over Five Hours Here

Jack McGonigle, Canonsburg, Pa., who has been piloting a sailplane over the Cumberland area in his spare time these past few weekends, remained aloft over five hours Monday and qualified for a Silver C Badge in soaring.

A few years ago he completed the altitude gain and distance requirements at Grand Prairie, Texas. Those two requirments plus duration are necessary to receive the badge from the Soaring Society of America.

Mr. McGonigle, who has been flying gliders about six years, became interested in soaring while he lived in Corning, N. Y., which is located not far from Elmira, internationally known for sailplaning.

On Monday he climbed into a Schweizer 1-26 owned by Richard Huppertz of Wilkinsburg, Pa. and was towed aloft by a Piper Super Cub piloted by James Abe of Wiley Ford, who released the glider at 3,000 feet over Knobley Mountain.

The longest Mr. McGonigle was aloft previous to his Monday flight was about half an hour over the Canonsburg area. He learned through other glider enthusiasts that conditions over the Cumberland area are much better for soaring.

This was proven in his flight this week. For the past three weekends, Mr. MCGonigle, his wife and two small boys have journeyed to the local airport in order that he might get in some soaring.

Cub Pack Meeting Scheduled Monday

Cub Pack Two will hold its monthly meeting on Monday at 7 p. m. in the home of Henry Hart Post 1411, VFW.

Boys between the ages of eight and 11, who are interested in joining the unit, are asked to attend the meeting with their parents.

Housing Notes Sold At 1.65 Per Cent

The 361-day notes were sold to the Chemical Corn Exchange Bank of New York City. The last notes sold by the authority cost 1.83 per cent interest.

Piedmont Moose Pays $211 Fine

Piedmont Lodge 1120, Loyal Order of Moose, paid a total of $211 fine and costs Thursday after entering a plea of nolo contendere before Justice of the Peace Madalyn Bazzle in Keyser. The charges resulted from a raid on the club by West Virginia State Police and Piedmont officials on October 1.

Miss Bazzle said the plea was entered by the organization through its attorney, Jack Mullen, of Westernport. The lodge was ordered to pay $105.50 for the possession of liquor for sale and $105.50 for the possession of gambling devices found in the club.

Medical Care For Aging Will Be Discussed

Public Meeting Set Next Friday

The meeting, described as a "getting to know the facts" session, will be held at West Side School on Paca Street at 8 p.m. Friday.

A question and answer session will follow the panel discussion.

Doctors Sponsor Meeting

Sponsors of the meeting are the Allegany-Garrett County Medical Society, its woman's auxiliary, and the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, Maryland's state medical association, has opposed the King Bill on the grounds that it won't help those aging persons who need medical care most.

Some 25,000 Marylanders, over 65, the faculty points out, are not eligible for Social Security and thus could not benefit from the program.

Also, minimum hospital and outpatient fees set up by the King Bill would have to be paid by the patient. Under the present medical care program in Maryland an indigent or medically indigent patient pays nothing.

Supported Kerr-Mills

An indigent person is defined as one eligible for public assistance (welfare). A medically indigent person is one who has a specified minimum income in relation to family size and can handle ordinary expenses, but who lacks money for medical treatment.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, which proposed a study of the need for medical care in 1938 and helped bring it into being, supported the Kerr-Mills supplement under which Maryland's medical program with the help of federal funds has been expanded to cover 11,000 persons who formerly were not eligible. More than 2,800 are over 65.

Today Is CUF Day In Ridgeley And Wiley Ford

Today is County United Fund Day in Ridgeley and Wiley Ford, W.Va.

Members of the Ridgeley Lions Club will contact businessmen of the two communities to solicit contributions to the 1961 Fifth Mighty County United Fund Campaign.

The goal in the two communities is $138, said Mr. Swadley.

Aging Survey Shows Progress

About 700 survey forms on the needs of aged citizens have been returned to Allegany County Commission on the Problems of the Aging, it was reported at Thursday's meeting of the commission held in the County Commissioners meeting room at the Court House.

Rev. Robert W. Current, who presided, said the commission will still be glad to receive any surveys that were not turned in at the meeting.

From the survey the needs of the aged in this county will be determined and recommendations will be made to the state commission. Rev. Mr. Current said the matter of processing the forms will be started soon.

Announcement was made of the Cumberland Conference on Medical Care for the Aging, sponsored by Allegany - Garrett County Medical Society, its women's auxiliary and the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, to be held October 27 at West Side School.

Rev. Mr. Current reported that he and several other members of the commission have been asked to speak to different civic groups to explain purposes, plans and activities of the local commission. A committee will be appointed to handle such requests.

Area YFC Official Will Speak Here

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schultz Jr., Hampstead, will be the guest speaker and vocalist respectively at the Tri-State Youth for Christ rally today at 7:45 p.m. in the auditorium of First Methodist Church, 1707 Frederick Street.

Mr. Schultz is the vice president of the Eastern States Youth for Christ International and directs Youth for Christ rallies in Hampstead.

Youth To See Film

Ohio Pastor To Conduct Mission At St. Paul's

REV. JAMES N. FISHER

Rev. James N. Fisher, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, New Philadelphia, Ohio, will conduct a four-day mission at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, corner of Washington and North Smallwood streets.

Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of St. Paul's Church, said the mission is called "The Family for Christ," and will be held on four consecutive days starting on Monday, October 30.

An informal hymn sing will be held each evening at 7:30 p. m. and the mission service will begin at 7:45 p. m.

On the first evening of the mission, Rev. Mr. Fisher will speak on "The Family Faith." Other sermon topics will be: Tuesday—"The Family Bible." Wednesday—"The Family Altar," and Thursday — "The Family Pew."

The closing rally of the mission will be held Friday evening, November 3, with Rev. E. Raymond Shaheen, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Silver Spring, as guest speaker.

Four luncheons also are scheduled during the mission at various Lutheran Churches in the area. St. John's Church will be the host for the luncheon on October 30. Other luncheons are set for October 31 at St. Luke's; November 1, St. Paul's, Frostburg, and November 2 at St. Paul's, Cumberland. All the luncheons will begin at noon and the public is invited to attend and visit with the pastors, mission preachers and laymen.

Rev. Mr. Fisher graduated from Gettysburg (Pa.) College in 1934, and graduated from Gettysburg in 1938.

His first pastorate was at Pine Grove Mills, Pa., from 1938 to 1943. He also served churches at Johnstown, Pa., Davidsville, Pa., and has been pastor of his present church since 1947.

While at New Philadelphia, Rev. Mr. Fisher has served as chairman of the conference stewardship committee; chairman of the adult work of the board of christian education and president of the board of the City Youth Center. He also has been active in the Lions Club there.

City Collects About $700,000 Of 1961 Taxes

It was a big day at the City Tax Office yesterday, when more than $198,000 of 1961 taxes were taken in by 2 p. m.

Actual collections for the day will probably reach the $250,000 mark, as collections continued excellent until the office closed at 5 p. m., and workers had not had time to process a fat pile of payments which came in by mail.

The collections made by 2 p. m. brought total payments to some $700,000, or 54.3 per cent of the $1,289,080 tax levy, according to Mrs. Lucile Roeder, finance commissioner.

The percentage of collections is actually better than the 54.3 per cent indicates, since not all taxes have been billed.

Monday will be the last day on which payments can be made without interest. The tax office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and mailed payments may be made at par if postmarked by midnight Monday.

FAA Official To Speak At Pilots Dinner Here

An official of the Federal Aviation Administration in Washington will be guest speaker at the fourth annual dinner of the Cumberland Pilots Association next week.

He is George D. Stathers, chief of pilot training and certification section, Flight Standard Service of the FAA. The dinner will begin at 6 p. m. Saturday, October 28 at the Cumberland Country Club.

His topic will be "Future Plans for the Private Pilot." Master of ceremonies will be G. Wyatt Brenaman.

An installation of officers will be held during the dinner program, which will be followed by a social hour.

Officers who will be installed include Quinter Fike, LaVale, president; Lorimer Twigg, LaVale, vice president; Mrs. Bruce Dawson, treasurer; Mrs. George S. Nash Jr., corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert K. Poling, recording secretary.

A program of entertainment will be planned. Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Dawson at Gurley's Garage or from George S. Nash, manager of the Cumberland Municipal Airport.

The dinner is open to anyone in the area who is interested in flying.

Appeals Review Set Tuesday In Amcelle Cases

A review of appeals filed by workers of the Amcelle plant of Celanese Fibers Company will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the local office of the Maryland Department of Employment Security.

Bernard Streett, DES special examiner, is expected to preside at the review of appeals filed by workers whose claims for unemployment have been denied.

The review will be the third study made by the DES in the case involving a dispute regarding work assignments in the extrusion department of the plant.

Several weeks ago, a DES examiner ruled that unemployed workers, with three exceptions, were to be denied benefits on grounds that a labor dispute existed.

Late in September, Mr. Streett held a hearing on the claims of workers, based on appeals filed by Melvin C. Harris, Charles H. Brode and Lillian C. Burch.

Last week, Mr. Streett reversed a ruling appealed by Mr. Harris and recinded an indefinite suspension of benefits imposed August 27.

He disapproved the appeals filed by Charles H. Brode, a spinning operator in the extrusion department, and Lillian C. Burch, a yarn winder in the textile department.

His ruling was that unemployment for groups of workers represented in the Brode and Burch appeals was due to a work stoppage resulting from a labor dispute.

Leslie J. Clark, local attorney, will represent the claimants who are members of Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America, and Melvin Sloan, vice president, will sit in for James R. Stewart, president, who was admitted to Memorial Hospital Tuesday for medical treatment.

Cancer Study Kits Are Due

Group captains who are taking part in the cancer prevention study in Allegany County are requested to return their kits to headquarters of the Allegany County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, 128 Union Street, as soon as possible.

The captains received the kits last week and distributed the questionnaires to some 1,100 families in the county who are taking part in the six-year study.

Persons who are enrolled in the survey will be contacted each year for six years in order that information can be kept up to date. This is the third year of the study and participants are asked to fill out a simple card.

Captains are reminded that the entire kit must be returned to the cancer office, including the outer envelopes which contain pertinent code numbers and information needed for the survey.

Union Will Meet

Local 568, Iron Workers Union, will meet today at 8 p. m. in the Allegany Labor Temple.

Dance Tonight

The Baltimore Pike Volunteer Fire Company and its auxiliary will hold a round and square dance tonight from 9 to midnight at Minke's Cottage Inn, with music by Wayne Brown's orchestra. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Yesterday's edition of The Cumberland News erroneously stated that the dance would be held last night.

Four Injured When Car Rams Into Tree Here

Brother, Sister Are Hospitalized

Four persons were injured and two of them were hospitalized yesterday after the car in which they were riding rammed into a tree near the intersection of Fayette and Allegany streets.

Admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital were Miss Margaret I. Scott, 18, of 507 Rose Hill Avenue and her brother, John E. Scott, 14.

City Police Detective Kenneth Morrissey said Mr. Scott was driving east on Fayette Street when the brakes of the car failed in the 500-block.

He attempted to stop the car by changing gears but it continued out of control. Meanwhile, a car was attempting to turn off Fayette Street onto Allegany Street.

In an effort to avoid hitting the other car, Scott drove up over the sidewalk and rammed into a tree, demolishing the vehicle.

The accident occurred about 5:15 p.m. and the sister and brother were admitted to the hospital about 5:30 p.m.

Police Officers James Swann and Donald Boggs assisted in the investigation.

Eligible Urged To Apply Now For Benefits

Thousands of dollars in Social Security benefits may be lost to a number of retired workers or their survivors if they do not apply for their payments before the end of this month, according to Walter R. Campbell, manager of the Cumberland Social Security Office.

With the 1961 amendments to the Social Security Law crowding the changes of late last year from the public eye, Mr. Campbell said, many people affected by the 1960 amendments have apparently not yet learned of their eligibility for payments.

These three groups were made newly eligible for benefits beginning with the month of October 1960:

1. Those persons made eligible for benefits under the 1960 provision which reduced the amount of work needed to qualify for payments (now even further reduced under this year's amendments).

2. Survivors of workers who died between March 31, 1938, and January 1, 1940. (These benefits had been payable only to survivors of workers who died in 1940 or later.)

3. Aged dependent widowers of women workers who died before September 1950, when this type of benefit was not payable.

Workers who have been totally disabled for a year and a half or more and their dependents, may lose some back payments if they do not apply for their Social Security benefits before the end of November.

Under the law, Social Security payments may be retroactive for up to 12 months, Mr. Campbell explained. Therefore, for those persons who became eligible for payments in October of last year, when most of the 1960 amendments went into effect, each month of delay in applying for their benefits will now mean a month's benefit lost.

Also, there are many aged workers who have not applied for benefits because they feel they are now earning above the maximum to be eligible for payments, Mr. Campbell added. They may be wrong, he said, especially since new changes in the law have been made. In fact they may be eligible for payments for some months of 1961, if not for the entire year.

Moreover, he pointed out, even if they are not eligible for payments now, by applying now, they can receive their benefits as soon as they do become eligible.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Keyser, Oldtown, a daughter yesterday.

Two Convicted In Appeal Case

Two teen-age witnesses in a criminal appeal trial yesterday afternoon in Allegany County Circuit Court drew a sharp reprimand from Associate Judge W. Earle Cobey and a warning they could expect further prosecution for perjury when they admitted their earlier testimony in Juvenile Court was false.

Judge Cobey stated from the bench that he will request the state's attorney's office to investigate the question of perjury.

False testimony in Juvenile Court was readily admitted yesterday by James Eugene Bookheimer, 18, now of Everett, Pa., and Charles George Jr., 16, of 615 North Centre Street.

Both Admit

Admissions came from both boys under cross examination by Assistant State's Attorney Donald W. Mason. The prosecutor would read excerpts from the record of testimony in Juvenile Court by both boys and remind them that they changed their stories in Circuit Court.

Both Bookheimer and George said they were telling the truth in Circuit Court but had colored their testimony in Juvenile Court.

Yesterday's appeal was a joint trial for young George and Harry Delton Parker, 626 North Mechanic Street. Both appealed after their conviction July 24 in Juvenile Court.

It seems that Parker's wife, a lay evangelist, was conducting a revival in Eckhart last July. Testimony revealed that a gang of boys had caused a disturbance around the church where Mrs. Parker was holding the revival.

Conviction Upheld

Although there was some conflict in the testimony, Judge Cobey again found Parker guilty of contributing to the delinquency of two juveniles by encouraging them to take mob action against the reported Eckhart gang.

Young George testified that it was Parker's son Larry who actually urged a group of boys including himself to go to Eckhart to combat the gang, which apparently had caused a nuisance around the Eckhart church. Parker had simply made a suggestion concerning possible action in Eckhart, George said.

Judge Cobey concluded that Parker motivated the gang action when the group of North End boys attempted to take the law into their own hands. He imposed a $300 fine or 60 days in jail, the same penalty which had been imposed by Magistrate Louis A. Fatkin in Juvenile Court.

No Gang At Eckhart

Witnesses explained that the group of boys found no rival gang around the church in Eckhart or near the school in that community.

The boys later caused some confusion around a service station at the east end of Frostburg, stopped at another place between Frostburg and Midland, got something to eat at the Midland confectionery operated by Deputy Sheriff William E. "Scotty" Orr and finally ended up at a service station along U. S. Route 40 on Red Hill. They had been drinking beer bought in LaVale.

State Police Sgt. Harry Bosley testified yesterday that he took the boys into custody at the station on Red Hill. He said he found a .22 caliber revolver in the left pants pocket of young George. A baseball bat and a brakeman's club were taken from under the seat of Bookheimer's car.

Three boys who were fined $200 each in Juvenile Court as delinquent minors did not appeal their convictions. However, George, who was ordered to the Maryland Training School for Boys, did appeal.

Terms Suspended

Although Judge Cobey was disturbed by George's admission of false testimony, he decided that his penalty should be no more severe than that imposed on the other boys. As a result he fined him $200. He also gave the boys an indeterminate sentence in the Maryland Training School for Boys, which he suspended for three years as long as the boy abides by the parole officer's directives.

Earl E. Manges was attorney for young George while John C. Sullivan was attorney for Parker.

Both Parker and the George boy, were committed to jail pending the payment of their fines. George was released about 6 p. m. when his fine was paid.

Food Distribution

Surplus government food will be distributed at the city building in Ridgeley on Monday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Eligible residents of that community, Carpenter's Addition, Wiley Ford, Short Gap and Patterson Creek, are asked to bring their own containers.

Speaker Will Discuss Water Conservation

CARL J. JOHNSON

Carl J. Johnson, conservation consultant and deputy director of the Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin, will be the speaker at Allegany Soil Conservation District Supervisors annual cooperators' meeting October 26 at LaVale Fire hall.

The meeting is being held this month in observance of Maryland Land Week.

Mr. Johnson will discuss water conservation with particular emphasis on the Upper Potomac River and future proposals for dams in this area.

A native of Maine, Mr. Johnson is a graduate of the University of Maine with a B.S. degree in forestry. Prior to his present position he has served in Soil Conservation Service in Virginia, was extension forester at West Virginia University and director of conservation in West Virginia.

Wilbert Paul, chairman of Allegany district supervisors, said reservations are not necessary for the program, which gets underway at 8 p.m. Members are invited to bring their families and guests.

Lee And Mester Trade Jibes At Teacher Parley

BALTIMORE (AP)—Undertones of a political tug-of-war continued Friday in the second day of the Maryland State Teachers Association's 94th annual convention.

Del. Blair Lee III, D-Montgomery, answered charges of a Tawes Administration aide that Lee led the opposition two years ago to a teachers' salary program.

Edmund C. Mester, executive assistant to Gov. Tawes, said Lee succeeded in having the four-year administration pay bill returned to committee, where it was killed during the 1959 legislature.

The bill would have established a $4,000-$6,000 minimum pay scale over a four-year period. Lee said Friday he considered it "bad legislation" because the bill called for the expenditure of millions of dollars without establishing a way of financing.

Some 20,000 Maryland public school teachers are attending the convention which ends Saturday. They attended classes devoted to new teaching skills and techniques during the morning Friday.

The classes were conducted in Baltimore area colleges, high schools, hotels, a hospital and at Friendship International Airport about 15 miles south of the city. One of the study sessions was held at Montgomery Blair High School in suburban Washingtn.

Later, in the afternoon, Dr. George B. Brain, superintendent of schools for Baltimore City, told a general session at the Fifth Regiment Armory that citizens who are unacquainted with basic human values hold a menace for this country's future.

"The democratic idea here in the United States requires an intelligent citizenry and also requires individual intelligence, ability and courage to make the right

$3 Million Is Allocated In ABL Program

Will Accelerate Polaris Research

The Navy Department announced yesterday that a $3,000,000 supplemental agreement to an existing contract with Allegany Ballistics Laboratory has been issued by the Bureau of Weapons.

The funds will be used for an accelerated and continued research program on solid propellants for the Polaris missile.

A spokesman for the Navy said last night that the $3,000,000 allocation entails quite a few phases of the program and will probably include buildings, equipment and other necessary facilities in the Polaris missile program.

The second-stage motor of the A2 Polaris missile was designed and developed at ABL.

One spokesman for ABL said the additional funds came as "quite a surprise" to him and he pointed out it would be used for research and development, although he had no official word in regard to the added allocation.

The announcement was made yesterday through the offices of Senator John Marshall Butler and Senator J. Glenn Beall in Washington.

ZoningOrdinance Becomes Effective On November 1

Regulations setting up interim zoning will become effective November 1 as a result of approval of the lengthy, 19-section ordinance yesterday by the Board of Allegany County Commissioners.

Several minor changes were enacted yesterday in the final draft before the ordinance was enacted.

At the suggestion of Earl E. Manges, local attorney, the board made one more alteration, which keeps confidential and off the public records the filing of uses intended for land under option or purchased for a specific use in a certain section.

Mr. Manges pointed out, and the commissioners agreed, that it would not be fair for competitive reasons to list the intended use of any site.

Court Affirms Conviction

George W. Collins Jr., RFD 4, Mexico Farms, was given a two-month suspended sentence in the Allegany County Jail yesterday by Associated Judge W. Earle Cobey after Collins pleaded guilty to being drunk and disorderly.

Collins had appealed to Circuit Court after he was sentenced by Trial Magistrate F. Allan Weatherholt to three months in the Maryland House of Correction July 7 after having been found guilty of being drunk and disorderly and threatening the life of Mrs. Ada F. Collins.

Fines totalling $125 plus court costs were levied against Joseph Leo Higgins, 57, of Little Orleans, yesterday by Judge Cobey, who heard his appeal in Circuit Court.

Higgins was fined $100 on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol and another $25 on a reckless driving charge. Both fines were identical to those imposed earlier by Magistrate Russell V. Nierman of Flintstone.

The Trial Magistrate Court conviction of Joe Hemmis, 111 West Second Street, was affirmed yesterday when he dropped his appeal. Hemmis had been fined $25 on a charge of creating a disturbance and another $10 on a charge of destroying private property, a wire fence. Trial Magistrate Weatherholt had heard the cases originally.

Clinic At Oldtown

Hagers-Town Almanack Predicts A Hard Winter

HAGERSTOWN (AP) — It's going to be a cold, snowy winter in Maryland this year, if the predictions of the "Hagers-Town and Country Almanack" come true.

The Almanack, which was fairly accurate in its weather predictions last year, says the main blast of cold and snowy weather will begin after the first of the year.

The 1962 edition of the journal now is being distributed in Maryland and 34 other states.

Although this year's edition predicts snow or rain for six days in December, the real onslaught will begin in January, when the words "cold," "blustery," "hard frost," "frost" and "wind" accompany the word "snow."

The forecast calls for snow and stormy weather on January 5, 6, 7 and 8. Snow or rain is expected on January 19, 20, 21 and 22; again on January 25 and 26 and once again on January 30 and 31.

Between the snowstorms it will be cold, windy, blustery or partly cloudy, with the exceptions of January 1, 2, 12, 13, 14, 15, 27, 28 and 29 when it will be fair and cold.

Snow or rain is predicted for February 4, 5, 6, 10, 11, 12, 13, 19, 20, 21, 22, 26, 27 and 28. February 1, 2 and 3 will be unsettled as will be February 17 and 18. The Almanack does not explain what "unsettled" means. The other days in the month will be a mixture of fair, cold, windy, partly cloudy and frosty.

Things begin to improve the next month, with snow predicted only on March 20, 21, 22 and 23. But the Almanack does not hedge about those four days. It makes the flat prediction of "cold, snow, stormy" for that period. No mention of "rain or snow" — just snow.

December is the next month in 1962 expected to have snow. The Almanack says snow will appear on December 29, 30 and 31.

The 1961 edition of the journal said snow would fall this December 11, 12, 13 and again Dec. 24, 25 and 26.

Brush Fire Threatens Homes Here

Wind Fans Blaze On Hillside

City firemen who battled brush fires the past two days are reminding parents to keep a closer watch on their children who could start such fires while playing with matches.

A number of homes in the vicinity of Hawthorne and Maryland avenues were threatened yesterday when a brush fire, fanned by the wind, swept up the hillside in that section of the city.

Quite a few telephone calls were received about 3:25 p. m. yesterday from residents who notified firemen of the brush fire which spread up the hillside.

South End firemen were the first on the scene and by radio called for an assist from firemen at Central station, who were out about half an hour although the firemen from South End did not tap in at the station until about 5:17 p. m.

While the two companies were fighting the blaze, firemen from West Side station filled in at Central.

At approximately 3:50 p. m. the firemen from West Side assisted in extinguishing a fire at the Midtown Parking Lot, Bedford and Liberty streets, when a minor fire did some damage to an auto.

Pa. Glider Pilot Aloft Over Five Hours Here

Jack McGonigle, Canonsburg, Pa., who has been piloting a sailplane over the Cumberland area in his spare time these past few weekends, remained aloft over five hours Monday and qualified for a Silver C Badge in soaring.

A few years ago he completed the altitude gain and distance requirements at Grand Prairie, Texas. Those two requirments plus duration are necessary to receive the badge from the Soaring Society of America.

Mr. McGonigle, who has been flying gliders about six years, became interested in soaring while he lived in Corning, N. Y., which is located not far from Elmira, internationally known for sailplaning.

On Monday he climbed into a Schweizer 1-26 owned by Richard Huppertz of Wilkinsburg, Pa. and was towed aloft by a Piper Super Cub piloted by James Abe of Wiley Ford, who released the glider at 3,000 feet over Knobley Mountain.

Mr. McGonigle remained aloft five hours and eight minutes. The glider he piloted is one which was based at the Municipal Airport recently.

The longest Mr. McGonigle was aloft previous to his Monday flight was about half an hour over the Canonsburg area. He learned through other glider enthusiasts that conditions over the Cumberland area are much better for soaring.

This was proven in his flight this week. For the past three weekends, Mr. MCGonigle, his wife and two small boys have journeyed to the local airport in order that he might get in some soaring.

He is employed as an engineer in the atomic power division of Westinghouse.

Cub Pack Meeting Scheduled Monday

Cub Pack Two will hold its monthly meeting on Monday at 7 p. m. in the home of Henry Hart Post 1411, VFW.

Boys between the ages of eight and 11, who are interested in joining the unit, are asked to attend the meeting with their parents.

Robert Shelley, cubmaster, said a number of skits will be presented at the meeting on Monday.

Housing Notes Sold At 1.65 Per Cent

The Housing Authority of the City of Cumberland this week sold $560,000 of temporary notes at an interest rate of 1.65 per cent.

The 361-day notes were sold to the Chemical Corn Exchange Bank of New York City. The last notes sold by the authority cost 1.83 per cent interest.

Piedmont Moose Pays $211 Fine

Piedmont Lodge 1120, Loyal Order of Moose, paid a total of $211 fine and costs Thursday after entering a plea of nolo contendere before Justice of the Peace Madalyn Bazzle in Keyser. The charges resulted from a raid on the club by West Virginia State Police and Piedmont officials on October 1.

Miss Bazzle said the plea was entered by the organization through its attorney, Jack Mullen, of Westernport. The lodge was ordered to pay $105.50 for the possession of liquor for sale and $105.50 for the possession of gambling devices found in the club.

Medical Care For Aging Will Be Discussed

Public Meeting Set Next Friday

Representatives of the medical profession will present their views on programs for medical care of the aging at a public meeting here next Friday night.

The meeting, described as a "getting to know the facts" session, will be held at West Side School on Paca Street at 8 p.m. Friday.

A panel will discuss the King Bill (HR 4222), the Kennedy administration's plan to provide medical care for the aging under the Social Security mechanism.

A question and answer session will follow the panel discussion.

Doctors Sponsor Meeting

Sponsors of the meeting are the Allegany-Garrett County Medical Society, its woman's auxiliary, and the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, Maryland's state medical association, has opposed the King Bill on the grounds that it won't help those aging persons who need medical care most.

Some 25,000 Marylanders, over 65, the faculty points out, are not eligible for Social Security and thus could not benefit from the program.

Also, minimum hospital and outpatient fees set up by the King Bill would have to be paid by the patient. Under the present medical care program in Maryland an indigent or medically indigent patient pays nothing.

Supported Kerr-Mills

An indigent person is defined as one eligible for public assistance (welfare). A medically indigent person is one who has a specified minimum income in relation to family size and can handle ordinary expenses, but who lacks money for medical treatment.

The Medical and Chirurgical Faculty, which proposed a study of the need for medical care in 1938 and helped bring it into being, supported the Kerr-Mills supplement under which Maryland's medical program with the help of federal funds has been expanded to cover 11,000 persons who formerly were not eligible. More than 2,800 are over 65.

Today Is CUF Day In Ridgeley And Wiley Ford

Today is County United Fund Day in Ridgeley and Wiley Ford, W.Va.

Members of the Ridgeley Lions Club will contact businessmen of the two communities to solicit contributions to the 1961 Fifth Mighty County United Fund Campaign.

Raymond G. Swadley, president of the Ridgeley Lions, last night issued a reminder to businessmen to give as generously as possible and help in canvassing employes.

The goal in the two communities is $138, said Mr. Swadley.

Aging Survey Shows Progress

About 700 survey forms on the needs of aged citizens have been returned to Allegany County Commission on the Problems of the Aging, it was reported at Thursday's meeting of the commission held in the County Commissioners meeting room at the Court House.

Rev. Robert W. Current, who presided, said the commission will still be glad to receive any surveys that were not turned in at the meeting.

From the survey the needs of the aged in this county will be determined and recommendations will be made to the state commission. Rev. Mr. Current said the matter of processing the forms will be started soon.

Announcement was made of the Cumberland Conference on Medical Care for the Aging, sponsored by Allegany - Garrett County Medical Society, its women's auxiliary and the Medical and Chirurgical Faculty of Maryland, to be held October 27 at West Side School.

Rev. Mr. Current reported that he and several other members of the commission have been asked to speak to different civic groups to explain purposes, plans and activities of the local commission. A committee will be appointed to handle such requests.

Area YFC Official Will Speak Here

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Schultz Jr., Hampstead, will be the guest speaker and vocalist respectively at the Tri-State Youth for Christ rally today at 7:45 p.m. in the auditorium of First Methodist Church, 1707 Frederick Street.

Mr. Schultz is the vice president of the Eastern States Youth for Christ International and directs Youth for Christ rallies in Hampstead.

All youths of the area are invited to participate in the YFC rallies held here each Saturday night.

Youth To See Film

Ohio Pastor To Conduct Mission At St. Paul's

REV. JAMES N. FISHER

Rev. James N. Fisher, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, New Philadelphia, Ohio, will conduct a four-day mission at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, corner of Washington and North Smallwood streets.

Rev. John F. Sammel, pastor of St. Paul's Church, said the mission is called "The Family for Christ," and will be held on four consecutive days starting on Monday, October 30.

An informal hymn sing will be held each evening at 7:30 p. m. and the mission service will begin at 7:45 p. m.

On the first evening of the mission, Rev. Mr. Fisher will speak on "The Family Faith." Other sermon topics will be: Tuesday—"The Family Bible." Wednesday—"The Family Altar," and Thursday — "The Family Pew."

The closing rally of the mission will be held Friday evening, November 3, with Rev. E. Raymond Shaheen, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Silver Spring, as guest speaker.

Four luncheons also are scheduled during the mission at various Lutheran Churches in the area. St. John's Church will be the host for the luncheon on October 30. Other luncheons are set for October 31 at St. Luke's; November 1, St. Paul's, Frostburg, and November 2 at St. Paul's, Cumberland. All the luncheons will begin at noon and the public is invited to attend and visit with the pastors, mission preachers and laymen.

Rev. Mr. Fisher graduated from Gettysburg (Pa.) College in 1934, and graduated from Gettysburg in 1938.

His first pastorate was at Pine Grove Mills, Pa., from 1938 to 1943. He also served churches at Johnstown, Pa., Davidsville, Pa., and has been pastor of his present church since 1947.

While at New Philadelphia, Rev. Mr. Fisher has served as chairman of the conference stewardship committee; chairman of the adult work of the board of christian education and president of the board of the City Youth Center. He also has been active in the Lions Club there.

City Collects About $700,000 Of 1961 Taxes

It was a big day at the City Tax Office yesterday, when more than $198,000 of 1961 taxes were taken in by 2 p. m.

Actual collections for the day will probably reach the $250,000 mark, as collections continued excellent until the office closed at 5 p. m., and workers had not had time to process a fat pile of payments which came in by mail.

The collections made by 2 p. m. brought total payments to some $700,000, or 54.3 per cent of the $1,289,080 tax levy, according to Mrs. Lucile Roeder, finance commissioner.

The percentage of collections is actually better than the 54.3 per cent indicates, since not all taxes have been billed.

All real estate bills and statements for the personal property of individuals have been mailed, but only part of the taxes on the personal property of corporations.

Monday will be the last day on which payments can be made without interest. The tax office will be open from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and mailed payments may be made at par if postmarked by midnight Monday.

FAA Official To Speak At Pilots Dinner Here

An official of the Federal Aviation Administration in Washington will be guest speaker at the fourth annual dinner of the Cumberland Pilots Association next week.

He is George D. Stathers, chief of pilot training and certification section, Flight Standard Service of the FAA. The dinner will begin at 6 p. m. Saturday, October 28 at the Cumberland Country Club.

His topic will be "Future Plans for the Private Pilot." Master of ceremonies will be G. Wyatt Brenaman.

An installation of officers will be held during the dinner program, which will be followed by a social hour.

Officers who will be installed include Quinter Fike, LaVale, president; Lorimer Twigg, LaVale, vice president; Mrs. Bruce Dawson, treasurer; Mrs. George S. Nash Jr., corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert K. Poling, recording secretary.

A program of entertainment will be planned. Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Dawson at Gurley's Garage or from George S. Nash, manager of the Cumberland Municipal Airport.

The dinner is open to anyone in the area who is interested in flying.

Appeals Review Set Tuesday In Amcelle Cases

A review of appeals filed by workers of the Amcelle plant of Celanese Fibers Company will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the local office of the Maryland Department of Employment Security.

Bernard Streett, DES special examiner, is expected to preside at the review of appeals filed by workers whose claims for unemployment have been denied.

The review will be the third study made by the DES in the case involving a dispute regarding work assignments in the extrusion department of the plant.

Several weeks ago, a DES examiner ruled that unemployed workers, with three exceptions, were to be denied benefits on grounds that a labor dispute existed.

Late in September, Mr. Streett held a hearing on the claims of workers, based on appeals filed by Melvin C. Harris, Charles H. Brode and Lillian C. Burch.

Last week, Mr. Streett reversed a ruling appealed by Mr. Harris and recinded an indefinite suspension of benefits imposed August 27.

He disapproved the appeals filed by Charles H. Brode, a spinning operator in the extrusion department, and Lillian C. Burch, a yarn winder in the textile department.

His ruling was that unemployment for groups of workers represented in the Brode and Burch appeals was due to a work stoppage resulting from a labor dispute.

Leslie J. Clark, local attorney, will represent the claimants who are members of Local 1874, Textile Workers Union of America, and Melvin Sloan, vice president, will sit in for James R. Stewart, president, who was admitted to Memorial Hospital Tuesday for medical treatment.

Cancer Study Kits Are Due

Group captains who are taking part in the cancer prevention study in Allegany County are requested to return their kits to headquarters of the Allegany County Chapter of the American Cancer Society, 128 Union Street, as soon as possible.

The captains received the kits last week and distributed the questionnaires to some 1,100 families in the county who are taking part in the six-year study.

Persons who are enrolled in the survey will be contacted each year for six years in order that information can be kept up to date. This is the third year of the study and participants are asked to fill out a simple card.

All group captains must have their kits in cancer headquarters by November 1.

Captains are reminded that the entire kit must be returned to the cancer office, including the outer envelopes which contain pertinent code numbers and information needed for the survey.

Union Will Meet

Local 568, Iron Workers Union, will meet today at 8 p. m. in the Allegany Labor Temple.

Dance Tonight

The Baltimore Pike Volunteer Fire Company and its auxiliary will hold a round and square dance tonight from 9 to midnight at Minke's Cottage Inn, with music by Wayne Brown's orchestra. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

Yesterday's edition of The Cumberland News erroneously stated that the dance would be held last night.

Four Injured When Car Rams Into Tree Here

Brother, Sister Are Hospitalized

Four persons were injured and two of them were hospitalized yesterday after the car in which they were riding rammed into a tree near the intersection of Fayette and Allegany streets.

Admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital were Miss Margaret I. Scott, 18, of 507 Rose Hill Avenue and her brother, John E. Scott, 14.

Another brother, Douglas J. Scott, 22, driver of the car, was treated at the hospital, as was Charles Miller, 15, of Bowling Green, a passenger in the auto.

Miss Scott sustained a possible fractured right arm and complained of head and chest injuries. Her younger brother had possible chest injuries. They are reported in "good" condition.

City Police Detective Kenneth Morrissey said Mr. Scott was driving east on Fayette Street when the brakes of the car failed in the 500-block.

He attempted to stop the car by changing gears but it continued out of control. Meanwhile, a car was attempting to turn off Fayette Street onto Allegany Street.

In an effort to avoid hitting the other car, Scott drove up over the sidewalk and rammed into a tree, demolishing the vehicle.

The accident occurred about 5:15 p.m. and the sister and brother were admitted to the hospital about 5:30 p.m.

Police Officers James Swann and Donald Boggs assisted in the investigation .

Eligible Urged To Apply Now For Benefits

Thousands of dollars in Social Security benefits may be lost to a number of retired workers or their survivors if they do not apply for their payments before the end of this month, according to Walter R. Campbell, manager of the Cumberland Social Security Office.

With the 1961 amendments to the Social Security Law crowding the changes of late last year from the public eye, Mr. Campbell said, many people affected by the 1960 amendments have apparently not yet learned of their eligibility for payments.

These three groups were made newly eligible for benefits beginning with the month of October 1960:

1. Those persons made eligible for benefits under the 1960 provision which reduced the amount of work needed to qualify for payments (now even further reduced under this year's amendments).

2. Survivors of workers who died between March 31, 1938, and January 1, 1940. (These benefits had been payable only to survivors of workers who died in 1940 or later.)

3. Aged dependent widowers of women workers who died before September 1950, when this type of benefit was not payable.

Workers who have been totally disabled for a year and a half or more and their dependents, may lose some back payments if they do not apply for their Social Security benefits before the end of November.

Under the law, Social Security payments may be retroactive for up to 12 months, Mr. Campbell explained. Therefore, for those persons who became eligible for payments in October of last year, when most of the 1960 amendments went into effect, each month of delay in applying for their benefits will now mean a month's benefit lost.

Also, there are many aged workers who have not applied for benefits because they feel they are now earning above the maximum to be eligible for payments, Mr. Campbell added. They may be wrong, he said, especially since new changes in the law have been made. In fact they may be eligible for payments for some months of 1961, if not for the entire year.

Moreover, he pointed out, even if they are not eligible for payments now, by applying now, they can receive their benefits as soon as they do become eligible.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Roger D. Parrott, Marietta, Ga., announce the birth of a son there October 9. The mother is the former Miss Vivian Hanawalt, daughter of C. William Hanawalt and granddaughter of Mrs. Anna Hanawalt, Maryland Avenue.

Memorial Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, 644 North Centre Street, a daughter yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Partlow, 25 Hawthorne Avenue, a daughter yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Flowers, Little Orleans, a daughter yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Keyser, Oldtown, a daughter yesterday.

Stolen Car Turns Into Nice Present

Abby Dalton, who plays nurse Martha Hale on the "Hennesey" series on the CBS Television Network, thought for a panicky moment the other day that her car had been stolen from the studio lot.

Parked in her spot was a gleaming new foreign sports car, complete with air conditioning, instead of her well-used model of the same make. It turned out to be a surprise birthday present from her husband, Jack Smith.

Actor Attains Both His Goals

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP — "All my life I wanted to be only two things—a ball player and an actor," says John Berardino, who now has made the big league as both.

John plays one of the egghead cops in ABC's "The New Breed," the series about the Los Angeles Police Department's crack metropolitan squad. As a sort of Ivy League Joe Friday, he has reached the top in TV. He did it faster in baseball.

No bonus baby, John was inked while still playing ball at the University of Southern California by a scout who promised: "You'll be playing in the majors in two years." A year later he was infielder for the St. Louis Browns.

After Navy service in World War II, he was back with the Browns, got peddled to the Cleveland Indians in 1948 and played in the World Series. In 1952 he was sold to the Pittsburgh Pirates at the nadir of their fortunes. A leg injury convinced him to quit the next year.

A native Angeleno, John came back home for a return to his other love, acting. He had started young, as a member of "Our Gang," but quit at 9. During his baseball years, he studied off-season at the Pasadena Playhouse and with a private coach.

JOHN BERARDINO

But he found out acting was tougher to crack than baseball.

"Once I even got turned down for a part in a baseball picture," he said. "The producer said I didn't look like a ball player!"

John had some lean years, but he stayed with it. He began to specialize in TV heavies and in recent years has bettered his top baseball salary — $20,000 plus $7,800 World Series money. He augments his income by selling TV scripts.

Now 42, John has no worries about his old age. He starts collecting his baseball pension at 50, maybe sooner. He participates in the pension plans of the Screen Actors Guild and the Writers Guild of America. And he expects to be around to collect his Social Security.

'Heavy' To Director

After playing a cowtown "heavy" on one "Lawman" episode, Richard Benedict shifted into civvies to direct the next episode to be filmed, "The Appointment," in his first fling at TV directing. Both episodes will be aired during the 1961-62 season.

ABC-TV's new cartoon series, "Top Cat" stars the alley cat as leader of a five-man gang engaged in plaguing friendly enemy Officer Dibble, the cop on the alley beat. "T.C." is a born con man, but always stays within the law. His right hand man is loyal Benny the Ball, slow-witted but never dumb.

The theme for "Car 54—Where Are You?" was composed by Earle Rogers.

Actor Attains Both His Goals

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP — "All my life I wanted to be only two things—a ball player and an actor," says John Berardino, who now has made the big league as both.

John plays one of the egghead cops in ABC's "The New Breed," the series about the Los Angeles Police Department's crack metropolitan squad. As a sort of Ivy League Joe Friday, he has reached the top in TV. He did it faster in baseball.

No bonus baby, John was inked while still playing ball at the University of Southern California by a scout who promised: "You'll be playing in the majors in two years." A year later he was infielder for the St. Louis Browns.

After Navy service in World War II, he was back with the Browns, got peddled to the Cleveland Indians in 1948 and played in the World Series. In 1952 he was sold to the Pittsburgh Pirates at the nadir of their fortunes. A leg injury convinced him to quit the next year.

A native Angeleno, John came back home for a return to his other love, acting. He had started young, as a member of "Our Gang," but quit at 9. During his baseball years, he studied off-season at the Pasadena Playhouse and with a private coach.

JOHN BERARDINO

But he found out acting was tougher to crack than baseball.

"Once I even got turned down for a part in a baseball picture," he said. "The producer said I didn't look like a ball player!"

John had some lean years, but he stayed with it. He began to specialize in TV heavies and in recent years has bettered his top baseball salary — $20,000 plus $7,800 World Series money. He augments his income by selling TV scripts.

Now 42, John has no worries about his old age. He starts collecting his baseball pension at 50, maybe sooner. He participates in the pension plans of the Screen Actors Guild and the Writers Guild of America. And he expects to be around to collect his Social Security.

'Heavy' To Director

After playing a cowtown "heavy" on one "Lawman" episode, Richard Benedict shifted into civvies to direct the next episode to be filmed, "The Appointment," in his first fling at TV directing. Both episodes will be aired during the 1961-62 season.

Stolen Car Turns Into Nice Present

Abby Dalton, who plays nurse Martha Hale on the "Hennesey" series on the CBS Television Network, thought for a panicky moment the other day that her car had been stolen from the studio lot.

Parked in her spot was a gleaming new foreign sports car, complete with air conditioning, instead of her well-used model of the same make. It turned out to be a surprise birthday present from her husband, Jack Smith.

Carol Burnett Will Provide Harpo's Voice

Carol Burnett will star as Harpo Marx's "voice" in "The Wonderful World of Toys," to be produced on location in New York City's Central Park for presentation Sunday, Nov. 12 (10-11 p. m. EST) on NBC-TV's "DuPont Show of the Week."

Co-producers John A. Aaron and Jesse Zousmer said that Miss Burnett, one of America's most acclaimed comediennes, will appear throughout the broadcast, which will treat "the magic and fascination of toys." Harpo Marx, who has not spoken in nearly 30 years as a performer, will be silent emcee and viewers' guide.

Fred Coe To Produce 'Theater 62'

Fred Coe, a veteran of 15 years in show business, will produce "Theater '62," a series of eight full-hour color dramatizations of celebrated David O. Selznick screen classics for NBC-TV this season. The series, which will originate in New York, starts this month and runs through May.

Coe is identified with some of the medium's greatest triumphs—Paddy Chayefsky's "Marty," the first colorcast of "Peter Pan" and "Philco Television Playhouse." He is credited with developing such noted writers as Chayefsky, Tad Mosel, David Shaw and Sumner Locke Elliott.

Carol Burnett Will Provide Harpo's Voice

Carol Burnett will star as Harpo Marx's "voice" in "The Wonderful World of Toys," to be produced on location in New York City's Central Park for presentation Sunday, Nov. 12 (10-11 p. m. EST) on NBC-TV's "DuPont Show of the Week."

Co-producers John A. Aaron and Jesse Zousmer said that Miss Burnett, one of America's most acclaimed comediennes, will appear throughout the broadcast, which will treat "the magic and fascination of toys." Harpo Marx, who has not spoken in nearly 50 years as a performer, will be silent emcee and viewers' guide.

Fred Coe To Produce 'Theater 62'

Fred Coe, a veteran of 15 years in show business, will produce "Theater '62," a series of eight full-hour color dramatizations of celebrated David O. Selznick screen classics for NBC-TV this season. The series, which will originate in New York, starts this month and runs through May.

Coe is identified with some of the medium's greatest triumphs—Paddy Chayefsky's "Marty," the first colorcast of "Peter Pan" and "Philco Television Playhouse." He is credited with developing such noted writers as Chayefsky, Tad Mosel, David Shaw and Sumner Locke Elliott.
